§ 4608. Bond Election—Notice.—The question whether bonds shall be issued, as provided in the preceding section, shall be determined at an election to be held in the manner prescribed by law for holding annual school elections. Notice therefor shall state the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, time they are to run, and purpose for which the money is to be used. The ballots must contain the words "Bonds, yes," or "Bonds, no." If a majority of the votes cast at such election are "Bonds, yes," the board of directors must issue such bonds: Provided, that the amount of bonds to be issued, together with any outstanding indebtedness of the district, exceeds one and one-half per cent of the taxable property in said district, then three-fifths of the votes cast at such election must be "Bonds, yes," before the board of directors are authorized to issue said bonds. § 4609. Advertisement, Form and Registry of Bonds.—When authorized and empowered to issue bonds, as provided in sections 4607, 4608, the board of directors shall, within thirty days after the date of election, certify the result to the county treasurer to which said school district belongs, who shall publish notice of the sale of such bonds, in at least one weekly newspaper published at the county seat, if there be one, for four consecutive issues, and publish such other notices as the board of directors may require. Said notices must give the amounts of bonds to be sold, the time to run, where payable, the option, if any, of the district to redeem, also naming the hour and day for considering bids, and asking bidders to name price and rates of interest at which they will purchase such bonds or any of them. Such bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and shall contain upon their face the date and series of issue, rate of interest, where payable, time to run, option, if any, of district to redeem, and the printed or lithographed statement that said bond is issued under the provisions of this act, and that the whole indebtedness of said district does not exceed the constitutional limit. Each bond so issued must be registered by the county treasurer in a book to be kept for that purpose, which must show the number and such data as is necessary to secure a complete record of such bond, the series and amount of such bond, the person to whom the same is issued, the number of the district issuing, together with the names of directors signing the same; and the said bond shall be indorsed by the treasurer, with his name and a full statement of the name of the person to whom sold, and when issued, together with the number and series of said bond: Provided, that in the case of joint school districts the bond or bonds shall be registered by the treasurer of each county in which any part of such joint school district shall lie. Former laws cited in 28 Wash. 341.

§ 4610. Sale of Bonds—Duty of County Treasurer.—At the time named in said notice it shall be the duty of said board of directors to meet with the county treasurer at his office, and with him open said bids, and sell said bonds or any portion thereof to the person or persons making the most advantageous offer: Provided, the bonds shall never be sold below par, and the board of directors may reject any and all bids, and at any time within two years of the election at which authority was granted to issue and sell said bonds, the board of directors may proceed to readvertise the sale of such bonds or any portion thereof as often as may be necessary, until the whole thereof shall be sold; and such board may also require all persons bidding for such bonds, except the state of Washington, to deposit one per centum of the par value of the bonds bid for on depositing with the treasurer their bids, and if the bidder fails to take and pay for the bonds for which he bid in case of their sale to him, the amount so deposited shall be forfeited to the school district; otherwise to be returned to such bidder, and a resale of such bonds so refused to be taken may be made as if the bid for the same had been rejected. Upon the sale of the bonds, the board of directors shall, within ten days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, deliver the bonds, properly executed, to the county treasurer, taking his receipt therefor. The county treasurer shall, upon payment of the price agreed upon, deliver the same to the person or persons to whom sold, and place the moneys arising from such sale to the credit of the general school fund of the district: Provided, that where the bonds have been sold for the purchase of schoolhouse site or sites, building one or more schoolhouses and providing same with all necessary furniture, apparatus or equipment, or for any or all of these purposes, he shall place the money derived from such sale to the credit of the building fund of the district, and such fund is hereby created. Fees for advertising shall be deducted from the proceeds: Provided, that if the board of directors and the person or persons to whom the bonds are sold agree that the delivery of said bonds shall be in installments, the county treasurer shall hold said bonds, and deliver to purchasers only on written order of the board of directors to deliver at specified time the bonds designated by number and series. [L. '11, p. 390, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 326, § 4; L. '90, p. 47, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2700; L. '97, p. 403, § 120; L. '05, p. 265, § 7; L. '07, p. 614, § 9.]

Former laws cited in 4 Wash. 398; 28 Wash. 342.

§ 4611. May Exchange Warrants for Bonds.—If bonds issued under this chapter are not sold as herein provided, the holders of unpaid warrants drawn on the county treasurer by such district for an indebtedness existing at the date of the election may exchange said warrants at the face value thereof and accrued interest theron for coupon bonds issued under this chapter, at not less than par value and accrued interest of such bonds at the time of the exchange; such exchange to be made under such regulations as may be provided by the board of directors of such district. [L. '09, p. 327, § 5.]

§ 4612. Joint Districts.—For the purposes of this chapter a joint school district shall be deemed as belonging to the county in which the schoolhouse is located, if there be a schoolhouse, and if there be no schoolhouse, then it shall be deemed as belonging to the county in which the district owns a schoolhouse site that has been lawfully selected by the electors of the district. [L. '09, p. 327, § 6.]

§ 4613. Bond Interest Levy—Sinking and Redemption Fund.—The county commissioners must ascertain and levy annually, in addition to the school district tax, the tax necessary to pay the interest upon such bonds as it becomes due, and at the expiration of one-half of the time for which said bonds are to run, and annually thereafter, until full payment of said bonds is made, they shall levy, in addition to the tax required to pay the interest, such amount for sinking fund to meet the payments of said bonds at maturity, to be determined by dividing the amount of bonds outstanding by the remaining number of years to run, and the fund arising from such levy shall be kept as the bond redemption fund of said district, and each of said tax levies shall be a lien upon the property of said district, and must be collected in the same manner as the taxes for other school purposes: Provided, that the county treasurer, when authorized to do so by the board of directors of any school district, may invest any accumulated or other sinking fund of said district in school, county or state warrants of the state of Washington, and all profits accruing from such investment, and the funds so invested, shall revert to the sinking or other fund of said district, and the county treasurer shall be custodian of all warrants purchased by and with the said sinking fund, until the same are redeemed: And provided further, that the county treasurer, when authorized to do so by the board of directors of any school district, may purchase and redeem any of the outstanding bonds of said district, paying for said bonds out of the accumulated sinking fund of the district; all revenues provided for in this section shall constitute a separate fund, to be known as the bond redemption fund. [L. '11, p. 391, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 327, § 7; L. '90, p. 48, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2701; L. '97, p. 403, § 121; L. '99, p. 321, § 20; L. '07, p. 197, § 3; L. '07, p. 615, § 10.]

the joint school district is construed to belong), all moneys in his possession derived from the tax provided for in this chapter; and the county treasurer receiving such money shall receipt in duplicate to the treasurer or treasurers remitting such funds for such money; and he shall also place the amount or amounts so received to the credit of the special fund or funds of the joint school district to which it properly belongs. [L. '09, p. 328, § 8.]

§ 4615. Payment of Interest on Bonds.—The county treasurer must pay out of moneys belonging to the credit of the fund of the school district created by section 4613, the interest upon any bonds issued under this chapter by such school district when the same becomes due, at such place as may be designated in the coupons attached to said bonds, or upon the presentation at his office of said coupons, which must show the amount due and the number and series of the bond to which it belongs, and all coupons so paid must be immediately reported to the school directors. [L. '11, p. 392, § 3. Cf. L. '09, p. 329, § 9. Cf. '90, p. 48, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2702; L. '97, p. 404, § 122.]

Section 6 of this act, changed to § 4612, is evidently an error, and § 7 (§ 4613, supra) was probably intended.

§ 4616. Bonds Lithographed or Printed.—The school directors of any district must cause to be printed or lithographed, at the lowest rates, suitable bonds, with coupons attached, when the same become necessary, and pay therefor out of the moneys in the county treasury to the credit of the school district. § 4617. Refunding of Bonds.—Whenever any school district in this state shall have heretofore, under any of the acts of the territorial or state legislatures then in force, lawfully issued any bonds, and the amount of said bonds so issued and negotiated did not, at the time of their issue, exceed the sum of five per centum of the taxable property of the said school district, it shall be lawful for the said school district to issue and exchange its bonds at a rate of interest not greater than that borne by the original issue of bonds, par for par, without any further vote of the school district than that heretofore had or required by existing law at the time of their issue, and said bonds, shall, in all respects, conform to and be governed by the other provisions of this act. [L. '09, p. 329, § 11.]

§ 4618. Same.—Whenever any bonds lawfully issued by any school district under the provisions of this act shall reach maturity and shall remain unpaid, or may be paid under any option provided in the bonds, the board of directors thereof shall have the power to fund the same by issuing coupon bonds conformable to the requirements of this act and exchange the same, par for par, for the outstanding bonds as aforesaid, without any further vote of the school district: Provided, that such bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, shall be redeemable within twenty years from date of issue, and shall draw a rate of interest not to exceed six per centum per annum. [L. '09, p. 329, § 12. Cf. L. '90, p. 48, § 8; 1 H. C., § 2704; L. '97, p. 404, § 124.]

Holders to Notify County Treasurer—Notice of Redemption.—Every holder of any of the bonds so issued as provided in this act shall within ten (10) days after he shall become the owner or holder thereof, notify the county treasurer of the county in which such bonds are issued of his ownership, together with his full name and postoffice address, and the county treasurer of said county shall, in addition to the published notice hereinafter provided for, deposit in the postoffice, properly stamped and addressed to each owner or holder of any such bonds subject to redemption or payment, a notice in like form, stating the time and place of the redemption of such bonds and the number of the bonds to be redeemed, and in case any owners of bonds shall fail to notify the treasurer of their ownership as aforesaid, then a notice mailed to the last holder of such bonds shall be deemed sufficient, and any and all such notices so mailed as aforesaid shall be deemed to be personal notice to the holders of such bonds, and at the expiration of the time therein named shall have the force to suspend the interest upon any such bonds. [L. '09, p. 330, § 13. Cf. L. '90, p. 49, § 9; 1 H. C., § 2705; L. '97, § 405, § 125.]

§ 4620. Incidental Costs.—At any time after the issuance of such bonds, and in the discharge of the duties imposed upon said county treasurer, should any incidental expense, costs or charges arise, the said county treasurer shall present his claim for the same to the board of directors of the school district issuing such bonds, and the same shall be audited and paid in the same manner as other services are paid under the provisions of law. [L. '09, p. 330, § 14. Cf. L. '90, p. 50, § 10; 1 H. C., § 2706; L. '97, p. 405, § 126.]

§ 4621. Notice of Bond Redemption—Cancellation.—Whenever the amount of any sinking fund created under the provisions of this act shall equal the amount, principal and interest of any bond then due, or subject under the pleasure or option of said school district to be paid or redeemed, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer of the county in which the school district issuing such bonds is located, to publish a notice in the official newspaper of the county, if such a one there be, and if not, then in a newspaper of general circulation, that the said county treasurer will within thirty (30) days from the date of such notice, redeem and pay any such bond then redeemable or payable, giving priority according to the date of issue numerically, and upon the presentation of any such bond or bonds the said treasurer shall pay the same; and in case that any holder of such bond or bonds shall fail or neglect to present the same at the time mentioned in said notice, or in the notice hereinbefore provided for, then the interest upon such bond or bonds shall cease and determine, and the treasurer of such county shall thereafter pay only the amount of such bond and the interest accrued thereon up to the day mentioned in said notice. When any bonds are so redeemed or paid, the county treasurer shall cause the same to be fully canceled, and write across the face of such bonds the words "redeemed," with the date of redemption, and shall file the same with the county auditor as vouchers for the sum so paid. When bonds are held by the state of Washington advertising as contemplated and prescribed in this section shall be deemed unnecessary. [L. '11, p. 393, § 4. Cf. L. '09, p. 330, § 15; L. CHAPTER XXIX.

Validation of Indebtedness and Bonds Therefor.

§ 4622. Electors may Validate Indebtedness.—Any school district may validate and ratify the indebtedness of such school district, incurred for strictly school purposes, when the same together with all then outstanding legal indebtedness does not exceed five per centum of the value of the taxable property in such school district. The value of taxable property in such school district shall be ascertained as provided in article VIII, section 6 of the constitution of the state of Washington. [L. '09, p. 331, § 1. Cf. L. '95, p. 26, § 1; L. '97, p. 406, § 128.]

Former laws cited in 19 Wash. 120; 39 Wash. 141.

§ 4623. Resolution of Board—Vote Necessary.—Whenever the board of directors of any school district shall deem it advisable to validate and ratify the indebtedness mentioned in the preceding section, they shall provide therefor by resolution, which shall be entered on the records of such school district, which resolution shall provide for the holding of an election for the purpose of submitting the question of validating and ratifying the indebtedness so incurred to the voters of such school district for approval or disapproval, and if at such election three-fifths of the voters in such school district voting at such election shall vote in favor of the validation and ratification of such indebtedness, then such indebtedness so validated and ratified and every part thereof existing at the time of the adoption of said resolution shall thereby become and is hereby declared to be validated and ratified and a binding obligation upon such school district, when the only grounds of the previous invalidity of such indebtedness so ratified and invalidated is that at the time of the attempted incurring thereof, the same together with all other then existing indebtedness of such school district, exceeded one and one-half per centum of the taxable property in such school district, as provided in article VIII, section 6 of the constitution of the state of Washington, and that such indebtedness was so attempted to be incurred without the assent of three-fifths of the voters of such school district voting at an election held for that purpose, as required by said constitution. [L. '09, p. 331, § 2. Cf. L. '95, p. 27, § 2; L. '97, p. 406, § 129.]

§ 4624. Clerk to Give Notice of Election.—At the time of the adoption of the resolution provided for in the preceding section, the board of directors shall direct the clerk or secretary of the board to give public notice of the time, place or places, and purpose of such election, and specifying the amount and general character of the indebtedness proposed to be ratified. Such clerk or secretary shall thereupon cause written or printed notices to be posted in at least five places in such school district, at least twenty days before such election. Said notice shall also be published for the same length of time in a daily newspaper, printed and published in such district, and if there be no such daily newspaper, then in a weekly newspaper published in this state and of general circulation in the county where such school district is situated, in two regular issues of such weekly newspaper next preceding the day of such election. Said notices shall contain a copy of the resolution mentioned in the preceding section, the time of holding such election and location of polling place or places, a statement of the object of the election, and the form of the ballot adopted by the board to determine the question submitted to the voters. [L. '09, p. 332, § 3. Cf. L. '95, p. 29, § 4; L. '97, p. 408, § 131.]

§ 4625. Election, How Held, Ballots, etc.—Elections hereunder shall be by ballot, and conducted in the manner provided for conducting annual school elections. The ballot must contain the words, "Validating and ratifying indebtedness, yes," or the words, "Validating and ratifying indebtedness, no." Ballots containing the words "Validating and ratifying indebtedness, yes," shall be counted in favor of validating and ratifying such indebtedness, and ballots containing the words, "Validating and ratifying indebtedness, no," shall be counted against validating and ratifying such indebtedness. As soon as the polls are closed at such election, the judge at each polling place shall count the votes, ascertain the result and certify the same and make return thereof, within two days after such election, to the board of directors of such district, by depositing the same, together with the ballots cast at such election, with the clerk or secretary of such board, and within five days after such election, or as soon as all the returns of election are deposited as herein provided, the board of directors of such district shall meet and canvass and declare the result, and shall cause to be entered a minute thereof on the records of such district. The qualifications of voters at such election shall be the same as prescribed for the election of school officers. [L. '09, p. 332, § 4. Cf. L. '95, p. 29, § 3; L. '97, p. 407, § 130.]

§ 4626. Bonds—Issuance—Form—Seal—Proceeds.—If the indebtedness of such school district is validated and ratified, as provided in this chapter, by three-fifths of the voters voting at such election, the board of directors of such school district, without any further vote, may borrow money and issue negotiable coupon bonds therefor. Bonds so issued shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed six per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually, payable and redeemable at such time and place as designated in the bonds, but not exceeding twenty years from date of issue. The bonds and coupons shall be in such form as the board of directors shall prescribe, and payable at such place as may be designated therein. In all school districts of the second or third class, said bonds, with the coupons, must be signed by the board of directors and countersigned by the clerk of the school district. In school districts of the first class said bonds, with the coupons, must be signed in the corporate name of the district, by the president of the board of directors thereof, and attested by the secretary of the board, except that the said coupons may bear the lithograph signatures of the said president and secretary. The seal of such district, if such district has a seal, shall be affixed to each bond by the secretary thereof. The moneys arising from the sale of coupon bonds issued under this chapter shall be placed by the treasurer of the county in a special fund to the credit of such school district existing at the time of the adoption of the resolution mentioned in section 4623, not evidenced by negotiable bonds. [L. '09, p. 333, § 5. Cf. L. '95, p. 30, § 5; L. '97, p. 409, § 132.]

§ 4627. Amount to be Issued—Advertisement of Sale, etc.—When authorized to issue bonds, as provided in this chapter, the board of directors shall, at a meeting of such board, by resolution provide for the issuing of such bonds, prescribing their number, amount and term, and shall deliver a copy of said resolution to the county treasurer of the county in which such school district is situated or to which it belongs as provided in this act, who shall immediately advertise for sale of said bonds, and the law relating to other school bonds shall govern, control and apply to bonds issued or sold under this chapter, except that bonds issued under this chapter shall not bear a greater rate of interest than six per cent per annum, and they may be sold in such amounts or blocks as the board of directors may direct, and such board may also require all persons bidding for said bonds, except the state of Washington, to deposit one per cent of the par value of the bonds bid for on depositing with the treasurer their bids, and if the bidder fails to take and pay for the bonds for which he bid, in case of their sale to him, the amount so deposited shall be forfeited to the school district, otherwise to be returned to such bidder and a resale of such bonds so refused to be taken may be made as if the bid for the same had been rejected, and the money arising from the sale of the bonds issued under this chapter shall be applied as provided in the preceding section. [L. '09, p. 334, § 6. Cf. L. '95, p. 30, § 6; L. '97, p. 410, § 133.]

§ 4628. Warrants Exchanged for Bonds.—If bonds issued under this chapter are not sold as herein provided, the holders of unpaid warrants drawn on the county treasurer by such district for an indebtedness existing at the time of the adoption of the resolution mentioned in section 4623, may exchange said warrants at the face value thereof and accrued interest thereon for coupon bonds issued under this chapter, at not less than par value and accrued interest of such bonds at the time of the exchange; such exchange to be made under such regulations as may be provided by the board of directors of such district. [L. '09, p. 334, § 7. Cf. L. '95, p. 31, § 7; L. '97, p. 411, § 134.]

§ 4629. County Treasurer Notified of Result—Money, How Applied Thereafter.—When the board of directors shall have canvassed and declared the result of the election as prescribed in section 4625, it shall, if the same shall have been in favor of validating and ratifying the indebtedness, immediately cause to be sent to the county treasurer of the county in which such district is situated, notice of the result of said election. The annual expense of such district shall not thereafter exceed the annual revenue thereof, and any officer of such district who shall knowingly aid in increasing the annual expenditure in excess of the annual revenue of such district, shall be deemed to be guilty of misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars. If the indebtedness of such school district, excluding the bonded indebtedness existing before the adoption of said resolution, is not extinguished by the exchange of warrants for bonds, or by the proceeds of the sale of bonds, as herein provided, then it shall be the duty of the board of directors, thirty days before the regular annual tax levy, to certify the amount of such indebtedness remaining unpaid to the board of county commissioners of the county in which such school district is situated, and said board of county commissioners, at the time of making the regular annual tax levy, shall annually levy a special tax on the taxable property of the district not to exceed three mills on the dollar on the valuation of such taxable property, which shall be collected as other taxes are collected, and the proceeds of such tax shall be a special fund for the payment of the indebtedness of such district, not included in bonds, existing at the time of the adoption of the resolution mentioned in section 4623. [L. '09, p. 335, § 8. Cf. L. '95, p. 32, § 8; L. '97, p. 411, § 135.]

Former laws cited in 19 Wash. 120.

§ 4629½. Indebtedness of District Merging—Election.—In case any school district has heretofore incurred, or shall hereafter incur, indebtedness for strictly school purposes in excess of one and one-half per cent, and less than five per cent of the assessed valuation of property in such district, and has heretofore, or shall hereafter, become merged in a district of the first class, the directors and clerk of the last-named district may, after such merger, cause to be submitted to the voters within the limits of the district which incurred the obligations, the question of validating and ratifying such indebtedness. The vote shall be taken and the question determined in the manner prescribed in sections 4623, 4624 and 4625. The directors of the district of the first class shall make provisions for payment of the indebtedness so validated by certifying the amount thereof to the county commissioners for a special levy, in the manner prescribed in section 4629: Provided, such district of the first class may pay a part, or all, of such validating indebtedness from any funds available or by issuing bonds therefor, under the following conditions: When such district of the first class has taken over property of any district without an adjustment and apportionment of property and of indebtedness, as provided in sections 4437 and 4438, the directors of the enlarged district shall make such adjustment and apportionment, as of the time of merger, and may pay such validated indebtedness to the extent that the value of the property received shall be found to exceed the total indebtedness of the district annexed. [L. '13, p. 416, § 1.]

§ 4644. Certificates and Diplomas Described—Qualifications.—The common school certificates and diplomas issued by authority of the state of Washington, the period for which each shall be valid and the qualifications required of applicants for the same shall be as follows:

First. Third Grade Common School Certificates: Applicant shall pass an examination in reading, grammar, penmanship and punctuation, history of the United States, geography, arithmetic, physiology and hygiene, theory and art of teaching, orthography, and Washington State Manual. This certificate shall be valid for one year: Provided, that the holder of a third grade certificate who shall, after the granting of the same, attend any accredited institution of higher education in this state for one year, shall upon application be granted a second grade certificate.

Second. Second Grade Common School Certificates: Applicant shall have credits in the same subjects as for a third grade common school certificate and shall take an examination in music. This certificate shall be valid for two years, but may be renewed, if, during the life of the certificate, the holder has complied with any one of the following conditions, to wit, 1. An attendance of one semester at an accredited school of higher education, or of six weeks at an accredited summer school when satisfactory work was done in three subjects and certified to by the principal of such school. 2. Upon sixteen months of successful teaching.

Third. First Grade Primary Certificates: Applicant must have taught at least forty-five months in the primary grades, and shall have credits in the same subjects as for a second grade certificate, and must also pass an examination in nature study, drawing, literature and physical geography; but the state board of education may accept other subjects in lieu of two of the above subjects at the request of the applicant, as provided in section 4637, of this chapter. This certificate shall authorize the holder to teach in the primary grades only and shall be valid for five (5) years, and may be renewed for a like period if application is made not later than ninety (90) days after certificate expires, and if, during the life of the certificate, the holder has complied with any one of the following conditions, to wit: 1. An attendance of one year at an accredited institution of higher learning during the life of the certificate when satisfactory work was done in three subjects and certified to by the principal or president of such school: 2. Successful teaching for not less than twenty-four (24) months during the life of the certificate. Any renewal may be renewed in like manner.

Fourth. First Grade Certificates: Applicant must have taught at least nine (9) months and shall have credits in the same subjects as for a second grade certificate, and also in physics, English literature, algebra and physical geography. The state board of education may accept other subjects in lieu of two of these upon request of the applicant, as hereinbefore provided. Applicant must secure the same number of credits as for a first grade primary certificate. This certificate shall be valid for five (5) years and may be renewed in the same manner and under the same conditions as a first grade primary certificate.

Fifth. Professional Certificates: Applicant shall meet all the requirements for a first grade certificate, but must have taught successfully twenty-four (24) months, at least eight (8) months of which must have been in the state of Washington. He shall also pass an examination in plane geometry, geology, botany, zoology, and civil government: Provided, that the state board of education may accept other subjects in lieu of any or all of these upon the request of the applicant, as hereinbefore provided. This certificate shall be valid for five (5) years and may be renewed in the same manner and under the same conditions as a first grade certificate.

Sixth. Permanent Certificates: Applicant must be the holder of a first grade primary certificate, a first grade certificate, or a professional certificate, or a renewal of any one of them, in full force and effect, and must have taught successfully not less than seventy-two (72) months, nor less than thirty-six (36) months in the state of Washington, nor less than eighteen (18) months subsequent to the granting of the certificate upon which the application is made. Upon filing satisfactory evidence of having met these requirements, together with the written indorsement of the county superintendent, a permanent certificate shall be issued of the same grade as that held by the applicant, valid during the life of the holder unless revoked for cause.

Seventh. Life Certificates: Applicant must file with the superintendent of public instruction evidence of having taught successfully for forty-five (45) months, not less than twenty-seven (27) months of which shall have been in this state. '05, p. 106, § 3; L. '07, p. 618, § 13.]

Section "9" in the third subdivision is evidently an error, "§ 8" probably being intended; and § 4638 [4637] is substituted accordingly.

§ 4645. City Certificates—Board of Examiners, Powers and Duties of.—In any city of this state in which one hundred or more teachers are employed in the city schools, if the board of directors in such city shall so determine, there shall be a board of examiners consisting of the city superintendent of schools and two other members hav-

The board of examiners shall meet and hold examinations for the granting of teachers' certificates on such occasions only as may be authorized by the board of directors. Such board of examiners shall have power:

(2) To prepare questions on the various subjects prescribed by law and examine by written or oral examination all candidates for the following certificates: (a) A city high school certificate valid for one year only unless renewed and authorizing the holder to teach or serve as principal in any primary, grammar, or high school in such city. (b) A city grammar school certificate valid for one year only unless renewed and authorizing the holder to teach in any primary or grammar school, or serve as principal in any primary school in such city. (c) A city primary certificate, valid, for one year only, unless renewed, and authorizing the holder to teach in any primary school in the city. The board of examiners shall report the result of all examinations to the board of directors who, through the president and secretary thereof, shall issue to the successful candidates the certificates to which they are entitled; and the board of directors shall report a list of certificates issued to the state superintendent of public instruction and to the county superintendent of the county in which the city is located.

(3) To recommend to the board of directors renewal of the various renewable certificates, in accordance with such regulations as they may adopt, or as may be prescribed by the board of directors; whereupon said board of directors through its president and secretary, may renew such certificates from year to year. [L. '09, p. 342, § 1. Cf. L. '07, p. 601, § 1.]

§ 4646. Age—Moral Character, etc.—No certificate of permission to teach shall be issued to any person not eighteen years of age. [L. '09, p. 344, § 3. Cf. L. '07, p. 603, § 3.]

§ 4648. High School Certificates.—City high school certificates shall be granted only to applicants who pass satisfactorily the examination required for grammar certificates and in addition thereto, sustain a satisfactory examination in civil government, physical geography, elementary physics, algebra, botany, and such other branches as the board of directors may prescribe. [L. '09, p. 344, § 4. Cf. L. '07, p. 603, § 44.]

§ 4649. Exemptions.—Holders of normal diplomas and holders of state diplomas or state certificates or any certificate authorized by the laws of the state of Washington shall be exempt from all further examinations during the terms of validity of such certificates as provided by law. Teachers engaged in the exclusive teaching of music, foreign languages, drawing, penmanship, kindergarten, manual training, domestic science and physical culture shall be exempt from all examinations except such as pertain to the special departments over which they preside. [L. '09, p. 344, § 5. Cf. L. '07, p. 603, § 5.]

§ 4814. Separate Party Ballots—Time and Manner of Holding Election.—The primary election ballots for the several political parties shall be separate ballots, and the primary election of all parties shall be held at the same time and place and under the same officers and in all respects as a general election, under the laws of the state of Washington, except as otherwise changed by this act. [L. '07, p. 464, § 11.]

§ 4815. Party Ballots — Designation of Choice — Challenges — Method of Voting.—Every qualified person, properly registered as a voter in the election precinct enabling him to vote at the ensuing election where registration is required, and every qualified person in precincts where registration is not required, shall be entitled to participate in the primary election. When he desires to vote at said primary each elector shall have the right to receive the ballot only of the party for which he registered if living in a precinct in which registration is required, or if living in a precinct in which no registration is required the ballot of the party for which he asks; and in the latter event, he shall, if challenged, be required to make oath or affirmation that he intends to affiliate with said party at the ensuing election and intends to support its candidates generally. Thereupon he shall retire to one of the booths and without undue delay mark the ballot received by him and fold it so that its face shall be concealed. He shall thereafter deliver said ballot received by him to the election officers. In the event said voter shall soil or deface the ballot he desires to vote he shall at once return the ballot received by him and get a new ballot and the election officers shall destroy or render unfit for use the ballot so returned. The elector shall designate his choice on his ballot by making a cross in each of the small squares nearest the names of the candidates for whom he desires to vote and shall not vote for more candidates for an office than are to be elected thereto at the election to follow the primary election as indicated on the ballot at the right of each office for which candidates are to be selected.

Where under the provisions of this act a voter is required to designate his first and second choice the voter shall designate his first choice by marking a cross (×) in each of the small squares nearest to the names of the candidates for whom he desires to vote for first choice, and shall designate his second choice by marking a cross (×) in the second square opposite to and parallel to the names of the candidates for whom he desires to vote as a second choice. § 4816. Ballots, Arrangement of Names on — Numbered. — The names of candidates for each office upon the ballot and under the heading designating each official position upon the ballots to be used in voting, shall be first arranged in the order in which their declarations of candidacy shall have been filed. In printing each set of ballots for the several counties, the positions of the names of candidates shall be changed in each office division as many times as there are candidates in the office division in which there are the most names. As nearly as possible an equal number of ballots shall be printed after each change. In making the changes of position, the printer shall take the line of type at the head of each office division and place it at the bottom of the division, and shove up the column so that the name that before was second, shall be first, after the change. After the ballots are printed they shall be kept in separate piles, one pile for each change of position, and shall then be gathered by taking one from each pile; the intention being that every other ballot in such pile shall have the names in a different position. There shall be no printing upon the back of the ballots or any marks to distinguish them. After the ballots have been gathered as above provided they shall be numbered consecutively, said numbering to be perforated and torn off by the election officers on the voting of the ballot. Sample ballots shall be substantially in the same form as the official ballot, but upon colored paper, and the names thereon need not be alternated. [L. '07, p. 465, § 13; L. '09, p. 175, § 5.]

§ 4818. General Election Laws to Govern.—Except as herein otherwise provided, all primary elections shall be conducted as required for general elections under the general election laws of the state of Washington, as far as the provisions thereof are applicable, and the election officers for such primary elections shall have the same powers as those for general elections. [L. '07, p. 465, § 14.]

§ 4819. Inspectors and Judges of Election—Fees.—Inspectors and judges of election shall be appointed and designated in the manner provided by said general election law at least ten (10) days prior to the primary election day: Provided, that one of the judges may act and perform the duties of the clerk of election; And provided, further, that the members of each political party, in any precinct entitled to participate in any primary election, may in any appointed meeting held at least fifteen (15) days before such primary election, select three (3) members of that party who are duly qualified electors and certify the names of the persons so selected, to the board of county commissioners or the city council, whose duty it is to appoint the election officers, and one of said persons shall be appointed and designated as a judge or inspector for that precinct. The same fees shall be allowed and paid from the public funds for the service of anyone so serving as a judge, inspector or clerk as for general elections. [L. '07, p. 465, § 15.]

§ 4820. Secretary of State to Provide Copies of Law.—The secretary of state shall provide copies of this law in conjunction with the general election law of the state, and transmit the same to the county auditor of each county, at least twenty (20) days before any such primary election, and the same shall be in lieu of any such copies of said general election law required to be transmitted to county auditors by the secretary of state for use in such counties. [L. '07, p. 465, § 16.]

No one not present at the hour of closing shall be entitled to vote because the polls may not be actually closed when he arrives. No adjournment or intermission whatever shall take place until the polls shall be closed, and until all the votes cast at such poll have been counted and the result publicly announced. [L. '07, p. 466, § 17.]

§ 4822. Second Choice, Failure to Designate.—In all cases where there are four or more candidates of any political party for one state or congressional position, every elector voting at a primary election held under the terms of this act shall be required to designate one first choice and one second choice for each such position. No voter shall vote for the same person for first choice and second choice, and no voter shall, where there are four or more candidates for such nomination, vote for one person only, either as first or second choice, and no ballot so voted for one person only, for either first or second choice, or for the same person for both first and second choice, shall be considered a complete ballot, but any ballot under said conditions, failing to show both first and second choice of different persons, shall not be considered or counted, for that office. [L. '07, p. 466, § 18.]

fasten each pile together. As soon as the inspectors and judges shall have assorted and fastened together the ballots of each separate party, they shall take the tally-sheets provided by the county auditor or city clerk, and shall count all the ballots for each party separately, until the count is completed, and shall certify to the number of votes cast for each candidate, and as to candidates where first and second choice votes are cast shall certify to the number of votes cast for each candidate as first choice and for each candidate as second choice and the total votes cast for each candidate for each office. The tally-sheets shall be so kept that such sheets shall show the number of votes received, and shall also show the number of first and second choice votes received and the total number of votes received by each candidate. They shall then place the counted ballots in the box, but in no case shall they intermingle party votes. After all have been counted and certified to by the clerks and judges, they shall seal the returns for all parties in one envelope, to be returned to the county auditor or city clerk. [L. '07, p. 466, § 19.]

§ 4824. Tally-sheets, Form—Order of Candidates.—Two sets of tally-sheets for each political party having candidates to be voted for at said primary election shall be furnished for each election precinct by the county auditor or city clerk, at the same time and in the same manner that the ballots are furnished, and shall be as follows:

Said filing shall be in all respects and follow the form provided in section 4807 and be governed by its provisions. The names of each candidate for precinct committeemen shall be printed upon the ballot provided for in section 4813, provided he has fully complied with this act with reference to the filing: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any voter from writing in on the ticket the name of one qualified elector of the precinct for member of the party county committee. The one having the highest number of votes, shall be such committeeman of such party for such precinct: Provided, that if any elector is elected on more than one ticket, he must file his declination of candidacy from all except one ticket with the auditor of his said county within five (5) days after the canvassing of the primary vote, otherwise the office will be deemed vacant: And provided further, that the auditor shall determine cases of ties as are provided by the primary election laws of this state. The county auditor shall certify to each party committee the names of the duly elected committeemen of that party.

§ 4827. Nomination—Number of Votes Required.—Candidates for party offices who receive a plurality of the votes cast for such candidates shall be the party nominees of such party, except as to offices where first and second choice votes are cast, and as to such offices, if no candidate shall have received more than forty per cent of the first choice votes cast, then, and in that event a canvass shall be made of the second choice votes received by candidates for said office at said primary election, and said second choice votes shall be counted with and added to the first choice votes received by each and every candidate for such office at the primary election; and the candidate receiving the highest number of first and second choice votes shall be the nominee for such office of the political party represented by him.

In the event that any candidate for an office shall have received forty per cent or more of the first choice votes of his political party cast at said primary election, the candidate receiving the highest number of first choice votes shall be declared the nominee of his party to such position, without reference to the second choice votes.

In the event that there are more than one position of the same kind to be filled and more candidates of any political party receive majorities of the votes of such party cast at such election than there are positions to be filled, then in that event the number of candidates equal to the number of positions to be filled receiving the highest number of votes shall be the nominees of such political party for such positions. [L. '07, p. 468, § 23.]

§ 4828. Canvass of Returns—Report of Canvass—Contents—Tie Votes—Notice of Nomination—Vacancies.—The canvassing of the vote and the returns of reports of the primary elections, as to candidates for state offices, United States senators and representatives in congress, and any other candidate whose district extends beyond the limits of a single county, shall be done by a canvassing board consisting of the secretary of state, state treasurer and state auditor. Said state canvassing board shall meet at the office of the secretary of state on the third Tuesday at 10 o'clock A. M. next after the September primary. As soon as said board has canvassed said vote it shall file a certificate with the secretary of state which certificate shall show the vote of each candidate of each political party for each office. A copy of such certificate shall be published once in some newspaper published at the state capital, which publication shall be made by the secretary of state immediately after the same is filed in his office. The vote for all county, city and municipal officers shall be canvassed and the returns made by the same officers and in the same manner as returns of the votes cast at general elections are by law now required to be made. Such canvassing board and other officers canvassing votes cast at such primary elections shall file with the proper officer a statement and report of such can-

Said statement shall, in like manner, be made separately as to each political party.

Third.—A statement of the whole number of electors registered and the number of ballots cast at said primary election. If two or more of the candidates of the same political party are "tied" for the same office, the "tie" shall be determined by a lot to be cast then and there by and as the canvassing board may determine. It shall be the duty of the county auditor upon the completion of its canvass by the canvassing board to immediately mail, or deliver, in person to each candidate so nominated, a notice of such fact and that his name will be placed upon the official ballot at the ensuing election. The persons whose names are so placed in said statement of nomination shall be and constitute the nominees of the said political parties of which they are candidates, and such names shall be printed upon the official ballot prepared for the ensuing election. No names of candidates of any political party which is required to make nominations under this act shall be placed upon the official election ballot, unless such candidate shall have been chosen in accordance with this act, except in cases of a vacancy occasioned by the death, removal or resignation of any candidate so chosen, or arising otherwise, and in such a case the campaign or party committee of the political party on whose ticket the same occurs, or if there be no such committee, then a convention of such party may fill such vacancy. The name of such new candidate shall be certified under oath to the county auditor, or the city clerk, as the case may be, by the chairman and secretary of said committee or convention. [L. '07, p. 469, § 24.]

Failing to obey the order of such court shall be contempt. Any candidate at such primary election who may desire to contest the nomination of any candidate for the same office at said primary election may proceed by such affidavit so presented: Provided, that such affidavit may be presented within five days after the completion of the canvass by said canvassing board, and not later, and the candidate whose nomination is so contested shall, by order of such judge, duly served, be required to appear and abide by the orders of the court to be made therein. § 4846. Resolution must Declare What.—The resolution must declare,—

1. The time and place of holding the election, and the hours between which the polls are to be kept open; and the polls shall, in all cases, be kept open from 12 o'clock, noon, to 7 o'clock P. M. of the day on which the election is held;

Such notice must be signed by the secretary of the committee or body calling such election, and must state the purpose, time, manner, and conditions, together with the place or places of holding such election; also the authority by which the call or notice is published; and the three persons shall be named therein who are appointed for each polling place to act as judges of said election, and who shall supervise or preside at such election in the polling precinct or district for which they are respectively appointed, and such judges shall be legal voters of and householders in the township, precinct, ward or election district for which they are named. And said notice shall likewise declare the qualifications of the persons to vote at such election: Provided, that such prescribed qualifications shall not be inconsistent with those expressed in this chapter. The judges, before proceeding with the election, shall appoint two clerks to assist them in receiving and counting the votes cast, to each of whom shall be administered, by one of the judges, an oath similar to that taken by the judges of election, omitting the statement that affiant is a householder. Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be deemed a mis-

It shall then be the duty of the judges to interrogate the person so objected to as to all matters in particular upon which said objection was made, and generally as to all of his qualifications as an elector at such election. If the person so objected to shall refuse to answer any questions asked, after said oath, or affirmations shall have been administered, or shall refuse to take such oath, it shall be the duty of the judges to reject such vote, and they shall also reject such vote, unless such person shall file with them a written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, statement, by him signed, that he is a qualified voter of the election district in which such election is held, and entitled to vote at such election; and unless such statement shall be accompanied by a similar statement of some person known to at least one of the judges to be a qualified voter in that district, to the effect that he knows the person so challenged, and that his statement is true, which said last statement must also be subscribed by the party making it. If such statements shall be filed, and such oath be taken, and such questions answered in such a manner as to show that the applicant is qualified to vote at such election, it shall be the duty of the judges of the election to receive such vote, and the word "sworn" shall be noted opposite the person's name on the poll-list, to be kept as hereinafter provided. Any violation of the provisions of this section by the judges or clerks of the election, or either of them, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall subject the party so offending to punishment by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than two nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court; and any person who shall, upon taking the oath or affirmation, and under the examination herein authorized, willfully make a false statement as to a matter pertinent and material in such examination, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof be punished as prescribed by law for such offense. Second. Every ballot shall contain the name of every candidate whose nomination for any office specified in the ballot has been filed according to the provisions of this act and no other names.

Third. All nominations of any party or group of petitioners shall be placed under the title of such party or petitioners as designated by them in their certificate of nomination or petition, and the name of each nominee shall be placed under the designation of the office for which he has been nominated.

Fourth. There shall be a ◯ under the party designated and a ☐ at the right of the name of each of its nominees so that the voter may clearly indicate the party or the candidate or the candidates for whom he wishes to cast his ballot; the circle shall be one-half inch in diameter and the square one-fourth of an inch. The size of type for the designation of the office shall be nonpareil caps; that of the candidates not smaller than brevier or larger than small pica caps and shall be connected with squares by leaders.

the outside when the ballot is folded. The county auditor shall cause official ballots to be numbered consecutively beginning with number 1, for each separate voting precinct.

Ninth. Official ballots for a given precinct shall not contain the names of nominees for justices of the peace and constables of any other precinct except in cases of municipalities where a number of precincts vote for the same nominee for justices of the peace and constables and in the latter case the ballots shall contain only the names to be voted for by the electors of such precinct. Each party column shall be two and five-eighths inches wide.

Tenth. On the top of each of said ballots and extending across the party groups, there shall be printed instructions directing the voters how to mark the ballot before the same shall be deposited with the judges of election. Next after the instructions and before the party group shall be placed the questions of adopting constitutional amendments or any other question authorized by law to be submitted to the voters of such election. The arrangement of the ballot shall in general conform as nearly as possible to the form hereinafter given.

§ 4896. When and to Whom Delivered. — Before the opening of the polls, the clerk of the board of county commissioners (or the municipal clerk in the case of municipal elections) shall cause to be delivered to the judges of election of each election precinct which is within the county (or within the municipality in case of municipal elections), and in which the election is to be held, at the polling place of the precinct, the proper number of ballots provided for in section 4894 of this chapter. The ballots shall be given to the inspector of each election precinct; but in case it may be impracticable to deliver such ballots to the inspector, then they may be delivered to one of the judges of election of any such precinct, and in making the appointment of judges of election under this chapter and other election laws of this state, not more than a majority of such judges of election shall be appointed from any one political party for each precinct. § 4897. Provision for Polling Places—Division of Precincts.—The inspectors of election shall provide in their respective polling places a sufficient number of places, booths or compartments, which shall be furnished with such supplies and conveniences as shall enable the voter conveniently to prepare his ballot for voting, and in which electors may mark their ballots, screened from observation, and a guard-rail so constructed that only persons within such rail can approach within fifty feet of the ballot-boxes, or the places, booths or compartments herein provided for. The number of such places, booths or compartments shall not be less than one for every fifty electors or fraction thereof registered in the precinct, or voting at the last preceding election where there is no registration. In precincts containing less than twenty-five voters, the election may be conducted under the provisions of this act without the preparation of such booths or compartments as required in this section. No person other than electors engaged in receiving, preparing or depositing their ballots, or a person present for the purpose of challenging the vote of an elector about to cast his ballot, shall be permitted to be within said rail, and in case of small precincts where places, booths or compartments are not required, no persons engaged in preparing their ballots shall in any way be interfered with by any person, unless it be someone authorized by the provisions of this act to assist him or them in preparing his or their ballot. The expense of providing such places or compartments and guard-rails shall be a public charge, and shall be provided for in the same manner as the other election expenses. Subsequent to the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November and prior to the first day of December thereafter, the officers charged by law with the division or alteration of election precincts shall, as far as necessary, alter or divide the existing election precincts in such manner that each election precinct shall not contain more than three hundred voters. In precincts where there is a registration of voters it shall be the duty of such clerks to write the number of the ballot against the name of such elector as the same appears upon the certified copy of poll-books of registration in their possession. In precincts where there is no registration of voters, it shall be the duty of the clerks

The ballot shall have attached thereto the affidavit made by said voter, and together they shall be securely sealed in an envelope to be presented to the election officers by the elector, and upon which envelope shall be printed the following, and which statement shall be properly filled out and signed by the election officers, to wit:

Any elector receiving the certificate required in section 4898–2, shall also receive a blank affidavit and envelope, as required by this act, from the registration officer, and which affidavit and envelope the elector will present to the election officers at the time he offers to vote. § 4899. Ballot, How Prepared by Voter.—On receipt of his ballot the elector shall forthwith and without leaving the polling place retire alone to one of the places, booths or apartments provided to prepare his ballot. If he desires to vote for all the candidates of any political party he may mark a cross "×" after the name, against the political designation of such party, and shall then be deemed to have voted for all the persons named as the candidates of such party. If he desires to vote for any particular candidate of any other political party he may do so by placing after the name of such candidate a mark "×": Provided, that if two or more candidates for such office are to be elected, then such voter shall place his mark "×" after the name of each of the candidates for whom he wishes to vote for that particular office, and in that case such voter shall then be deemed to have voted for all the persons named as the candidates of the political party after which he shall have made his mark "×," except those who are otherwise designated as herein provided. Each elector may prepare his ballot by marking a cross "×" after the name of every person or candidate for whom he wishes to vote. In case of a ballot containing a constitutional amendment or other question to be submitted to the vote of the people the voter shall mark a cross "×" after the question, for or against the amendment or proposition, as the case may be. Having folded the ballot, the elector shall deliver it folded to the inspector, who shall, in an audible tone of voice, repeat the name of the elector and the number of the ballot. The election clerks having the certified copies of the poll-books of registration or poll-books in charge, shall, if they find the number marked opposite the elector's name on the register or poll-books to correspond with the number of the ballot handed to the inspector, mark opposite the name of such elector the word "voted," and one of the clerks shall call back, in an audible tone, the name of the elector and the number of his ballot. The inspector shall separate the slip containing the number of the ballot from the ballot and shall deposit the ballot in the ballot-box. The numbers removed from ballots shall be immediately destroyed. [L. '90, p. 409, § 23; 1 H. C., § 385; L. '95, p. 391, § 8.]

The judges may in their discretion require from such person so offering to vote a declaration of such disability, that he was at the time of the taking effect of this act a qualified elector and of his disability to read and speak the English language, to be made by the voter under oath before them and they are hereby qualified to administer the same. No elector, other than the one who may, because of his inability to read, or physical disability, be unable to mark his ballot, shall divulge to any person within the polling place the name of any candidate for whom he intends to vote or [to] ask or receive the assistance of anyone within the polling place in the preparation of his ballot. [L. '01, p. 287, § 6. Cf. L. '90, p. 410, § 26; 1 H. C., § 388.]

State Board of Voting Machine Examiners.—The governor, the secretary of state, and the state treasurer and their successors in office are hereby created and constituted the state board of voting machine examiners. It shall be the duty of said board to examine all makes of voting machines submitted to it and determine whether such machines comply with the requirements of this act, and can safely be used by voters at elections under the provisions of this act. Any person or corporation owning or being interested in a voting machine may submit same to said board for examination, and said board shall thereupon publicly examine and report upon such machine, pursuant to the provisions of this act. For the purpose of assistance in examining such machine the said board may employ not more than three expert machinists at a cost of not more than ten dollars for each day employed. The compensation of said machinists shall be paid by the person or corporation submitting the machine. Within thirty days after completing the examination of any voting machine the board shall make and file with the secretary of state its report on such machine, together with such written or printed description and such drawings and photographs as shall clearly identify such machine and the mechanical operation thereof; and within ten days after receiving such report, the secretary of state shall send a copy thereof to the county commissioners of each county, to the common council of each city, and to the board or governing body of each district or other municipality within the state. Any voting machine that shall receive the approval of a majority of said board may be used for conducting any or all elections subject to the provisions of this act. Any machine that shall not receive said approval shall not be adopted for or used at any election. After a voting machine has been approved by said board, any change, or improvement therein that does not impair its accuracy, efficiency, or capacity, shall not render necessary a re-examination or reapproval thereof. The word "diagram" shall mean an illustration of the official ballot when placed upon the machine, showing the names of the parties, offices and candidates, and statements of the questions in their proper places, together with the voting devices therefor, and shall be considered a sample ballot. The word "question" shall mean a statement of such constitutional amendment or other proposition as shall be submitted to a popular vote at any election. The words "protective counter" or "protective devices" shall mean a counter or device that will register each time the machine is operated and shall be so constructed, and so connected that it cannot be reset, altered or operated, except by operating the machine. The words "voting machine booth" shall mean the inclosure occupied by the voter when voting. The word "model" shall mean a mechanically operated model of a portion of the face of the machine illustrating the manner of voting. The word "custodian" shall mean the person charged with the duty of testing and preparing the voting machine for the election. The words "statement of canvass" shall mean a statement and return in book form of the votes cast at any election, together with suitable certificates of its correctness. [L. '13, p. 179, § 3.]

§ 4910–4. Requirements of Voting Machines.—No voting machine shall be approved by the state board of voting machine examiners unless it be so constructed as to fulfill the following requirements: It shall secure to the voter secrecy in the act of voting. It shall provide facilities for voting for the candidates of as many political parties or organizations as may make nominations, and for or against as many questions as may be submitted. The voting devices for the candidates shall be arranged in separate parallel party lines, one or more lines for each party and in parallel office rows transverse thereto. It shall permit the voter to vote for any person for any office that he shall have the right to vote for but none other. It shall, except at primary elections, permit the voter to vote for all the candidates of one party or in part for the candidates of one party and in part for the candidates of one or more other parties. It shall, except at primary elections, provide means whereby the voter can by a single operation vote for all the candidates of one party. It shall permit the voter to vote for as many persons for an office as he is lawfully entitled to vote for but no more. It shall prevent the voter from voting for the same person more than once for the same office. It shall permit the voter to vote for or against any question he may have the right to vote on but none other. It shall correctly register or record all votes cast for any and all persons and for or against any and all questions. It shall be provided with a lock or locks by which all operation of the registering mechanism can be prevented as soon as the polls of the election are closed. It shall be provided with a "protective counter," or "protective device" whereby any operating or tampering with the machine before or after the election will be detected. It shall be provided with a counter which shall show at all times during an election how many persons have voted. It shall be provided with a mechanical model, illustrating the manner of voting on the machine suitable for the instruction of voters. It may also be provided with one device for each party, for voting for all the presidential electors of that party by one operation, and a ballot label therefor containing only the words "presidential electors" preceded by the name of that party and followed by the names of the candidates thereof for the offices of President and Vice-president, and a registering device there which shall register the vote cast for said electors when thus voted for collectively: Provided, however, that means shall be furnished whereby the voter can cast a vote in part for the candidates for presidential electors of one party and in part for those of one or more other parties or in part or in whole for persons not nominated by any party. [L. '13, p. 180, § 4.]

§ 4910–5. Voting Machines may be Adopted, Procured and Used. The county commissioners of any county, the common council of any city or town, the township board of any township or the board or governing body of any district or municipality, at any regular meeting or at a special meeting called for the purpose, may adopt, purchase, or otherwise procure, and provide for the use of, any voting machine approved by the state board of voting machine examiners, in all or a portion of the election precincts thereof; and thereafter said machine may be used for voting at all primaries and elections for public offices and on all questions and for receiving, registering and counting the votes thereof in such election district or districts as such county commissioners, council or board shall direct. The county commissioners or council may, not later than forty days before any election, create, unite, combine, or divide one or more election districts or precincts for the purpose of using one or more voting machines therein at such election, and such uniting, combining or dividing shall be done in the manner now prescribed by law for the change of election districts. More than one voting machine may be used in the same election district. The number of voters to be in each of said districts or precincts shall be determined by said commissioners, council or board, but shall not exceed six hundred for each machine. [L. '15, p. 324, § 1; L. '13, p. 181, § 5.]

Cited in 78 Wash. 87.

§ 4910–6. Payment for Voting Machines.—The county commissioners of any county, the council of any city, the supervisors of any town or township, or the governing board of any district or municipality may, on the adoption and purchase of a voting machine or machines, provide for the payment thereof in such a manner as they may deem for the best interest of the county, city, town or township, district or municipality, and may for that purpose issue bonds, warrants, certificates of indebtedness, notes or other negotiable obligations, which shall be a charge upon such county, city, town, township, district, or municipality, or may pay for the same in cash out of the general fund or otherwise; and may make such contract for the purchase of such machines with regard to price, manner of purchase and time of payment as to the said officials shall seem proper, and in estimating the amount of taxes for the general fund, if any, such amount shall be added, extending over such time as may be required to fully pay for such machines. Such bonds, certificates, warrants, notes or other obligations may be issued to bear interest not to exceed five per cent per annum. They may be made payable at such time or times as the authorities may determine, but shall not be issued or sold at less than par. [L. '13, p. 182, § 6.]

§ 4910–7. Printed Matter and Supplies.—Within a proper and reasonable time before each election at which voting machines are to be used, the secretary of state shall prepare samples of the printed matter and supplies named in this section, and shall furnish one of each thereof to the board or official in charge of the election of each county, city, township or district in which the machines are to be used; such samples to meet the requirements of the election to be held and to suit the construction of the machine to be used. The board or officials charged with the duty of providing ballots shall provide for each voting machine for each election the following printed matter and supplies: Suitable printed or written directions to the custodian for testing and preparing the voting machines for the election; one certificate on which the custodian can certify that he has properly tested and prepared the voting machine for the election; one certificate on which some person other than the custodian can certify that the voting machine has been examined and found to have been properly prepared for the election; one certificate on which the party representatives can certify that they have witnessed the testing and preparation of the machines; one certificate on which the deliverer of the machines can certify that he has delivered the machines to the polling places in good order; one card stating the penalty for tampering with or injuring a voting machine; two seals for sealing a voting machine; one envelope in which the keys to the voting machine can be sealed and delivered to the election officers, said envelope to have printed or written thereon the designation and location of the election district in which the machine is to be used, the number of the machine, the number shown on the protective counter thereof after the machine has been prepared for the election and the number or other designation on such seal as the machine is sealed with; said envelope to have attached to it a detachable receipt for the delivery of the keys of the voting machine to the inspector of election; one envelope in which the keys to the voting machine can be returned by the inspector of election; one card stating the name and telephone address of the custodian on the day of election; two statements of canvass on which the election officers can report the canvass of the votes as shown on the voting machine together with other necessary information relating to the election, said statements of canvass to take the place of all tally-keepers, statements and returns as provided heretofore; three complete sets of ballot labels; two diagrams; five suitable printed instructions to the inspector of election; three notices to inspectors and judges of election to attend the instruction meetings; three certificates that the inspector and judges of an election have attended the instruction meeting, have received the necessary instruction, and are qualified to conduct the election with the machine and they may supply a sufficient number of extra ballots for use in case it shall be impossible to make use of the voting machine in any such precinct or precincts.

The ballot labels shall be printed in black ink on clear white material of such size and arrangement as to suit the construction of the machine: Provided, however, the ballot labels for questions may contain a condensed statement of each question to be voted on, accompanied by the words "Yes" and "No"; the titles of the offices on the ballot labels shall be printed in type as large as the space for such office will reasonably permit, and where more than one candidate can be voted for an office, there shall be printed below the office title the words "vote for any two," or such number as the voter is lawfully entitled to vote for out of the whole number of candidates nominated.

If the election be one at which all the candidates for the office of presidential electors are to be voted for with one device, the county commissioners shall furnish for each machine at least five lists of the names of the presidential electors nominated and at least fifty paper ballots with which the voter can vote thereon for part of the candidates for the office of the presidential electors of one party and part of the candidates therefor of one or more other parties or for persons for that office not nominated by any party. For election districts in which voting machines are to be used no paper ballots shall be furnished for any offices to be voted for on the machine except as hereinafter provided. [L. '15, p. 325, § 2; L. '13, p. 182, § 7.]

§ 4910–8. Instructions to Voters Before Election.—Before each election at which voting machines are to be used the custodian shall place on public exhibition a suitable number of machines for the proper instruction of voters. Such machines shall be so arranged and so equipped with ballot labels as to best illustrate the method of voting at that election, and so far as practical shall contain the names of the offices to be filled, the names of the candidates to be voted for, together with their proper party designations, in case of party elections, and statements of the questions to be voted on. Not more than ten nor less than three days before each election at which voting machines are to be used the board or officials charged with the duty of providing ballots shall publish in newspapers representing at least two political parties a diagram of reduced size showing the face of the voting machine after the official ballot labels are arranged thereon, together with illustrated instructions how to vote and a statement of the locations of such voting machines as shall be on public exhibition; or in lieu of such publication said board or officials may send by mail or otherwise at least three days before the elections a printed copy of same to each registered voter. [L. '15, p. 327, § 3; L. '13, p. 184, § 8.]

§ 4910–9. Instructions to Election Officers.—The election board of each election district in which a voting machine is used shall consist of one inspector, and two judges of election who shall also act as clerks of election. Where more than one machine is to be used in an election district, one additional inspector of election shall be appointed for each additional machine. In any voting precinct or district where the number of registered voters is less than one hundred the election board may consist of one inspector, one judge and one clerk. Before each election at which voting machines are to be used, the custodian shall instruct all inspectors and judges of election that are to serve thereat in the use of the machine and their duties in connection therewith; and he shall give to each inspector and judge that has received such instructions and is fully qualified to conduct the election with the machine a certificate to that effect. For the purpose of giving such instructions, the custodian shall call such meeting or meetings of the inspectors and judges as shall be necessary. Each inspector and judge shall attend such meeting or meetings and receive such instructions as shall be necessary for the proper conduct of the election with the machine; and, as compensation for the time spent in receiving such instruction each inspector and judge that shall qualify for and serve in the election shall receive the sum of one dollar, to be paid to him at the same time and in the same manner as compensation is paid to him for his services on election day. No inspector or judge of election shall serve in any election at which a voting machine is used unless he shall have received such instruction and is fully qualified to perform his duties in connection with the machine and has received a certificate to that effect from the custodian of the machines: Provided, however, that this shall not prevent the appointment of an inspector, or judge of election to fill a vacancy in an emergency. [L. '15, p. 327, § 4; L. 13, p. 185, § 9.]

§ 4910–10. Testing and Preparing Voting Machines for Election. The county auditor of a county, the clerk of a city, or other district in which voting machines are to be used shall cause same to be properly prepared therefor; and for that purpose shall employ for such time as is necessary one or more competent persons who shall be known as the voting machine custodians, who shall be sworn to perform their duties honestly and faithfully, and for such purpose shall be considered as officers of election, and shall be paid for the time actually spent in the discharge of their duties in the same manner and amount as other election officers are paid. One custodian shall be employed for each twenty machines; if more than one be employed they shall be selected from the political parties entitled to representation on a board of election officers.

In preparing a voting machine for an election, the custodian shall, according to the printed directions furnished by such auditor or clerk, arrange the machine and labels therefor so that it will in every particular meet the requirements for voting and counting at such election, thoroughly test same, and certify thereto to said auditor or clerk. A voting machine may be so arranged for an election that the names of candidates nominated independently may be placed in the same party row with those nominated by a political party entitled to the use of a party voting device, provided such placing does not prevent such independently nominated candidates from being voted for individually, and provided it does not prevent or interfere with the operating of the party voting device of such party.

It may also be so arranged that candidates nominated independently, or by political organizations which have nominated but one candidate, each shall be placed in the same party row and voted for individually; and in that event the party voting device of such party row shall be locked against movement, and the political designations of such candidates shall be printed upon the ballot labels in connection with their names. The auditor or clerk shall direct the arrangement of all ballot labels on such machine in case of nonpartisan primaries and elections in cities of the first class operating under freeholders' charters, the arrangement of the names of candidates upon ballot labels shall conform as nearly as practicable to such charter provisions for the arrangement of names on paper ballots. In all other cases of nonpartisan primaries and elections, and in all cases of party primaries and elections, the arrangement of names of candidates upon the ballot labels shall conform as nearly as practicable to the provisions of law for the arrangement of names on paper ballots.

After being prepared for the primary or election, each machine shall be examined by the auditor or clerk, and if the same be prepared in accordance with law for use thereat, he shall file a certificate thereof in his office. The custodian shall cause all voting machines to be delivered to the polling places in charge of an authorized official who shall certify to their delivery in good order on the certificate furnished therefor. After such delivery the auditor or clerk shall provide proper protection therefor. The custodian shall provide a lantern or proper light for every machine, which light shall be in good order and give sufficient light to enable voters while in the booth to read the ballot labels, and suitable for use by the election officers in examining the counters. [L. '15, p. 328, § 5; L. 13, p. 186, § 10.]

§ 4910–11. Delivery of Election Supplies and Keys.—The auditor or clerk shall cause to be delivered to the inspector or one of the judges of election not later than forty-five minutes before the time for opening the polls the keys for the voting machine, which shall be delivered in a sealed envelope on which shall be written the designation and location of the election district, the number of the voting machine, the number or other designative mark on the seal, and the number registered on the protective counter as reported by the custodian for which a receipt shall be taken on the blank attached thereto, two diagrams, one extra set of ballot labels, one envelope containing seal for sealing the machine after the polls are closed, one envelope for the return of the keys, two statements of canvass, and all other supplies necessary for conducting the election. [L. '15, p. 330, § 6; L. '13, p. 188, § 11.]

§ 4910–12. Opening the Polls.—The election officers of each election district in which a voting machine is to be used shall meet at the polling place thereof at least forty-five minutes before the time set for opening the polls, and before unlocking the machine for voting shall proceed as follows: They shall see that the voting machine is placed where it can be conveniently attended by the election officers and conveniently operated by the voters, and where, unless its construction requires otherwise, the ballot labels thereon can be plainly seen by the election officers and the public when not being voted on. They shall see that the model is placed where each voter can conveniently operate it and receive instructions thereon as to the manner of voting, before entering the machine booth. They shall post one diagram inside the polling-room and one outside, in places where the voters can conveniently examine them. They shall see that the lantern or other means provided for giving light is in such condition that the voting machine is sufficiently lighted to enable voters to readily read the names on the ballot labels. They shall see that the ballot labels are in the proper places on the machine. They shall see if the number or other designating mark on the seal sealing the machine, also the number registered on the protective counter agree with the number written on the envelope containing the keys; and if same do not agree they shall at once notify the custodian and delay unlocking the machine and opening the polls until he shall have re-examined the machine. If such numbers or marks do so agree the election officers shall then proceed to see if the public counter and all the candidate and question counters register "000." If any of such counters shall be found to register some number other than "000," the judge of election shall at once notify the custodian who shall set such counter at "000." After performing their duties as provided in this section, the election officers shall certify thereto in the appropriate places on the statement of canvass as provided thereon. When the polls are declared open, the inspector or judge of election shall break the seal and unlock the machine for voting. [L. '13, p. 188, § 12.]

§ 4910–13. Conducting the Election.—Before each voter enters the voting machine booth each clerk shall insert in his list of voters opposite the voter's name the letter V and the number of his vote. The election officers shall, so far as possible, inform him how to operate the machine and illustrate same upon the model, and call his attention to the diagram. No voter shall remain within the voting machine booth longer than two minutes, and if he shall refuse to leave at the end of that time, he shall be removed by the election officers: Provided, however, that they may grant him a longer time if other voters are not waiting to vote. Whenever a voter who has the right to vote only on certain offices and certain questions shall enter the [voting] machine [booth], the election officer shall so adjust same that he can vote on such office and questions, but on no others. If any voter shall, in the presence of the election officers, declare that by reason of physical disability he is unable to register or record his vote upon the machine, two election officers of opposite political parties, in case of party primaries or elections, or two officials in case of nonpartisan primaries, or elections, shall enter the voting machine booth with him and indicate and register his vote for such candidates and for or against such questions as he shall designate. If any voter shall, after entering the voting machine booth, ask for information regarding its operation, the election officers shall give him such necessary information. Any election officer who shall deceive any voter in registering or recording his vote under this section, or who shall register or record such vote in any other way than as designated by such voter, or who shall give information to any person as to what candidates or for or against what questions such voters voted, or who shall seek to suggest or persuade any voter to vote for any party, or for any candidate, or for or against any question shall be guilty of a felony and shall be punished by being fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned in a state prison for not less than six months or more than one year or by both such fine and imprisonment. Except as herein provided for in cases of physically disabled voters, the operation of voting shall be secret. The election officers shall occasionally examine the face of the machine and the ballot labels to determine if same have been injured or tampered with. No voter shall be permitted to enter the machine booth or move the operating lever more than once.

In case any voting machine used in any election district shall, during or before the time the polls are opened, become injured so as to render it inoperative in whole or in part, it shall be the duty of the judge immediately to give notice thereof to the officials charged with the care of the machine, and it shall be the duty of said official, if possible, to repair the machine at once, or to substitute another machine for the injured machine; and, at the close of the polls, if a machine has been so substituted the records of both machines shall be taken and the votes shown on their corresponding counters shall be added together in ascertaining the results of the election. If no other machine can be procured for use at such election, and the injured machine cannot be repaired in time for further use at such election the officers of said election shall permit the use by voters of paper ballots prepared as in cases where paper ballots are used, and which shall be furnished the election officers by the auditor or clerk, which ballots shall be received by the election officers, and placed by them in a receptacle, to be provided therefor and counted with the votes registered on the voting machine, and the result declared the same as though there had been no accident to the voting machine; any marking of such paper ballots by the voters which shall clearly indicate their intentions shall be deemed a proper and sufficient method of marking such ballots; the paper ballots thus voted shall be preserved and returned to the auditor or clerk with a certificate or statement setting forth how and why the same came to be voted. For this purpose the printed diagram of reduced size referred to in section eight (8) of this act, may be used if such can be procured. [L. '15, p. 331, § 7; L. '13, p. 189, § 13.]

§ 4910–14. Canvassing the Vote.—At the hour for closing the polls, the judge of election shall declare the polls of the election closed and shall not permit any further operation of the machine except provided as follows, namely: That such voters as shall at the hour of closing be within the polling-room and awaiting their turn to vote shall be considered as having begun the act of voting and shall be permitted to cast their votes upon the machine. As soon as such voters have voted, the election officers shall lock and seal the machine, unlock and open the doors of the counter compartment, and canvass the votes registered on the counters therein and the votes recorded on or in the device or devices for voting for persons not nominated and shall make two statements of canvass thereof in the following manner: One election officer shall call the designating number and letter of each candidate's counter in the order given on the statement of canvass, and another election officer shall repeat such number and letter as it is read, and announce the vote registered on such counter, which shall thereupon be entered in ink on each of the statements of canvass. The canvass of each office shall be completed before proceeding to the next. The vote on each question shall be canvassed in the same manner. The votes cast on the irregular ballots and paper ballots shall then be canvassed. All votes for persons or questions, the names or propositions of which do not appear on the ballot labels, must be cast in the proper places on or in the device for irregular ballots, and all votes for persons or questions whose names or propositions do appear upon the ballot labels must be cast on the counters therefor, and any votes not so cast shall not be counted, except in case of the use of paper ballots: Provided, however, that all elections at which presidential electors are voted for with one device, the voter may vote on or in the device for irregular ballots in part for the presidential electors of one party and in part for those of one or more other parties, or in part or in whole for persons not nominated by any party. After completing and writing down the canvass of the votes cast, the election officers shall verify the same by comparing the figures on the statements of canvass with the figures on the counters in the machine and the names recorded on or in the device for voting for persons not nominated, and shall then certify, in the appropriate place on each of these statements of canvass, as to the number of voters that voted at the election as shown by the poll-list and by the number registered on the public counter; the number registered on the protective counter and the number or other designating marks on the seal with which the machine has been sealed. After completing and certifying to the statements of canvass, the inspector or a judge shall read therefrom in a distinct voice the name of each candidate, the designating number and letter of his counter as stated thereon, and the vote entered for each; also the vote for and against each question. During the canvassing and announcing of the vote, the counter compartment shall remain open, and opportunity shall be given any person lawfully present to examine the counters to determine the correctness of the vote as announced. The counter compartment shall then be locked and all the keys of the machine shall be delivered in a sealed envelope to the officers or board in charge of the election. One copy of the statement of canvass shall be delivered forthwith in a sealed envelope to the office of the county auditor, city comptroller, city clerk, or other governing body, and if the election be one at which state or county offices are voted for, one copy of the returns shall be delivered in a sealed envelope to the county clerk. The word "election" as used in this act shall mean general, special or primary election. The word "city" shall mean city or town. [L. '15, p. 332, § 8; L. '13, p. 191, § 14.]

§ 4910–15. Provisions for Recanvass of Vote.—The registering mechanism of each voting machine used in any election shall remain locked and sealed against operation for a period of thirty days following such election: Provided, however, that whenever it shall appear that there is a discrepancy in the returns of any election district, the county commissioners, council, board or other governing body shall summon the inspector and judges of election thereof, who shall in their presence make a record of the number or other designating mark on the seal, and the number on the protective counter, open the counter compartment, and, without unlocking said machine against voting, shall recanvass the vote cast thereon. Before making such recanvass the county commissioners, council or board, shall give notice in writing to the custodian and to each political party or organization that shall have nominated candidates for the election, of the time and place where said recanvass is to be made; and each of such political parties or organizations may send two representatives to be present at such recanvass. If, upon such recanvass, it should be found that the original canvass of the returns has been correctly made from the machine, and that the discrepancy still remains unaccounted for, the county commissioners, council, board or other governing body, with the assistance of the custodian, shall in the presence of the said inspector and judges of election and the authorized representatives of the several political parties or organizations, unlock the voting and counting mechanism of said machine and proceed to thoroughly examine and test the machine to determine and reveal the true cause or causes, if any, of the discrepancy in the returns from said machine. Before being tested the counter shall be set at "000," after which each counter shall be operated at least one hundred times. After the completion of said examination and test, the custodian shall then and there prepare a statement in writing giving in detail the result thereof, and said statement shall be witnessed by the persons present and shall be filed with the officer or board in charge of the election. [L. '13, p. 193, § 15.]

§ 4910–16. Penalty for Injuring or Tampering With a Voting Machine.—Any person who shall tamper with or injure or attempt to injure any voting machine to be used or being used in an election, or who shall prevent or attempt to prevent the correct operation of such machine, or any unauthorized person who shall make or have in his possession a key to a voting machine to be used or being used in an election, shall be guilty of a felony and shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year or more than five years, or both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '13, p. 194, § 16.]

§ 4910–17. Joint Purchase and Use of Machine.—In purchasing the necessary voting machines to be used at general, primary or other elections, as herein provided, the board of county commissioners of the several counties, and the legislative bodies of the incorporated cities, towns or districts therein, may by agreement entered into by said board of county commissioners and the legislative body of any incorporated city, town or district in such county, provide for the joint purchase and subsequent ownership thereof, and for the care, maintenance and use of the same. [L. '13, p. 194, § 17.]

§ 4910–18. Primary and Election Laws Made Applicable to Use of Voting Machines.—All the provisions of the primary and election laws and of any city charter or ordinance not inconsistent with this act shall apply to all elections in districts or precincts where voting machines are used; and any provisions of law or of any city charter or ordinance which conflict with the use of such machines as herein set forth, shall not apply to the districts or precincts in which voting machines are used; and all acts or parts of acts or city charters or ordinances in conflict with any of the provisions of this act, shall be of no force or effect in election districts or precincts where voting machines are used. [L. '13, p. 194, § 18.]

In either case the officer shall compare the signature on the petition with the signature on the registration books, and if such signature shall appear to the officer to have been written by the same hand, the officer shall enter upon the petition opposite the signature, the residence address, the precinct name or number, the ward number, if any, and the name of the city (or town) of such voter as shown by the registration books, and shall write the initials of his given name or names and of his surname, with pen and ink, on the petition opposite and at the left of the signature and shall write on the registration books in the column headed "Remarks" the words "Recall of (name of officer charged)." § 4942. Malconduct of Judges, When Sufficient to Annul Election. No irregularity or improper conduct in the proceedings of the board of judges, or any one of them, shall be construed to amount to such malconduct as to annul or set aside any election, unless the irregularity or improper conduct shall have been such as to procure the person whose right to the office may be contested to be declared duly elected when he had not received the highest number of legal votes. [L. '66, p. 43, § 2; Cd. '81, § 3106; 1 H. C., § 428.]

§ 4944. Election may be Set Aside on Account of Illegal Votes, When.—Nothing in the fifth ground of contest, specified in section 4941, shall be so construed as to authorize an election to be set aside on account of illegal votes, unless it shall appear that an amount of illegal votes has been given to the person whose right to the office is contested, which, if taken from him, would reduce the number of his legal votes below the number of votes given to some other person for the same office, after deducting therefrom the illegal votes which may be shown to have been given to such other person. [L. '66, p. 43, § 4; Cd. '81, § 3108; 1 H. C., § 430.]

2. The name of the person whose right to the office is contested;

3. The office;

4. The particular cause or causes of such contest, which statement shall be verified by the affidavit of the contesting party that the matters and things therein contained are true, as he verily believes. [L. '66, p. 43, § 6; Cd. '81, § 3110; 1 H. C., § 432.]

§ 4948. Statement of Cause not to be Rejected for Want of Form. No statement of the cause of contest shall be rejected, nor the proceedings thereon dismissed by any court before which such contest may be brought for trial, for want of form, if the particular cause or causes of contest shall be alleged with such certainty as will sufficiently advise the defendant of the particular proceedings or cause for which such election is contested. The decision of the superior court granting a writ of mandate shall be final and no appeal shall be allowed from the decision of the superior court refusing to grant a writ of mandate, but such decision may be reviewed by the supreme court in a writ of certiorari sued out within five days after the decision of the superior court, and such review shall be considered an emergency matter of public concern, and shall be heard and determined with all convenient speed, and if the supreme court shall decide that the petitions are legal in form and apparently contain the requisite number of signatures of legal voters, and were filed within the time prescribed in the constitution, it shall issue its mandate direct to the secretary of state, requiring that said petitions be filed in his office as of the date of submission. In case no appeal is taken from the refusal of the secretary of state to file said petitions within the time prescribed, or in case an appeal is taken and the secretary of state is not required to file said petitions by the mandate of either the superior or the supreme court, the secretary of state shall destroy said petitions. firmly attached to one or more printed copies of the proposed initiative or referendum measure in such volumes as will be most convenient for canvassing and filing, and shall number such volumes and file the same and stamp on each thereof the date of filing. [L. '13, p. 426, § 14.]

§ 4971-15. Canvass of Petition.—Upon the filing of such volumes of an initiative petition proposing a measure for submission to the legislature at its next regular session, the secretary of state shall forthwith in the presence of at least one person representing the proponents and one person representing the opponents of the proposed measure, should either desire to be present, proceed to canvass the petition and to count the names of duly initialed and certified registered legal voters thereon. If, at the conclusion of the canvass and count, it shall appear that such petition bears the requisite number of names of duly certified registered legal voters, the secretary of state shall transmit a certified copy of such proposed measure to the legislature at the opening of its session together with a certificate of the facts relating to the filing of such petition and the canvass and count thereof. [L. '15, p. 193, § 8; L. '13, p. 426, § 15.]

Fraudulent Names.—The secretary of state shall, while making said count, keep a record of all names appearing on said petition which are not certified to be registered legal voters, and shall report the same to the prosecuting attorneys of the respective counties where such names were signed to the end that prosecutions may be had for violations of this act. certification thereof to the legislature, as the case may be, which application shall be made by petition and [shall be made by petition and] shall set forth the grounds therefor, and shall be verified under oath by or on behalf of the petitioner or petitioners and such application and all proceedings had thereunder shall take precedence over all other cases and shall be speedily heard and determined. If said petition for a citation shall state facts sufficient to warrant the issuance of said citation, the same shall issue and be served upon the secretary of state, and the court at the hearing upon the return of such citation shall have jurisdiction to hear de novo and determine all matters presented by said petition and by any petition in intervention that may be filed in said proceeding and hear the testimony of witnesses and receive documentary or other evidence offered on behalf of the secretary of state, the petitioners or any petitioner in intervention and shall decide all questions of law and of fact with all convenient speed and shall dismiss the proceedings or enter a writ of mandate or injunction in accordance with its determination, as the case may be. No appeal shall be allowed from the decision of the superior court granting or refusing to grant a writ of mandate or injunction, but such decision may be reviewed by the supreme court on a writ of certiorari sued out within five days after the decision of the superior court, and if the supreme court shall decide that the writ of mandate or injunction, as the case may be, should issue, it shall issue such writ direct to the secretary of state; otherwise, it shall dismiss the proceedings, and the clerk of the supreme court shall forthwith notify the secretary of state of the decision of the supreme court. This rule shall not apply to any wire or cable where the same is run from underground and placed vertically on the pole; nor to any wire or cable where the same is attached to the top of the pole; nor to a pole-top fixture as between it and the same pole; nor to any wire or cable between the points where the same is made to leave any pole or fixture thereon for the purpose of entering any building or other structure and the point of attachment to such building or structure; nor to any jumper wire or cable carrying a current or connected with a transformer or other appliance on the same pole; nor to bridle or jumper wires on any pole which are attached to or connected with single wires on the same pole; nor to any aerial cable as between such cable and any pole upon which it originates or terminates; nor to exclusive telephone or telegraph toll-lines; nor to aerial cables containing telephone, telegraph, or signal wires, or wires continuing from same, where the cable is attached to poles on which no wires or cables other than the wires continuing from said cable are maintained, provided, that electric light or power wires or cables are in no case maintained on the same side of the street or highway on which said aerial cable is placed.

Rule 2. No wire or cable used to carry a current of over seven hundred fifty (750) volts of electricity within the incorporate limits of any city or town shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used on any insulator the center of which is nearer than twenty-four (24) inches to the center line of any pole. And no such wire or cable shall be run past any pole to which it is not attached at a distance of less than twenty-four (24) inches from the center line thereof: Provided, that this shall not apply to any wire or cable where the same is run from underground and placed vertically on the pole; nor to any wire or cable where the same is attached to the top of the pole; nor to a pole-top fixture, as between it and the same pole; nor to any wire or cable between the points where the same is made to leave any pole or fixture thereon for the purpose of entering any building or other structure, and the point of attachment to said building or structure; nor to any jumper wire or cable carrying a current or connected with transformers or other appliances on the same pole: Provided, further, that where said wire or cable is run vertically, it shall be rigidly supported and where possible run on the ends of the cross-arms.

Rule 3. No wire or cable carrying a current of more than seven hundred fifty (750) volts, and less than seventy-five hundred (7,500) volts of electricity, shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used within three (3) feet of any wire or cable carrying a current of seven hundred fifty (750) volts or less of electricity; and no wire or cable carrying a current of more than seventy-five hundred (7,500) volts of electricity shall be run, placed, erected, maintained, or used within seven (7) feet of any wire or cable carrying less than seventy-five hundred (7,500) volts.

Provided, that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any wire or cable within buildings or other structures; nor where the same are run from underground and placed vertically upon the pole; nor to any service wire or cable where the same is made to leave any pole or fixture thereon for the purpose of entering any building or other structure, and the point of attachment to said building or structure; nor to any jumper wire or cable carrying a current or connected with a transformer or other appliance on the same pole.

Provided, that where run vertically, wires or cables shall be rigidly supported, and where possible run on the ends of the cross-arms.

Provided, further, that as between any two wires or cables mentioned in Rules 1, 2 and 3 of this section, only the wires or cables last in point of time so run, placed, erected or maintained, shall be held to be in violation of the provisions thereof.

Rule 4. No wire or cable used for telephone, telegraph, district messenger, or call-bell circuit, fire or burglar alarm, or any other similar system, shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used on any pole at a distance of less than three (3) feet from any wire or cable carrying a current of over three hundred (300) volts of electricity; and in all cases (except those mentioned in exceptions to Rules 1, 2 and 3) where such wires or cables are run, above or below, or cross over or under electric light or power wires, or a trolley wire, a suitable method of construction, or insulation or protection to prevent contact shall be maintained as between such wire or cable and such electric light, power or trolley wire; and said methods of construction, insulation or protection shall be installed by, or at the expense of the person owning the wire last placed in point of time: Provided, that telephone, telegraph or signal wires or cables operated for private use and not furnishing service to the public, may be placed less than three (3) feet from any line carrying a voltage of less than seven hundred and fifty (750) volts.

Rule 5. Transformers, either single or in bank, that exceed a total capacity of over ten (10) K. W. shall be supported by a double cross-arm, or some fixture equally as strong. No transformer shall be placed, erected, maintained or used on any cross-arm or other appliance on a pole upon which is placed a series electric arc lamp or arc light: Provided, this shall not apply to a span wire supporting a lamp only. All aerial and underground transformers used for low potential distribution shall be subjected to an insulation test in accordance with the standardized rules of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. In addition to this each transformer shall be tested at rated line voltage prior to each installation and shall have attached to it a tag showing the date on which the test was made, and the name of the person making the test.

Rule 6. No wire or cable carrying more than seventy-five hundred (7,500) volts of electricity shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used on curves or corners of greater than fifteen (15) degrees without maintaining guards sufficient to hold said wire or cable in case of breakage of pins or insulators to which the same are attached, except where said wire or cable terminates or dead-ends on curves or corners.

No wire or cable, other than ground wires, used to conduct or carry electricity, shall be placed, run, erected, maintained or used vertically on any pole without causing such wire or cable to be at all times sufficiently insulated the full length thereof to insure the protection of anyone coming in contact with said wire or cable.

Rule 7. The neutral point or wire of all transformer secondaries strung or erected for use in low potential distributing systems shall be grounded in all cases where the normal maximum difference of potential between the ground and any point in the secondary circuit will not exceed one hundred and fifty (150) volts. When no neutral point or wire is accessible one side of the secondary circuit shall be grounded in the case of single phase transformers, and any one common point in the case of interconnected polyphase bank or banks of transformers. Where the maximum difference of potential between the ground and any point in the secondary circuit will, when grounded, exceed one hundred fifty (150) volts, grounding shall be permitted. Such grounding shall be done in the manner provided in Rule 33.

Rule 8. In all cases where a wire or cable larger than No. 14 B. W. G. originates or terminates on insulators attached to any pin or other appliance, said wire or cable shall be attached to at least two insulators.

Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to service wires to buildings; nor to wires run vertically on a pole; nor to wires originating or terminating on strain insulators or circuit breakers; nor to telephone, telegraph or signal wires outside the limits of any incorporated city or town.

Rule 9. All poles along which shall be run vertically any wire or cable used to conduct or carry a current of over two hundred fifty (250) volts shall be provided with steps, and no steps shall be placed on any pole nearer the ground than seven (7) feet.

Rule 10. Fixtures placed or erected for the support of wires on the roofs of buildings shall be of sufficient strength to withstand all strains to which they may be subjected, due to the breaking of all wires on one side thereof, and, except where insulated wires or cables are held close to fire walls by straps or rings, shall be of such height and so placed that all of the wires supported by such fixtures shall be at least seven (7) feet above any point of roofs less than one-quarter pitch over which they pass or may be attached, and no roof fixtures or wire shall be so placed that they will interfere with the free passage of persons upon, over, to or from the roofs.

Rule 11. No guy wire or cable shall be placed, run, erected, maintained or used within the incorporate limits of any city or town on any pole or appliance to which is attached any wire or cable used to conduct electricity without causing said guy wire or cable to be efficiently insulated with circuit breakers at all times at a distance of not less than eight feet nor more than ten feet measured along the line of said guy wire or cable from each end thereof: Provided, no circuit breaker shall be required at the lower end of the guy wire or cable where the same is attached to a ground anchor, nor shall any circuit breaker be required where said guy wire or cable runs direct from a grounded messenger wire to a grounded anchor rod.

Rule 12. In all span wires used for the purpose of supporting trolley wires or series arc lamps there shall be at least two circuit breakers, one of which shall at all times be maintained no less than four (4) feet nor more than six (6) feet distance from the trolley wire or series arc lamp, and in cases where the same is supported by a building or metallic pole, the other circuit breaker shall be maintained at the building or at the pole: Provided, that in span wires which support two or more trolley wires no circuit breaker shall be required in the span wire between any two of the trolley wires: Provided, further, that in span wires supporting trolley wires attached to wooden poles only the circuit breaker adjacent to the trolley wire shall be required.

Rule 13. At all points where in case of a breakdown of trolley span wires, the trolley wire would be liable to drop within seven (7) feet of the ground, there shall be double span wires and hangers placed at such points.

Rule 14. All wires or appliances carrying a current of less than seventy-five hundred (7,500) volts, inside of any building or vault, for the distribution of electrical energy, shall be sufficiently insulated, or so guarded, located, or arranged as to protect any person from injury. All wires or appliances carrying a current of over seventy-five hundred (7,500) volts, shall be insulated, or so located or arranged, as to protect any person from injury; or shall be protected by a grounded metallic guard screen or other device equally as efficient, so arranged that no person may come within three times the arcing distance of the given voltage of such conductor or appliance as rated by the American Institute of Electrical Engineers for discharges between needle points; or by a guard-rail or other device so arranged that no person may come within three feet of the same.

Rule 15. The secondary circuit of current transformers, the casings of all potential regulators and arc-light transformers, all metal frames of all switchboards, metal oil tanks used on oil switches except where the tank is part of the conducting system, all motor and generator frames, the entire frame of the crane and the tracks of all traveling cranes and hoisting devices, shall be thoroughly grounded, as provided in Rule 33.

Rule 16. All generators and motors having a potential of more than three hundred (300) volts shall be provided with a suitable insulated platform or mat so arranged as to permit the attendant to stand upon such platform or mat when working upon the live parts of such generators or motors.

Rule 17. Suitable insulated platforms or mats shall be provided for the use of all men while working on any live part of switchboards on which any wire or appliance carries a potential in excess of three hundred (300) volts.

Rule 18. Every generator, motor, transformer, switch or other similar piece of apparatus and device used in the generation, transmission or distribution of electrical energy in stations or substations, shall be either provided with a name plate giving the capacity in volts and amperes, or have this information stamped thereon in such a manner as to be clearly legible.

Rule 19. In all cases there shall be two switches used at the station or substation in each feeder for the transmission of electrical energy at constant potential of seven hundred fifty (750) volts or over; one shall be an oil switch so situated as to insure the safety of the person operating the same; the other shall be a disconnecting switch: Provided, that oil switches shall not be required in direct current feeders.

Rule 20. When lines of seven hundred fifty (750) volts or over are cut out at the station or substation to allow employees to work upon them, they shall be short-circuited and grounded at the station, and shall in addition, if the line wires are bare, be short-circuited, and where possible grounded at the place where the work is being done.

Rule 21. All switches installed with overload protection devices, and all automatic overload circuit breakers must have the trip coils so adjusted as to afford complete protection against overloads and short circuits, and the same must be so arranged that no pole can be opened manually without opening all the poles, and the trip coils shall be instantly operative upon closing.

Rule 22. All feeders for electric railways must, before leaving the plant or substation, be protected by an approved circuit breaker which will cut off the circuit in case of an accidental ground or short circuit.

Rule 23. There shall be provided in all distributing stations a ground detecting device.

Rule 24. There shall be provided in all stations, plants, and buildings herein specified warning cards printed on red cardboard not less than two and one-fourth by four and one-half inches in size, which shall be attached to all switches opened for the purpose of linemen or other employees working on the wires. The person opening any line switch shall enter upon said card the name of the person ordering the switch opened, the time opened, the time line was reported clear and by whom, and shall sign his own name.

Rule 25. No manhole containing any wire carrying a current of over three hundred (300) volts shall be less than six (6) feet from floor to inside of roof; if circular in shape it shall not be less than six feet in diameter; if square it shall be six feet from wall to wall: Provided, however, that this paragraph shall not apply to any manhole in which it shall not be required that any person enter to perform work: Provided, further, that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply where satisfactory proof shall be submitted to the proper authorities that it is impracticable or physically impossible to comply with this law within the space or location designated by the proper authorities.

Rule 26. All manholes containing any wires or appliances carrying electrical current shall be kept in a sanitary condition, free from stagnant water or seepage or other drainage which is offensive or dangerous to health, either by sewer connection or otherwise, while any person is working in the same.

Rule 27. No manhole shall have an opening to the outer air of less than twenty-six (26) inches in diameter, and the cover of same shall be provided with vent hole or holes equivalent to three square inches in area.

Rule 28. No manhole shall have an opening which is, at the surface of the ground, within a distance of three (3) feet at any point from any rail of any railway or street-car track: Provided, that this shall not apply where satisfactory proof shall be submitted to the proper authorities that it is impracticable or physically impossible to comply with the provisions of this paragraph: Provided, that in complying with the provisions of this rule only the construction last in point of time performed, placed or erected shall be held to be in violation thereof.

Rule 29. Whenever persons are working in any manhole whose opening to the outer air is less than three (3) feet from the rail of any railway or street-car track, a watchman or attendant shall be stationed on the surface at the entrance of such manhole at all times while work is being performed therein.

Rule 30. There shall be provided proper cutout switches on all primary and secondary wires in all manholes where the wires are connected with transformers or other electrical devices therein.

Rule 31. All persons employed in manholes shall be furnished with insulated platforms so as to protect the workmen while at work in the manholes: Provided, that this paragraph shall not apply to manholes containing only telephone, telegraph or signal wires or cables.

Rule 32. No work shall be permitted to be done on any live wire, cable or appliance carrying more than seven hundred fifty (750) volts of electricity by less than two competent and experienced persons, who, at all times while performing such work shall be in the same room, chamber, manhole or other place in which, or on the same pole on which, such work is being done: Provided, that in districts where only one competent and experienced person is regularly employed, and a second competent and experienced person cannot be obtained without delay at prevailing rate of pay in said district, such work shall be permitted to be done by one competent and experienced person and a helper who need not be on the same pole on which said work is being done.

No work shall be permitted to be done in any manhole or subway on any live wire, cable or appliance carrying more than three hundred volts of electricity by less than two competent and experienced persons, who at all times while performing such work shall be in the same manhole or subway in which such work is being done.

Rule 33. The grounding provided for in these rules shall be done in the following manner: by connecting a wire or wires not less than No. 6 B. & S. gauge to a water-pipe of a metallic system outside of the meter, if there is one, or to a copper plate one-sixteenth inch thick and not less than three feet by six feet area buried in coke below the permanent moisture level, or to other device equally as efficient. The ground wire or wires of a direct current system of three or more wires shall not be smaller than the neutral wire at the central station, and not smaller than a No. 6 B. & S. gauge elsewhere: Provided, that the maximum cross-section area of any ground wire or wires at the central station need not exceed one million circular mils. The ground wires shall be carried in as nearly a straight line as possible, and kinks, coils and short bends shall be avoided: Provided, that the provisions of this rule shall not apply as to size to ground wires run from instrument transformers or meters. [L. '13, p. 397, § 1.]

§ 4976–2. Copy of Act to be Posted.—A copy of this act printed in a legible manner shall be kept posted in a conspicuous place in all electric plants, stations and storerooms. [L. '13, p. 407, § 2.]

§ 4976–3. Time to Comply.—All wires, cables, poles, electric fixtures or appliances of every kind or nature being used or operated at the time of the passage of this act shall be changed, and made to conform with the provisions of this act on or before five (5) years from the date of its passage.

Provided, however, that the public service commission of Washington shall have power, upon notice and hearing, to order and require the erection of all guards, protective devices, and methods of protection which in the judgment of the commission are necessary and should be constructed previous to the expiration of the time fixed in this section: Provided, however, that it shall be lawful to place additions, wires, cables, electrical fixtures or appliances upon existing poles or cross-arms so long as the new construction shall be made to conform to the provisions of this act.

Provided, further, that nothing in this act shall apply to manholes already constructed, except the provisions for guards, sanitary conditions, drainage and safety appliances specified in Rules 20, 24, 26, 29, 30, 31 and 32. [L. '13, p. 407, § 3.]

§ 4976–4. Change of Rules—Violations.—It shall be the duty of the public service commission of Washington to enforce all the provisions and rules of this act and it is hereby empowered upon hearing to amend, alter and change any and all rules herein contained, or any part thereof, and to supplement the same by additional rules and requirements, after first giving reasonable public notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard to all affected thereby: Provided, that no rule amending, altering or changing any rule supplementary to the rules herein contained shall provide a less measure of safety than that provided by the rule amended, altered or changed.

A violation of any rule herein contained or of any rule or requirement made by the commission which it is hereby permitted to make shall be deemed a violation of this act. [L. '13, p. 408, § 4.]

Any public service company, county, city, or other political subdivision of the state of Washington, which shall violate or fail to comply with any provision of this act, or which fails, omits or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order, rule, or any direction, demand or requirement of the commission, pursuant to this act, shall be subject to a penalty of not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars for each and every offense. Every violation of any such order, direction or requirement of this act shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continued violation every day's continuance thereof shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct offense. [L. '13, p. 408, § 5.]

§ 4976–6. Penalty.—Every officer, agent or employee of any public service company, the state of Washington, or any county, city, or other political subdivision of the state of Washington, who shall violate or fail to comply with, or who procures, aids or abets any violation by any public service company, the state of Washington, or any county, city or other political subdivision of the state of Washington, of any provision of this act, or who shall fail to obey, observe or comply with any order of the commission, pursuant to this act, or any provision of any order of the commission, or who procures, aids or abets any such public service company, the state of Washington, or any county, city, or other political subdivision of the state of Washington, in its failure to obey, observe and comply with any such with bond number one, until all of said bonds are paid: Provided, that thirty days after the first publication of said notice of the treasurer calling in any of said bonds by their number, said bonds shall cease to be at interest, which shall be stated in the notice. [L. '90, p. 39, § 7; 1 H. C., § 2680.]

§ 5092. Coupons Shall be Deemed Warrants—Presentation of.—The coupons hereinbefore mentioned for the payment of interest on said bonds shall be considered for all purposes as warrants drawn upon the general fund of the county issuing bonds under the provisions of this chapter, and when presented to the treasurer of the county issuing such bonds, and no funds are in the treasury to pay the said coupons, it shall be the duty of the treasurer to indorse said coupons as presented for payment, in the same manner as county warrants are indorsed, and thereafter said coupons shall bear interest at the same rate as county warrants so presented and unpaid. How to be Held—Ballots—Bonds, When to Issue, and Requisites of.—Such election may be held at the times and in the manner provided for holding general elections in this state, and it may be held as a special election at such time as the board of county commissioners may designate. The ballots used must contain the words "Bonds, Yes," and "Bonds, No." If three-fifths of the legal ballots cast on the question of issuing bonds for the improvement contemplated in the last section shall be in favor of bonds, the said commissioners must issue said bonds in due and legal form, and negotiate or float the same to the best advantage for the county, at not less than par value. Such bonds must bear the signature of the chairman of such board of commissioners, and be countersigned by the county auditor of the county in whose name they are issued, with the seal of the county thereunto attached; and the coupons must be signed by said chairman and said county auditor, and each bond so issued must be registered in the office of the county treasurer, in a book provided for that purpose, which must show the date, number and amount of the bond, and the name, and address of the person to whom the same is issued. [L. '13, p. 475, § 1. Cf. L. '90, p. 41, § 2; L. '91, p. 174, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2684.]

See infra, § 5590, funds for maintaining county roads.

§ 5096. Notice of Election to State What.—The commissioners must give notice in some newspaper, having a general circulation in said county for a period of at least four weeks next preceding the date of the election, setting forth the proposition as to amount, duration, and terms of the bonds to be issued, and state in such notice the roads or bridges to be built or improved. [L. '90, p. 41, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2685.]

§ 5097. Proceeds of Bonds—How Disbursed.—When such bonds are sold, the money arising therefrom shall be immediately paid into the treasury of the county, and shall be drawn only for the improvement for which they were issued. [L. '90, p. 41, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2686.]

§ 5098. Interest and Redemption of Bonds—Lien.—The commissioners must ascertain and levy annually the tax necessary to pay the interest on said bonds whenever the same becomes due, and a sinking fund to redeem the bonds at their maturity, and the said tax is a lien upon all property within the county, and must be collected in the same manner as other taxes are collected. [L. '90, p. 42, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2687.]

§ 5099. Redemption of Bonds—Notice to be Mailed, When.—When the amount in the sinking fund equals or exceeds the interest and amount of any bond then due, the county treasurer shall post in his office a notice that he will, within thirty days from the date of such notice, redeem the bonds then payable, giving the numbers thereof; and preference must be given to the oldest issue: Provided, if the county treasurer is advised of the postoffice address of the holder of any such bonds, then he shall mail a written notice to such holder, and if, after expiration of said thirty days, the holder or holders of said bonds shall fail or neglect to present the same for payment, interest thereon must cease, but the treasurer shall at all times thereafter be ready to redeem the same on presentation, and when any bonds are purchased or redeemed, the county treasurer must cancel the same by writing across the face of each bond, in red ink, the word "Redeemed." and date of such redemption. [L. '90, p. 42, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2688.]

§ 5100. Payment of Interest Coupons.—The county treasurer must pay out of any moneys belonging to the road fund so created the interest upon any bonds issued under this chapter, by such commissioners when the same becomes due, upon the presentation at his office of the proper coupon, which must show the amount due and the number of the bond to which it belongs; and all coupons so paid must be reported to the commissioners at their first meeting thereafter. [L. '90, p. 42, § 7; 1 H. C., § 2689.]

§ 5101. Copy of Act to be Printed on Bonds.—A copy of this act, together with all amendments hereafter made, shall be printed upon the reverse side of all bonds issued under the provisions hereof. [L. '90, p. 42, § 9; 1 H. C., § 2690.]

"This act": The preceding sections in this chapter constitute "this act."

§ 5101-1. Coupon County Road Bonds—Limitation—Manner of Voting.—The board of county commissioners of any county may, whenever a majority thereof shall so decide, submit to the voters of their county at an election the question whether the said board shall be authorized to issue negotiable coupon road bonds of the county to the amount not to exceed five per centum of the taxable property in said county for the purpose of constructing a new road or roads, or improving established roads within said county, or for aiding in so doing, as prescribed in this act. The word "improvement" wherever employed in this act shall be deemed to embrace any undertaking for any or all of said purposes. The word "road" wherever employed in this act shall be deemed to embrace all highways, roads, streets, avenues, bridges, and other public ways. The provisions of this act shall apply not only to roads which are or shall be under the general control of the county, but also to all parts of state roads in such county and to all roads which are situated or are to be constructed wholly or partly within the limits of any incorporated city or town therein, provided the board of county commissioners finds that the same form or will become a part of the public highway system of such county, and will connect with existing roads in such county. Such finding may be made by the board of county commissioners at any stage of the proceedings before the actual delivery of the bonds. The constructing or improving of any and all such roads, or the aiding therein, is hereby declared to be a county purpose. The question of the issuance of bonds for any undertaking which relates to a number of different roads or parts thereof, whether intended to supply the whole expenditure or to aid therein, may be submitted to the voters as a single proposition in all cases where such course is consistent with the provisions of the state constitution. If the county commissioners in submitting any such proposition relating to different roads or parts thereof find that such proposition has for its object the furtherance and accomplishment of the construction of a system of public and county highways in such county, and constitutes and has for its object a single purpose, such finding shall be presumed to be correct, and upon the issuance of the bonds such presumption shall become conclusive. No proposition for bonds shall be submitted which proposes that more than forty per cent of the proceeds thereof shall be expended within any city or town or within any number of cities and towns. [L. '13, p. 62, § 1.]

§ 5101–2. Time of Election—Form of Ballots—Bonds—Form.—Such election may be held at the times and in the manner provided for holding general elections in this state, or it may be held as a special election at such time as the board of county commissioners may designate. The ballots used must contain the words, "Bonds, Yes," and "Bonds, No." If three-fifths of the legal ballots cast on the question of issuing bonds for the improvement contemplated in the last section shall be in favor of bonds, the said commissioners must issue such negotiable bonds in due and legal form, and negotiate or float the same in such manner as they may deem to the best advantage for the county, at not less than par value. The bonds authorized by this act shall be issued in the name of the county, in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars; they shall be payable either (1) to some person or corporation (named therein) or the bearer, or (2) simply to the bearer, at such time as shall be stated therein, not more than twenty years after the date of issue, and bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually; they may be made payable in any city in the United States containing a national bank; they shall bear the signature of the chairman of the board of county commissioners, and be countersigned by the county auditor of the county with the seal of county thereunto attached; and the interest coupons shall be signed by said chairman and said county auditor, and each bond so issued must be registered in the office of the county treasurer in a book provided for that purpose, which must show the date, number and amount of the bond, date of maturity, rate of interest, and the name and address of the person to whom the same is issued: Provided, that it shall be lawful, in case the county commissioners shall so order, for the coupons to bear lithographed or engraved facsimiles of the signatures of the chairman and county auditor instead of their original signatures. The county seal need not be affixed to the coupons. Each coupon must show the number of the bond to which it belongs. Such bonds and coupons shall be printed, engraved or lithographed on good bond paper. [L. '13, p. 63, § 2.]

§ 5101–3. Tax Levy for Interest—Sinking Fund—Investment.—The county commissioners must ascertain and levy annually a tax sufficient to pay the interest on all such bonds whenever the same becomes due. At least five years prior to the maturity of such bonds and thenceforward in each year until their maturity, the county commissioners must ascertain and levy a tax sufficient to accumulate during such series of years a fund equal to the principal sum of all such bonds then remaining outstanding and unpaid, and the amount of such tax as collected shall be by the county treasurer credited to a special fund for the payment of the principal of such bonds, which shall be designated "Road Bonds of —— Sinking Fund," (the blank to be filled by inserting the year in which the bonds are issued), and no part of said fund shall be diverted to any other purpose than the payment of such principal. But such fund or any accumulated part thereof may be invested at any time or times in such manner and under such safeguards as may hereafter be provided by the statutes of this state, in which case all interest or premiums that may be realized on any such investment, as well as the principal thereof, shall be credited to such fund. All such taxes levied either for interest or for the sinking fund shall be a lien upon all property within the county and must be collected in the same manner as other taxes are collected. The county treasurer must pay out of any money belonging to the fund accumulated from the taxes levied to pay the interest as aforesaid, the interest upon all such bonds when the same becomes due upon presentation at the place of payment of the proper coupon; all coupons so paid must be reported to the county commissioners at their first meeting thereafter. Whenever the coupons are payable at any place other than the city in which the county treasurer keeps his office, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer seasonably to remit to a suitable fiscal agent (which shall be either a fiscal agent appointed by the state of Washington or some responsible fiscal agent approved by the county commissioners) at the place of payment the amount of money required for the payment of any coupons which are about to fall due. When any such bonds or coupons are paid, the county treasurer shall suitably and indelibly cancel the same. [L. '13, p. 64, § 3.]

Tax levy and funds for general county road and bridge fund: See infra, §§ 5590–1 to 5590–10.

§ 5101–4. Notice of Election.—The commissioners must give notice in some newspaper having a general circulation in said county for a period of at least four (4) weeks next preceding the date of the election, setting forth the proposition as to amount and duration of the bonds to be issued, and the rate of interest thereon which is not to be exceeded, and stating in such notice the road or roads to be built or improved. Such notice need not describe the road or roads with particularity, but it shall be sufficient either to describe the same by termini and with a general statement as to the course of the same, or to use any other appropriate language sufficient to show the purpose intended to be accomplished. The commissioners may, at their option, give such other or further notice as they may deem advisable. When the bonds are issued they may be made to bear the rate of interest stated in the notice or any less rate. [L. '13, p. 65, § 4.]

§ 5101–5. Proceeds of Bonds—City Assistance—Limitation of Expenses.—When such bonds are sold, the money arising therefrom shall be immediately paid into the treasury of the county, and shall be drawn only for the improvement for which they were issued, under the general direction of the county commissioners: Provided, that if such improvement includes in whole or in part the constructing or improving of one or more roads, or any part or parts thereof, within the limits of any incorporated city or town and if the county commissioners shall find that the amount of the proceeds of such bonds intended to be expended for any such improvements within such corporate limits will probably not be sufficient to defray the entire expense of such improvement therein, and if they further find it to be equitable that such city or town should bear the remainder of such expense, they shall have power to postpone any expenditure therefor from the proceeds of such bonds until such city or town shall have made provision by ordinance for proceeding with such improvement within its corporate limits at its own expense so far as concerns the cost thereof over and above the amount of such bond proceeds available therefor. In such case it shall be lawful for the county commissioners to consent, under such general directions as they shall impose, that the proper authorities of such city or town shall have actual charge of making the proposed improvement within such corporate limits, such city or town acquiring any needed property or rights and doing the work by contract or otherwise in accordance with the charter or laws governing such city or town, but the same shall be subject to the approval of the county commissioners so far as concerns any payment therefor from the proceeds of such bonds. In such case, as the work progresses and money is needed to pay therefor, the county commissioners shall, from time to time, by proper order or orders, specifying the amount and purpose, direct the county treasurer to turn over to the city or town treasurer such part or parts of the proceeds of the bonds as may be justly applicable to such improvement or part thereof within such city or town, and any money so received by such city or town treasurer shall be inviolably applied to the purpose so specified. When that portion of the entire improvement which lies within any such city or town can readily be separated into parts, the procedure authorized by this section may be pursued separately as to any one or more of such parts of the general improvement. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to render the county liable for any greater part of the expense of any improvement or part thereof within any city or town than the proper amount of the proceeds of such bonds, or to prevent such city or town from raising any part of the cost of any such improvement or part of improvement, over and above the amount arising from the proceeds of such bonds, by assessment upon property benefited, or by contribution from any of its general or special funds in accordance with the provisions of the charter or laws governing such city or town. The provisions of this section, other than the direction for the payment into the county treasury of the money arising from the sale of the bonds, need not be complied with until after the issuance of the bonds and the validity of the bonds shall not be dependent upon such compliance. [L. '13, p. 66, § 5.]

§ 5101–6. Validating Indebtedness in Counties, Cities and Towns.

§ 5108a. Manner of Ratifying Indebtedness.—Any county, city or town in this state other than any county or city of the first class may ratify in the manner prescribed by this act, the attempted incurring of any indebtedness of such county, city or town, by the issuing of warrants, making of contracts, or creations of other evidences of indebtedness on the part of such county, city or town, by the corporate authorities thereof at any time prior to the passage of this act, when the only ground of the invalidity of such indebtedness so to be ratified is that, at the time of such attempted incurring thereof, the same, together with all other then existing indebtedness of such county, city or town, exceeding one and one-half per centum of the taxable property in such county, city or town, ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes previous to the attempted incurring of such indebtedness, except that in incorporated cities the assessment shall be taken from the last assessment for city purposes, and that such indebtedness was so attempted to be incurred without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election held for that purpose. [L. '15, p. 354, § 1. Cf. L. '11, p. 614, § 1; L. '13, p. 480, § 1; L. '09, p. 103, § 1; L. '88, pp. 74, 75; L. '91, pp. 267–270; 1 H. C., §§ 719–723; L. '93, pp. 181–183; L. '95, p. 44, § 1; L. This act is the same as the act of 1911, except that the latter covered "any" county, city, or town.

See infra, § 8035 et seq.

See infra, § 8054, validation in consolidated cities.

§ 5109a. Notice of Election.—Whenever the corporate authorities of any such county, city or town shall deem it advisable that the ratification authorized by this act shall be obtained, they shall provide therefor by ordinance or resolution, which shall specify separately the amount of each distinct class of such indebtedness so to be ratified, the date or period of the attempted incurring by the corporate authorities of each separate class thereof, and the general nature of the indebtedness composed in each distinct class and shall provide for the holding of an election for that purpose, at which the attempted incurring of such indebtedness shall be submitted to the voters in such county, city or town for ratification or approval, of which election notice, to be provided for in such ordinance or resolution, shall be given by publishing the same in a newspaper published in such county, city or town once a week for at least four successive weeks, and if no newspaper is published in such city or town, then by publishing such notice for the same period in a newspaper published in the county wherein such city or town is situate and of general circulation therein. Each distinct class of such indebtedness so specified shall be the subject of a distinct vote in favor of or against the ratification thereof, and such vote shall designate the class of indebtedness referred to by the description thereof used and the amount specified in the ordinance or resolution. [L. '15, p. 354, § 2. Cf. L. '11, p. 615, § 2; L. '13, p. 480, § 2, and notes to § 5108a.]

§ 5110a. Vote Necessary to Ratify.—If at an election held as provided for in section 5109a, three-fifths of the voters of such county, city or town, voting at such election, shall vote in favor of the ratification of any distinct class of such indebtedness, specified in the ordinance or resolution providing for such election, then such indebtedness shall thereby become and is hereby declared to be validated and a binding obligation upon such county, city or town, when the only ground of the previous invalidity of such indebtedness is that at the time of the incurring thereof so ratified, the same, together with all other then existing indebtedness of such county, city or town, exceeding one and one-half per centum of the taxable property in such county, city or town ascertained by the last previous assessment for state and county purposes (except that in incorporated cities the assessment shall be taken from the last assessment for city purposes): Provided, that neither anything in this act contained nor the vote cast at any such election shall be deemed to validate or authorize any indebtedness, which, together with all other indebtedness of such county, city or town existing at the time of the attempted incurring of the same exceeded any constitutional limitation of indebtedness which might be incurred with the assent of three-fifths of the voters in such county, city or town voting at an election to be held for that purpose: And provided further, that this act shall apply only to indebtedness attempted to be incurred prior to the passage hereof. [L. '15, p. 355, § 3. Cf. L. '11, p. 615, § 3; L. '13, p. 481, § 3, and notes to § 5108a.]

See, also, "Municipal Corporations," § 8041, etc.

§ 5112. Funding Bonds, When and How Issued.—Any county city or town in the state of Washington which now has or may hereafter have an outstanding indebtedness evidenced by warrants or bonds, whether issued originally within the limitations of the constitution of this state, or of any law thereof, or whether such outstanding indebtedness has been or may hereafter be validated or legalized in the manner prescribed by law, may, by its corporate authorities, provide by ordinance or resolution for the issuance of funding bonds with which to take up and cancel such outstanding indebtedness in the manner hereinafter described: Provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to prevent any such county, city or town from funding its indebtedness as now provided by law. [L. '95, p. 465, § 1.]

Cited in 13 Wash. 424, 511; 15 Wash. 89; 23 Wash. 463.

They shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed seven per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, which interest shall be evidenced by proper coupons attached to each bond. Such corporate authorities shall, by ordinance or resolution, provide for the manner of issuing and the form of said bonds, and the time or times when the same shall be made payable; but no bonds issued under this chapter shall be issued for a longer period than twenty years, and when they shall be made payable at different periods within said twenty years, they shall be divided into series not to exceed twenty in number, but there shall be as many series as there are different times of payment, and all bonds included in each series shall be made payable at the same time. The principal and interest may be made payable at any place in the United States designated by the corporate authorities of such county, city or town. Such bonds shall not be issued to an aggregate amount in excess of the warrants or other outstanding indebtedness proposed to be funded thereby. They may be exchanged at not less than their par value for such warrants or other outstanding indebtedness, or may be sold at not less than their par value, and the proceeds used exclusively for the purpose of retiring and canceling such warrants and interest thereon or other indebtedness; Provided, that nothing in this chapter contained shall be deemed to authorize the issuing of any funding bonds which, other than that proposed to be funded under the provisions of this chapter, shall exceed any constitutional limitation of indebtedness, or any indebtedness, which might be incurred with the assent of three-fifths of the voters of such county, city or town voting at an election to be held for that purpose. [L. '95, p. 466, § 2.]

of funding or refunding outstanding warrants in cases where the issuance of such bonds shall have been previously authorized by the voters of such county, city or town, when exchanged at not less than par value, or for the purpose of funding or refunding outstanding bonds, when exchanged at not less than par value, but before any other bonds shall be issued under the provisions of this chapter, such corporate authorities shall cause a notice of the proposed issuance of such bonds to be given by publication in a daily or weekly newspaper of general circulation published in the county proposing to issue such bonds, or in which county such city or town is situated, at least once a week for four consecutive weeks. Such notice shall state for what purpose and the total amount for which it is so proposed to issue bonds, and if to be divided into series, then into how many series the same are to be divided, and the amount of and period for which each series is to run, also the hour and day for considering bids for such bonds, and asking bidders to name the price and rate of interest at which they will purchase such bonds, and if such bonds are to be divided into series, then to name such price and rate for each series of such bonds, separately; and at the time named in such notice it shall be the duty of the corporate authorities to meet with the treasurer of the county, city or town proposing to issue such bonds, at his office, and with him open said bids, and shall sell said bonds to the person or persons making the most advantageous offer therefor: Provided, however, that said bonds shall never be sold or disposed of below par, and such corporate authorities shall have the right to reject any and all bids, and if all said bids shall be rejected, such corporate authorities shall proceed to readvertise the sale of said bonds in the manner herein provided. [L. '95, p. 467, § 4.]

Funds for Current Expenses in Counties, Cities, Towns and School Districts.

§ 5118. Anticipated Revenue.—Any county, city, town or school district in this state may borrow money or issue warrants in anticipation of its revenue, to meet its current general expenses, as hereinafter provided: Provided, however, that no county, city, town or school district now or hereafter having an outstanding warrant or floating indebtedness, not funded, shall be permitted to take advantage of the provisions of this chapter until said indebtedness shall be paid, funded, canceled or exchanged as provided in section 5123, or otherwise paid. [L. "95, p. 297, § 1.]

This chapter (the act of March 20, 1895) is attempted to be repealed by § 257 of Laws of 1897, page 448, but the title of the act of 1897 omits mention thereof, and consequently the chapter is retained as in force at least as applicable to all corporations except schools districts.

§ 5119. Deficiency Reported by Treasurer.—Whenever any tax shall have been actually levied, and it shall appear to the treasurer of any such county, city, town or school district that there are no funds in his hands, as such treasurer, with which to meet the current general expenses of such county, city, town or school district for which such tax has been levied, he shall report such fact to the board of county commissioners, the common council, the board of trustees or education, or other managing body of such county, city, town or school district, and if in the opinion of a majority of said board, council or other managing body, as is necessary to provide temporary funds for such purposes, such necessity shall be declared by proper order, ordinance or resolution, specifying the amount of such proposed loan or loans, and shall give notice of such proposed loan or loans, by publication once a week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the county, calling for bids for such loan or loans, to be submitted within five days from the last publication of such notice, and shall award the same to such bidder as shall offer the lowest rate of interest and the most satisfactory terms, and thereupon the treasurer shall be authorized, and it shall be his duty to proceed to make such loan or loans in the manner and according to the terms of such order, ordinance or resolution and award: Provided, however, that the notes or warrants authorized to be issued under the provisions of this chapter shall not be discounted or disposed of for less than the par value thereof. [L. '95, p. 297, § 2.]

§ 5122. Warrants to Contain What.—Whenever any such county, city, town or school district shall have reached its limit of indebtedness as specified in the preceding section, and shall desire to issue warrants, such warrants shall be in manner and form as now required by law, except that each shall contain a clause declaring that the same is not a debt or obligation of such county, city, town or school district, and distinctly limiting the payment thereof, and the payment of interest accruing thereon, to the revenues to be derived from the levy then actually made, and against which the same is drawn; and in case any such warrant shall be presented for payment and there shall be no funds on hand with which to pay the same, it shall be indorsed, "Presented for payment and not paid for want of funds," together with the date of presentation, and shall thereafter draw interest at the legal rate, but such indorsement shall in no case operate to make such warrant a debt or obligation of said county, city, town or school district, or in any manner extend the payment thereof to any revenue or revenues than that or those against which the same was originally drawn. [L. '95, p. 300, § 5.]

§ 5123. Treasurer Authorized to Borrow, When.—When any warrants shall have been issued, as now provided by law, or as provided in this chapter, and shall be outstanding and not called for payment, and the board, council or other managing body of any county, city, town or school district shall deem it necessary or advisable to cancel or exchange the same, and there shall be no funds on hand with which to effect such cancellation, then, in such case, said board, council or other managing body shall, by a majority vote, duly authorize the treasurer to make a temporary loan or loans in the manner hereinbefore provided with which to take up and cancel such warrants, or may cause to be issued, in the manner hereinbefore provided, note or notes in exchange therefor; but in all cases, before any such note or notes shall be issued, said treasurer shall publish a notice calling for the warrants it is proposed to so cancel or exchange, said notice to be so published once a week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the county; and interest on such warrants shall cease ten days after the date of the last publication of such notice (if said warrants are not sooner presented); and when warrants aggregating an amount not less than five hundred dollars shall be so presented a note or notes may be issued in exchange therefor, or with which to obtain funds to cancel the same. [L. '95, p. 300, § 6.]

§ 5124. Reserve Fund.—In all cases where any temporary loan or loans shall have been made and any note or notes shall have been issued as provided in this chapter, it shall be the duty of the treasurer of such county, city, town or school district, to set aside and

§ 5125. § 5127. Interest not Compounded.—Whenever any note or notes shall have been issued according to the provisions of this chapter, and shall become due and payable, and there shall be no funds on hand with which to pay the same, or any interest thereon, and it shall be deemed desirable to renew said note or notes, as provided in this chapter, the interest due upon said note or notes shall not be included in the sum for which said note or notes shall be renewed, but warrant or warrants may be issued therefor; and said warrant or warrants shall be noninterest bearing, and shall so state upon their face, and shall be paid only when there shall be sufficient funds on hand, received from the revenues against which the original note or notes was issued. [L. '95, p. 303, § 10.]

(excepting such improvements, the cost of which is to be assessed against any specific property), the making and improvement of sewers, and any and all other expenses necessary to be incurred in maintaining the corporation and in its government in accordance with its charter and the needs of its inhabitants. [L. '97, p. 222, § 4.]

§ 5133. Tax for Indebtedness to be Fixed by Council.—The tax for payment of indebtedness shall be based upon a statement of such indebtedness, which shall be prepared by the clerk and approved by the council by a majority vote, at the meeting at which the levy is made, which statement shall be entered in the record of the proceedings of the council. In making the levy, consideration shall be taken of all outstanding warrants, certificates and all other obligations and indebtedness of the city, with the interest thereon, for the payment of which no provision is made by law, by the levy of a special tax, or otherwise than by a general tax, and this chapter shall not affect existing laws relating to the levy or collection of any tax, or the maintenance of any fund, for the payment of any bonded or funded indebtedness, or of the interest thereon. [L. '97, p. 223, § 6.]

No special tax shall be levied for the maintenance of such waterworks, electric lighting plant, cemetery or other public works or institutions, but the expense of such public works or institutions, less the rents or other revenues or income therefrom, shall be considered in levying taxes for payment of current expenses, and any deficit in the maintenance of such public works or institutions shall be paid out of the current expense fund, and any surplus in said "Waterworks Fund," "Lighting Fund," "Cemetery Fund," or other like funds, shall, at the end of each fiscal year, be paid and transferred to the current expense fund: Provided, that this chapter shall not affect existing laws relating to any funded or bonded indebtedness incurred in the construction or purchase of such public works or institutions, or to the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of such funded or bonded indebtedness: Provided, that if the council shall find, and enter such finding in the record of their proceedings, that it is necessary to retain such surplus, or any part thereof, in such fund, for the purpose of extending or repairing such public works or institutions, or for the purpose of paying interest or principal of any indebtedness incurred in the construction or purchase of such public works or institutions, or for the purpose of creating or adding to a sinking fund for the payment of such indebtedness, then such surplus, or any part thereof, may be so retained or paid upon such indebtedness or interest thereon, or may be transferred to such sinking fund. [L. '97, p. 224, § 10.]

Proceedings Where Corporate Limits Changed.—In all cases where the limits of such corporations have been or shall be extended, and additional territory annexed, it shall be the duty of the council and officers of the corporation to arrange and keep and maintain the accounts and funds of the corporation in such a manner that the interests of the inhabitants and taxpayers of the several districts of the corporation in the various funds and property of the city shall be clearly shown, and in all transactions these different interests shall be considered and protected. [L. '97, p. 225, § 11.]

See infra, § 7455, consolidation, etc.

An identical section (L. '97, p. 193, § 121; Bal. Code, § 1801) in the general revenue law of 1897, relating to all cities, was expressly repealed by Laws of 1899, page 305, § 32; but this section probably remains unaffected, as it refers only to cities of less than twenty thousand inhabitants.

§ 5140–1. Funds and Tax Levies in Third-class Cities.—Every city of the third class having an outstanding indebtedness at the time of levying its taxes for the year 1916 shall levy for said year, and each year thereafter until all outstanding indebtedness has been paid shall levy, a tax of six mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of property in such city, unless in any year a lesser levy will be sufficient to pay all outstanding indebtedness, in which event such lesser levy sufficient for such purpose shall be made. The proceeds of such tax together with all moneys received from licenses, street poll tax, fines, penalties and forfeitures and together with all taxes levied for the year 1915 or any previous year for the current expense fund, old indebtedness fund, general fund, street fund, sewer fund, library fund, park fund or other like fund and paid on or subsequent to January 1, 1916, shall be paid into a fund to be known as the "Indebtedness Fund": Provided, that all tax levies and validated tax levies and all parts of each thereof made for the payment of the current expenses of any such city for the fiscal years 1914 and 1915 shall when collected be paid into a separate fund to be known as the 1914 and 1915 current expense fund and applied primarily to the payment of the current expenses of such city for the fiscal year for which the same were levied or validated. In computing such outstanding indebtedness all indebtedness of every character shall be included excepting indebtedness for the payment of which special provision is made by law and by said city and bonded indebtedness for the payment of which an adequate sinking fund is provided. [L. '15, p. 668, § 1.]

§ 5140–2. Payment of Outstanding Indebtedness—Apportionment of Funds.—Except as otherwise provided in section 5140–1, all indebtedness outstanding upon January 1, 1916, shall be paid out of said indebtedness fund, all outstanding warrants to be paid out of said indebtedness fund in the order of their issuance and if issued upon the same day and the order of issuance does not appear they shall be paid in the order of their presentation: Provided, that if there be outstanding on said date a general fund indebtedness and a current expense fund indebtedness of any such city the moneys derived from the six mill levy herein provided for shall, so long as any indebtedness remains against both said funds, be apportioned between said funds and applied to the payment of the outstanding warrants against the same in proportion to the outstanding indebtedness against said funds in the order above provided. Whenever all indebtedness of such city which was outstanding upon January 1, 1916, has been paid, any surplus remaining in said indebtedness fund shall be paid into the "Current Expense Fund" of such city, and thereafter all receipts of said city which would theretofore have been paid into said indebtedness fund shall be paid into said current expense fund. [L. '15, p. 669, § 2.]

§ 5140–3. "Current Expense Fund" Created—Tax Levy.—There shall be in each city of the third class a fund to be known as the "Current Expense Fund." Each such city shall levy for the year 1916 and for each year thereafter a tax upon the property in such city for the payment of current expenses in an amount equal to the estimate by the city council of the current expenses for the ensuing year less the amount of revenues from all other sources payable into such current expense fund, the proceeds of which tax shall be paid into such current expense fund except as otherwise provided in this act. All moneys in the general fund, old indebtedness fund, old "Current Expense Fund" if such shall have been continued, street fund, sewer fund, library fund, park fund or other like fund upon January 1, 1916, which were paid into any such fund prior to said day, shall be transferred to the current expense fund created by this act and thereafter every such general fund, old indebtedness fund, old "Current Expense Fund," street fund, sewer fund, library fund, park fund or other like fund shall be discontinued and abolished. [L. '15, p. 669, § 3.]

§ 5140–4. Validating Tax Levies by Cities of Third Class.—The tax levies made by cities of the third class for the years 1913, 1914 and prior years are hereby ratified and validated wherever the only reason of the invalidity of such tax levy or levies is that the same were made in excess of the limitation prescribed by statute, or were not apportioned according to the provisions of chapter 108, Laws of 1913; and upon the taking effect of this act, the proper officers are hereby authorized and directed to proceed with the extension, collection and enforcement of the lien of such taxes; and collections heretofore made are hereby ratified: Provided, this act shall not apply to such cities as did not attempt to collect such levies or which canceled the same. § 5277–2. Powers and Duties of Board.—The board shall supervise all matters of forest policy and forest management under the jurisdiction of the state, and shall have power to authorize all needful and proper expenditures for forest protection; it shall have full power to appoint a forester; to make rules and regulations for the prevention, control and suppression of forest fires as it deems necessary; to regulate and control the official acts of the forester, his assistants, the wardens, and the rangers, and to remove at will any of these officials. It shall be the duty of the board to collect information regarding the timber lands owned by the state, through investigation made by the forester, his assistants, the wardens and the rangers regarding the condition of the timber lands belonging to the state, the investigation to include any damage caused by forest fires, and any illegal cutting, or trespassing upon the state timber lands.

The board is hereby authorized, when in its judgment it appears advisable, to accept on behalf of the state, any grant of land within the state; which shall then become a part of the state forest: Provided, that no grant shall be accepted until the title has been examined and approved by the attorney general of the state and a report made to the board of the result of such examination. [L. '11, p. 623, § 2.]

§ 5277–3. Appointment of Forester—Audit of Bills.—The board shall appoint a forester at an annual salary, the amount of which shall be fixed by the board, and payable in equal monthly installments out of the state treasury, in the same manner as the salaries of other state officials are paid.

actual performance of his duties. All expenses so incurred shall be submitted in full detail to the board for examination, and if approved and allowed by the board, shall be presented to the state auditor, who shall, if found correct, draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount so allowed, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized to pay said amount due out of any moneys in the state treasury appropriated for this purpose.

The board shall audit and inspect all bills of salary and expenses incurred by the wardens for their official accounts, and all other bills properly authorized by the wardens for the prevention, suppression, checking, or control of forest fires. When so audited and inspected, the board shall present a statement thereof for each county, accompanied by the original bills, to the state auditor, who shall audit the same, and if found correct, the state auditor shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer in payment thereof, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized to pay said warrants out of any money in the treasury appropriated for such purposes. [L. '11, p. 624, § 3.]

§ 5277-4. Assistants—Duties.—The forester may at his discretion, subject to the approval of the board, appoint trained forest assistants, possessing technical qualifications, and may employ necessary clerical assistants, and fix the amount of their respective salaries, which shall be payable in equal monthly installments to each assistant so appointed or employed.

He shall act as secretary of the board, or he may delegate that duty to one of his assistants. He shall, acting under the supervision of the board, and whenever he may deem it necessary to the best interests of the state, co-operate in forest surveys, in forest studies, in forest products studies, in forest fire fighting and patrol, and in the preparation of plans for the protection, management, replacement of trees, wood lots, and timber tracts, with any of the several departments of the governments of other states, and with the government or with the departments of the government of the United States, with the Dominion of Canada, or with any province thereof, and with counties, towns, corporations, and individuals within the state of Washington.

He shall, subject to the rules and regulations of the board, have direct charge and supervision of all matters pertaining to forestry, including the forest fire service of the state.

The term "forest fire service" as used in this act shall be held to include all wardens, rangers and help especially employed for preventing or fighting forest fires.

In times of emergency or unusual danger the forester is empowered to mass the forest fire service of the state where its presence might be required by reason of forest fires, and to take charge of, and direct the work of suppressing such fires.

The forester shall enforce all laws for the preservation of the forests within the state, investigate the origin of all forest fires, vigorously prosecute all violators of this act; prepare and print for public distribution an abstract of the forest laws and the forest fire laws of Washington, together with such rules and regulations as may be formulated by the board.

The forester may, with the approval of the board, publish for free distribution, information pertaining to forestry, and to forest products, which he may consider of benefit to the people of the state.

It shall be the duty of the forester to annually notify the county clerk in each county where wardens or rangers are appointed, giving the names of such appointees.

The forester shall furnish notice printed in large letters on cloth, calling attention to the dangers from forest fires, and to the penalties for the violation of this act; such notices to be posted in conspicuous places by the wardens or rangers in all timbered districts along roads and trails, streams and lakes, frequented by tourists, campers, hunters and fishermen, and in other visited regions.

The forester shall, subject to the approval of the board, prepare all necessary printed forms for use of wardens and rangers, in connection with the granting of applications for permits to burn; for the appointment of wardens and rangers, and any and all forms or blanks required or desirable, and shall supply each warden and ranger with such forms and blanks.

The forester shall become familiar with the location and the areas of all state timbered and cut-over lands, and shall prepare maps of each of the timbered counties showing the state land therein, and supply such maps to each warden and in all ways that are practical and feasible protect such lands from the dangers of fire, trespass, and the illegal cutting of timber, reporting from time to time direct to the board such information as may be of benefit to the state in the care and protection of its timber.

It shall be the duty of the forester to institute inquiry into the extent, kind, value and condition of all timber lands within the state; the amount of acres, and the value of the timber that is cut and removed each year, to determine what state lands are chiefly valuable for growing timber; the extent to which timber lands are being destroyed by fire; and also to examine into the production, quality and quantity of second-growth timber, with a view to ascertaining conditions for reforestation, and not later than the first day of December of each year, make a written report to the board upon all such tracts so examined by him, together with detailed information as to the work of the forest fire service of the state. [L. '11, p. 624, § 4.]

§ 5277–5. Wardens—Duties of Forester and Wardens—Compensation.—The forester shall, subject to the approval of the board, have power to appoint within any county in this state where there is timber requiring protection, one or more wardens for all or any portion of the period during which the forester deems that forest fire dangers exist.

The forester may, subject to the approval of the board, and at such times and in such localities as he deems the public welfare demands, employ one or more wardens whose duty it shall be to examine deforested lands of the state, and ascertain if such lands are chiefly valuable for agriculture, or if they are chiefly valuable for timber growing, with a view to reforestation. The said wardens shall, under the direction of the forester, engage in the discovery of inflammable material, and cause, or assist in, the burning of such material at such times as the burning can be done without endangering adjacent timber, or other property. The said wardens, under the direction of the forester, shall prevent and detect trespass and illegal cutting upon state timber lands, and shall enforce the laws in respect to such trespass and illegal cutting.

The forester shall have power to temporarily suspend any warden or ranger who may be incompetent or unwilling to discharge properly the duties of his office, and to appoint his successor temporarily, until his action shall be passed upon by the board.

Each warden shall receive compensation not to exceed four dollars ($4) per day, and also necessary and proper expenses for the time actually employed.

The wardens shall make their headquarters at the county seat of the county which they represent, and be equipped with suitable office quarters in the county courthouse by the county commissioners.

The board of county commissioners of any county in which there has been no warden appointed, may request the forester to appoint a warden, and the forester may, if in his judgment the necessity exists, appoint, subject to the approval of the board, one or more wardens for each county.

The authority of the wardens respecting the prevention, suppression and control of forest fires, summoning, impressing or employing help, or making arrests for the violation of this act, may extend to any adjacent county, or to any part of the state in times of great fire danger.

The salaries and necessary expenses of all wardens, together with all expenses incurred for help and assistance in forest fire protection, shall be borne in the proportion of two-thirds by the state and one-third by the county in which the service was given and the expense incurred for forest fire protection.

All accounts of the wardens shall be submitted to the forester, as well as all bills for forest fire protection authorized by the wardens, and when such bills are approved and paid as provided for in section 5277–3, the amount of one-third of all such outlays in each county shall be due and payable on demand from each of said counties into the state treasury, and credited to the fund appropriated by this act.

All wardens and rangers shall render reports to the forester on such blanks or forms, or in such manner, and at such times as may be ordered, giving a summary of how employed, the area of country visited, expenses incurred, and such other information as may be called for by the forester. [L. '11, p. 627, § 5.]

§ 5277–6. Duties of Warden.—Each warden shall be at all times under the direction and control of the forester, and shall perform such other duties at such times and places as he may direct.

It shall be the duty of wardens to post over the forest areas notices of warning giving the date of the closed season as provided for in section 5277–8, and copies of all such laws and rules as they may be directed to post by the forester.

They shall investigate all fires and report all of a serious or threatening character to the forester immediately. They shall patrol their districts; visit all parts of roads and trails, and frequented places and camps as far as possible, warn campers or other users of fire, see that all locomotives are provided with spark-arresters, and with adequate devices for preventing the escape of fire or live coals from ash-pans and fire-boxes, in accordance with the law; extinguish small or smoldering fires; summon, impress or employ help to stop conflagrations; see that all laws for the protection of forests are enforced, and arrest and cause to be prosecuted all offenders. [L. '11, p. 628, § 6.]

§ 5277–7. Ex-officio Rangers — Compensation. — All state land cruisers, all game-wardens, when approved by the forester, and all rangers and assistant rangers of the United States forest service, when recommended by their forest supervisors, and commissiond by the forester, shall be ex-officio rangers.

Timber cruisers and citizens of the state advantageously located may, at the discretion of the forester, be appointed rangers, and vested with their duties and powers.

Rangers shall receive no compensation for their services except when employed in co-operation with the state under the provisions of this act, and shall not create any indebtedness, or incur any liability on behalf of the state: Provided, that rangers actually engaged in extinguishing, or preventing the spread of fire in brush, slashings, choppings, timber or elsewhere that may endanger timber or other property, shall when their accounts for such services have been approved by the fire-wardens in authority, be entitled to receive compensation for such services at the rate of twenty-five cents (25c) per hour. [L. '11, p. 629, § 7.]

§ 5277–8. Closed Season—Fires—Permits.—No one shall burn any forest material within any county in this state in which there is a warden or ranger during the months of June to September, inclusive, in each year, which period is hereby designated as the closed season, without first obtaining permission in writing from the forester, or a ranger, and afterward complying with the terms of said permit; and anyone violating any provisions contained in the preceding portions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty (30) days. Such permission for burning shall be given only upon compliance with such rules and regulations as the board prescribe, which shall be only such as the board deems necessary for the protection of life or property.

The forester, any of his assistants, any warden or ranger, may at his discretion, refuse, revoke or postpone the use of permits to burn when such act is clearly necessary for the safety of adjacent property. [L. '11, p. 629, § 8.]

§ 5277–9. Burning Material — Control — Penalty. — No one shall burn any forest material until all dry snags, stubs and dead trees over twenty-five (25) feet in height, within the area to be burned, shall have been cut down, and until such other work shall have been done in and around the slashing or chopping, to prevent the spread of fire therefrom, as shall be required to be done by the forester, or any warden or ranger.

When any person shall have obtained permission from the forester, or warden or ranger, to burn any slashings made for the purpose of clearing land, the warden may, at his discretion, furnish him with a man to supervise and control the burning, who shall represent and act for such warden, and shall have all the power and authority of a warden while engaged in such service, including the right to revoke such permit, if in his opinion the burning authorized would endanger any valuable timber or other property. Such man shall serve only until such time as the party burning may be able to keep the fire under control himself.

The forester and wardens are hereby authorized and empowered to employ a sufficient number of men to extinguish or prevent the spreading of any fires that may be in danger of destroying any valuable timber or other property in this state. The forester, or any warden by special authority of the forester, may provide needed tools and supplies, and transportation when necessary for men so employed.

Every man so employed, and also the representative of the warden supervising the burning, shall be entitled to compensation of twenty-five cents per hour for each hour's actual service; and the warden shall issue a certificate to each man so employed showing the number of hours worked by him and the amounts due to him, upon which, after approval by the forester, the man shall be entitled to receive payment from the state in the manner provided for in section 5277–3.

Any person refusing to render assistance when called upon by any warden, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100). [L. '11, p. 630, § 9.]

§ 5277–10. Suspension of Permits and Game Laws.—In times and localities of unusual fire danger, the governor, with the advice of the forester, may suspend any or all permits or privileges authorized by section 5277–8, and may prohibit absolutely the use of fire therein mentioned.

Whenever during an open season for the hunting of any kind of game within this state, it shall appear to the governor that by reason of extreme drought, the use of firearms or fire by hunters is liable to cause forest fires, he may by proclamation suspend the open season and make it a closed season for the shooting of wild birds or animals of any kind, for such time as he may designate, and during the time so designated all provisions of law relating to closed seasons for game shall be enforced. [L. '11, p. 631, § 10.]

§ 5277–11. Removing Notices—Penalty.—Any person who shall willfully or needlessly deface, or remove any warning placard or notice posted under the requirements of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty (30) days.

Any person who shall upon any land within this state, set and leave any fire that shall spread or damage or destroy property of any kind not his own, shall upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500). If such fire be set or left maliciously, whether on his own or on another's land, with intent to destroy property not his own, he shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month, nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and shall be liable for all damages in a civil suit.

During the closed season, any person who shall kindle a fire on land not his own, in or dangerously near any forest material and leave same unquenched, or who shall be a party thereto, or who shall by throwing away any lighted cigar, matches, or by use of firearms, or in any other manner, start a fire in forest material not his own, and leave same unquenched, shall upon conviction, be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding two (2) months. [L. '11, p. 631, § 11.]

§ 5277-12. Notice of Damage.—Any and all inadequately protected forests, or deforested land covered wholly or in part by any inflammable debris, or otherwise likely to further the spread of fire, which by reason of such location or condition, or lack of protection, endangers life or property, when adjoining, lying near, or intermingling with other forest land, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and whenever the forester shall learn thereof, he shall notify the owner, or person in control or possession of said land, advise him of means and methods that should be taken for its protection, and request him to take the proper steps to that end. [L. '11, p. 632, § 12.]

It shall be unlawful for anyone to destroy any wood-waste material by fire within any burner or destructor operated at or near any mill, and situated within one-quarter of one mile of any forest material, or to operate any power-producing plant using in connection therewith any smokestack, chimney, or other spark-emitting outlet, without installing and maintaining on such burner, or destructor, or on such smokestack, chimney or other spark-emitting outlet, a safe and suitable device for arresting sparks.

Anyone violating the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each and every violation, or by imprisonment of not less than thirty (30) days in the county jail. [L. '11, p. 632, § 13.]

§ 5277-14. Closed Season—Restrictions.—It shall be unlawful for anyone to operate any spark-emitting railroad locomotive, logging locomotive, or farming engine, or boiler, at any time during the closed season, or for anyone to operate any railroad locomotive, logging locomotive, or logging or farm engine or boiler, within one-quarter of one mile of any forest material during the closed season, without such railroad locomotive, logging locomotive, logging, or other engine or boiler is provided with and uses a safe and suitable device for arresting sparks.

It shall be unlawful for anyone to operate during the closed season any railroad locomotive, logging locomotive, or logging, or other engine or boiler, within one-quarter of one mile of any forest material, without such railroad locomotive, logging locomotive, or logging or other engine or boiler is provided with and uses an adequate device to prevent the escape of fire or live coals from all ash-pans, and all fire-boxes, except when said ash-pans and said fire-boxes are being cleaned when not in motion.

Everyone failing to comply with the provisions of this section, shall upon conviction pay a fine for each railroad locomotive, logging locomotive, or other engine or boiler, for each day so operated without such spark-arresting or without such adequate device to prevent the escape of fire or live coals from said ash-pans or said fire-boxes, of not less than ten dollars ($10), nor more than fifty dollars ($50) per day for each railroad locomotive, logging locomotive, or other engine or boiler so used, and shall be prohibited from further use of such railroad locomotive, logging locomotive, or other engine or boiler until such spark-arrester or such adequate device for preventing the escape of fire or live coals from said ash-pans and said fire-boxes, is provided and used therewith. [L. '11, p. 633, § 14.]

§ 5277–15. Anyone violating the provisions of this section respecting the deposit of fire or live coals, shall upon conviction pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25), nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty (30) days.

Wardens and rangers shall report any lack of sufficient spark-arresters, and any lack of adequate devices for preventing the escape of fire and live coals, as provided in this act, to the forester, and to the prosecuting attorney of their county, and the superior court of that county where suit is first instituted, shall have jurisdiction of the offense. § 5277–16. Closed Season—Prohibitions.—Everyone clearing right of way for railroad, wagon road, or other road, shall pile and burn on such right of way all refuse timber, slashings, choppings and brush cut thereon, as rapidly as the clearing or cutting progresses, and the weather conditions permit, or at such other times as the forester, or any of his assistants, or any warden may direct, and before doing so, shall obtain a permit.

During the closed season such burning shall not be required to be done, while the forester, any of his assistants, or any warden in authority shall refuse to issue a permit for such burning.

To what extent this and the next six sections are superseded by § 5423 et seq. may be questioned, there being no repealing clause in that act and no absolute conflict between any of the provisions of these sections; however, they are probably superseded.

§ 5417. Physicians, Accoucheurs, and Midwives must Register.—It shall be the duty of all physicians in this state to register their names and postoffice address with the county auditor of the county where they reside; and every physician shall, under penalty of ten dollars, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in the state, at suit of any member of any state or local board of health, report to the county auditor on or before the fifteenth day of every month, all births and deaths which may come under his or her supervision during the previous calendar month, with a certificate of the cause of death, and such correlative facts as the board may require, in the blank forms to be provided and furnished by the county auditor. '07, p. 145, § 1.]

See supra, § 5410, state commissioner of health to be secretary and registrar.

The last part of this section in brackets is probably superseded by § 5410, supra.

These sections, being a complete act on this subject, probably impliedly repeal all or most of the seven preceding sections.

The medical certificate of the cause of death shall be signed by the attending physician or midwife, if any, and shall state the cause of death as "stillborn," with the cause of the stillbirth, if known, and if born prematurely, the period of uterogestation in months, if known; and a burial or removal permit in usual form shall be required: Provided, that a certificate of birth or death shall not be required for a stillborn child that has not advanced beyond the seventh month of uterogestation. [L. '15, p. 638, § 5. Cf. L. '07, p. 149, § 7.]

§ 5430. He shall obtain the personal and statistical particulars required, from the person best qualified to supply them, over the signature and address of such person or state over his own signature that after careful inquiry he could not obtain such particulars. In case such deceased be a stranger whose identity cannot be determined it shall be the duty of the undertaker having such body in charge to have a photograph taken of such deceased and a copy of such photograph shall be filed with the secretary of the state board of health. He shall then present the certificate to the attending physician, if any, or in case the death occurred without any medical attendance, to the proper official for certification as hereinabove provided, for the medical certificate of the cause of death and other particulars necessary to complete the record as hereinabove provided. And he shall state the facts required relative to the date and place of burial, over his signature and with his address, and present the completed certificate to the local registrar, for the issuance of a burial or removal permit. The undertaker shall deliver the burial permit to the sexton, or person in charge of the place of burial, before interring the body; or shall attach the transit permit containing the local registrar's removal permit, to the box containing the corpse, when shipped by any transportation company, and said permit shall accompany the corpse to its destination, provided that when a body is removed from one registration district in Washington to another for interment, cremation or other permanent disposition not requiring the use of a common carrier or the issuance of a transit permit, the registrar's removal permit from the district where the death occurred may be accepted as authority for burial in the other district. It shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation selling a casket to keep a record showing the name and postoffice address of the purchaser, the name of the deceased and the date and place of death of the deceased, which record shall be open to inspection of the state registrar at all times, and it shall be the duty of every person, firm. or corporation selling caskets to, on the first day of each month, report to the state registrar each sale for the preceding month, on a blank provided for that purpose: Provided, however, that no person. firm, or corporation selling caskets to dealers or undertakers only shall be required to keep such record. It shall be the duty of every person, firm, or corporation selling a casket at retail, and not having charge of the disposition of the body, to inclose within the casket a notice furnished by the state registrar calling attention to the requirements of the law, a blank certificate of death, and a copy of the rules and regulations of the state board of health concerning the burial or other disposition of dead bodies. [L. '15, p. 639, § 6. Cf. L. '07, p. 149, § 8.]

§ 5431. Requisites of Burial Permit.—If the interment, or other disposition of the body, is to be made within the state, the wording of the burial permit may be limited to a statement by the local registrar and over his signature, that a satisfactory certificate of death having been filed with him, as required by law, permission is granted to inter, remove or otherwise dispose of the deceased; stating the name, age, sex, cause of death, and other necessary details upon the form prescribed by the state registrar. [L. '07, p. 150, § 9.]

§ 5432. Burial Grounds—Duties of Sexton.—It shall be unlawful for any person in charge of any premises in which bodies of deceased persons are interred, cremated or otherwise permanently disposed of, to permit the interment, cremation or other disposition of any body upon such premises unless it is accompanied by a burial, removal or transit permit as hereinabove provided. It shall be the duty of the person in charge of any such premises to, in case of the interment, cremation or other disposition of a body therein, indorse upon the permit the date and character of such disposition, over his signature, to return all permits so indorsed to the local registrar of his district within ten days from the date of such disposition, and to keep a record of all bodies disposed of on the premises under his charge, stating, in each case, the name of the deceased person, if known, the place of death, the date of burial or other disposition, and the name and address of the undertaker, which record shall at all times be open to public inspection, and it shall be the duty of every undertaker, or person acting as such, when burying a body in a cemetery or burial grounds having no person in charge, to sign the burial, removal or transit permit, giving the date of burial, write across the face of the permit the words "no person in charge," and file the burial, removal or transit permit within ten days with the registrar of the district in which the cemetery is located. It shall then, in such case, be the duty of the local registrar to secure the necessary information and signature to make a proper certificate of birth. [L. '07, p. 150, § 12.]

§ 5435. Contents of Certificate.—The certificate of birth shall contain the following items:

(1) Place of birth, including state, county, township or town, village or city. If the child dies without a name, before the certificate is filed enter the words "died unnamed." If the living child has not been named at the date of filing certificate of birth, the space for "full name of child" is to be left blank, to be filled out subsequently by a supplemental report, as hereinafter provided. § 5436. Names of Children Supplied.—It shall be the duty of every local registrar when any certificate of birth of a living child is presented without statement of the given name, to make out and deliver to the parents of such child a special blank for the supplemental report of the given name of the child, which shall be filled out as directed and returned to the registrar as soon as the child has been named. [L. '15, p. 641, § 8. Cf. L. '07, p. 151, § 14.]

§ 5437. Registration of Physicians, Midwives and Undertakers.—Every physician, midwife and undertaker shall, without delay, register his or her name, address and occupation with the local registrar of the district in which he or she resides or may hereafter establish a residence; and shall thereupon be supplied by the local registrar with a copy of this act, together with such rules and regulations as may be prepared by the state registrar relative to its enforcement. Within thirty days after October 1st of each year each local registrar shall make a return to the state registrar of all physicians and midwives who have been registered in his district during the whole or any part of the preceding calendar year: Provided, that no fee or other compensation shall be charged by local registrars to physicians, midwives, or undertakers for registering their names under this section or making returns thereof to the state registrar. And in case of persons admitted or committed for medical treatment of contagious disease, the physician in charge shall specify, for entry in the record, the nature of the disease, and where, in his opinion, it was contracted. The personal particulars and information re-

§ 5439. Duties of State Registrar.—That the state registrar shall prepare, print and supply to all registrars all blanks and forms used in registering, recording and preserving the returns, or in otherwise carrying out the purposes of this act; and shall prepare and issue such detailed instructions as may be required to secure the uniform observance of its provisions and the maintenance of a perfect system of registration. And no other blanks shall be used than those supplied by the state registrar. He shall carefully examine the certificates received monthly from the local registrars, and if any such are incomplete or unsatisfactory, he shall require such further information to be furnished as may be necessary to make the record complete and satisfactory, and shall cause such further information to be attached to and filed with the certificate. He shall furnish, arrange, bind and permanently preserve the certificates in a systematic manner, and shall prepare and maintain a comprehensive and continuous card index of all births and deaths registered; the cards to show the name of the child or deceased, place and date of birth or death, number of certificate, and the volume in which it is contained. He shall inform all local registrars of the diseases which are to be considered as infectious to the public health, as decided by the state board of health, in order that, when death occurs from such diseases, proper precautions may be taken to prevent the spreading of dangerous diseases. If any cemetery company or association, or any church or historical society or association, or any other company, society, or association, or any individual, is in possession of any record of births or deaths which may be of value in establishing the genealogy of any resident of this state, such company, society, association, or individual may file such record or a duly authenticated transcript thereof with the state registrar, and it shall be the duty of the state registrar to preserve such record or transcript and to make a record and index thereof in such form as to facilitate the finding of any information contained therein. Such record and index shall be open to inspection by the public, subject to such reasonable conditions as the state registrar may prescribe. If any person desires a transcript of any record filed in accordance herewith, the state registrar shall furnish the same upon application, together with a certificate that it is a true copy of such record, as filed in his office, and for his services in so furnishing such transcript and certificate he shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents per hour or fraction of an hour necessarily consumed in making such transcript, which fee shall be paid by the applicant. [L. '15, p. 641, § 9. Cf. L. '07, p. 153, § 17.]

§ 5440. Duties of Local Registrar.—It shall be the duty of the local registrar to supply blank forms of certificates to such persons as require them. And he shall carefully examine each certificate of birth or death when presented for record, to see that it has been made out in accordance with the provisions of this act and the instructions of the state registrar; and if any certificate of death is incomplete or unsatisfactory, it shall be his duty to call attention to the defects in the return, and to withhold issuing the burial or removal permit until they are corrected. If the certificate of death is properly executed and complete, he shall issue a burial or removal permit to the undertaker: Provided, that in case the death occurred from some disease that is held by the state board of health to be infectious, contagious, or communicable and dangerous to the public health, no permit for the removal or other disposition of the body shall be granted by the local registrar, except under such conditions as may be prescribed by the state and local boards of health. If a certificate of a birth is incomplete, he shall immediately notify the informant, and require him to supply the missing items if they can be obtained. He shall then number consecutively the certificates of birth and death, in two separate series, beginning with "number one" for the first birth and the first death in each calendar year, and sign his name as local registrar in attest of the date of filing in his office. He shall also make a complete and accurate copy of each birth and death certificate registered by him, upon a form identical with the original certificate, to be filed and permanently preserved in his office as the local record of such death, in such manner as directed by the state registrar. And he shall on or before the fifth day of each month, transmit to the state registrar all original certificates registered by him during the preceding month. And if no births or no deaths occurred in any month, he shall, on the fifth day of the following month, report that fact to the state registrar, on a card provided for this purpose: Provided, that in cities of the first class, original certificates may be retained by the local health authorities, and exact duplicates of the original certificates may be forwarded by the local registrars to the state registrar. [L. '07, p. 153, § 18.]

§ 5441. Compensation of Local Registrars.—That each local registrar shall be paid the sum of twenty-five cents for each birth or death certificate properly and completely made out and registered with him and by him returned to the state registrar on or before the tenth day of the following month, which sum shall cover and include the making out of the burial permit and copy of the certificate to be filed and preserved in his office. And, in case no births or deaths were registered during any month, the local registrar shall be paid the sum of twenty-five cents for each report to that effect, properly made out in accordance with the directions of the state registrar: Provided, that all local registrars who receive regular compensation as health officers shall not be entitled to the fee of twenty-five cents, above mentioned, but the duties of the local registrar shall be considered as a part of their duty as local health officer. All fees payable to local registrars under the provisions of this act shall be paid by the treasurer of the county, or city, as the case may be, properly chargeable therewith, out of the funds of such county or city, upon warrants drawn by the auditor, or other proper officer of such county or city. No warrant shall be issued to any local registrar except upon a certificate, signed and verified under oath by the state registrar, stating the names and postoffice address respectively of the local registrars entitled to fees from such county or city, and the number of certificates and reports of births or deaths, properly returned to the state registrar, by each such local registrar, during the three preceding calendar months prior to the date of such certificate, and the amount of fees to which each local registrar is entitled, which certificate the state registrar shall file with the proper officers during the months of January, April, July and October of each year. Upon the filing of such certificates, it shall be the duty of the auditor or other proper officer of the county or city to issue warrants for the amount due each local registrar and mail the same to the local registrars at their respective postoffice addresses, as given in such certificate of the state registrar. [L. '15, p. 643, § 10. Cf. L. '07, p. 154, § 19.]

§ 5442. Certified Copies of Records and Searches, Fees for.—It shall be the duty of the state registrar to, upon request, furnish any applicant with a certified copy of the record of any birth or death, registered under the provisions of this act, for the making and certification of which he shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents to be paid by the applicant. For any search of the files and the records when no certified copy is made, the state registrar shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents for each hour or fractional part of an hour employed in such search, to be paid by the applicant. But the state registrar and all local registrars shall furnish upon application certificates of the age of children to be used in attending the public schools or in obtaining employment permits without fee or compensation. The state registrar shall keep a true and correct account of all fees received by him under the provisions of this act, and turn the same over to the state treasurer on the first day of January, April, July and October. Local registrars in cities of the first, second and third class shall be entitled to charge for certified copies of records of births and deaths and for searching of records when no certified copy is made, the same fee as hereinabove provided for the state registrar, but such fees, if any collected, shall be paid into the treasury of the city where collected. [L. '15, p. 644, § 11. Cf. L. '07, p. 155, § 20.]

§ 5444. Enforcement of Act—Who Charged With.—The local registrars are hereby charged with the strict and thorough enforcement of the provisions of this act in their districts, under the supervision and direction of the state registrar. And they shall make an immediate report to the state registrar of any violations of this law coming to their notice by observation or upon the complaint of any person, or otherwise. The state registrar is hereby charged with the thorough and efficient execution of the provisions of this act in every part of the state, and with supervisory power over local registrars, to the end that all of the requirements shall be uniformly complied with. He shall have authority to investigate cases of irregularity or violation of law, personally or by accredited representative, and all local registrars shall aid him, upon request, in such investigation. When he shall deem it necessary he shall report cases of violation of any of the provisions of this act to the prosecuting attorney of the proper county with a statement of the fact and circumstances; and when any such case is reported to them by the state registrar, all prosecuting attorneys or officials acting in such capacity shall forthwith initiate and promptly follow up the necessary court proceedings against the parties responsible for the alleged violations of law. And upon request of the state registrar the attorney general shall likewise assist in the enforcement of the provisions of this act. [L. '07, p. 157, § 22.]

Any milk or cream from the same that has been exposed to or contaminated by emanations, discharges or exhalations from persons or animals, or to which has been added any borax, boracic acid, salycillic [salicylic] acid, or any other poisonous substance which prevents or tends to prevent the normal bacterial actions of milk, is hereby declared to be impure and unwholesome. It shall be unlawful to use or permit such stencil brand to be used upon any other than full cream cheese or packages containing the same, and such cheese only as shall contain thirty per centum of pure butter fat and have been manufactured from pure and wholesome milk, from which no portion of the butter fat shall have been removed by skimming or by other process, and in the manufacture of which neither butter nor any substance for butter, or any animal or vegetable fats or oils, have been used, or any fat which has been extracted from milk in any form and returned for the purpose of filling said cheese, shall be stamped with the "state brand." All cheese containing less than thirty per centum of pure butter fat shall be marked "skimmed cheese" in full face capital letters not less than one inch high, with such ink as is not easily removed by moisture. The manufacture or sale of any cheese containing less than fifteen per centum of pure butter fat, or so-called "filled cheese," is hereby prohibited: Provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to Edam, Brickstein, Pineapple, Limburger, Swiss or hand-made cheese, or any other fancy cheese: Provided further, that cheese not made in this state, but which shall be sold or offered for sale in this state, shall be so stamped as to indicate its true character: And provided further, that no cheese shall be stamped navigable river, stream or body of water which constitutes or forms the boundary line of this state, or any county therein, jointly with any state or county of an adjoining state, the county commissioners of the county of this state which has joined in the construction or has the control over any such interstate bridge with any adjoining county or state, shall have the power and authority to act concurrently and jointly with any such adjoining county or state which has joined in the construction or which under the laws of such adjoining state has the control and operation of the same, and which has power under the laws of such adjoining state to act in conjunction with the county commissioners of any county in this state, to grant franchises to any company or corporation for the laying of rails on such interstate bridge and for the operation of electric, street and suburban railways and all other public utilities except steam railroads, and for laying thereon and suspending therefrom pipes for the carrying of water, gas and other substances and wires and cables for the conducting of electricity for telegraph, telephone, lighting, heating, power and other purposes; Provided, that no franchise except such as contain adequate common user provisions shall be granted or given any person, firm or corporation for any use or purpose, but such interstate bridge shall be for common use for all municipalities, public service corporations, or individuals upon such terms as may be prescribed. CHAPTER XIV.

The resolution need not set forth the manner of construction, the cost, nor describe the several tracts or parcels of land through which the same shall run. The resolution shall declare that the laying out and establishment of the road is considered a public necessity and shall direct the county engineer to make an examination of the proposed route of said road as hereinafter provided. [L. '11, p. 305, § 2.]

Turnpike Roads.

§ 5687. Power and Discretion of Commissioners to Appoint Viewers, etc.—The county commissioners of any county, when they become satisfied that the public interests of their county demand and justify special action for the improvement of the roads therein, may appoint three disinterested freeholders of their county as commissioners, to view, survey, and locate one or more roads, beginning at and leading from the county seat of the county, or such other and eligible points as may be deemed proper, and running by such direct and eligible route as they find best for the public convenience, and terminating at any point within or at the county line; but they are not authorized or required to construct or maintain any such road within the corporate limits of the town or city where the county seat is located, when, according to the last federal census, more than one thousand inhabitants are contained in such corporate limits. [Cf. L. '54, pp. 361, 362; L. '60, p. 328; L. '63, p. 530; L. '90, p. 612, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2032.]

§ 5688. Roads, How to be Constructed.—The roads established and constructed under this chapter shall be opened not more than sixty nor less than forty feet wide, and at least sixteen feet in width shall be turnpiked with earth so as to drain freely to the sides, and raised with stone or gravel not less than ten nor more than sixteen feet in width, nor less than twelve inches thick in the center, and not less than eight inches at the outer edges of such bed of stone or gravel, well compacted, in such manner as to secure a firm, even, and substantial road; but the commissioners may, in their discretion, cause the road to be constructed wholly of earth, plank, or timber, when stone or gravel is not accessible to the line of the road; in no case shall the grade of ascent or descent on the road be greater than seven degrees; the road shall be well provided with all necessary side drains, wasteways, and under-draining to prevent overflowing or washing by water, and with substantial bridges or culverts at all crossings of watercourses; and such roads shall be free to the public for travel. [L. '90, p. 612, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2033.]

§ 5689. Right of Way may be Secured, How.—The county commissioners may authorize the commissioners by them appointed to call to their assistance a competent surveyor or civil engineer, or both, at their discretion, with the necessary and proper assistance, and lay out, survey, and locate such turnpike road through or upon improved or unimproved lands on the best route between the points of beginning and termination, and to obtain by grant or take propositions for the purchase from the owners of land over which the road will pass, the right of way, and to take timber and other materials necessary to the construction and repair of the same. [L. '90, p. 613, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2034.]

§ 5690. Condemnation Proceedings to Secure Right of Way.—When said commissioners and the owners fail to agree as to the amount of compensation, or when the owner is unknown, nonresident, or incapable of contracting, then the same shall be ascertained and adjusted by proceedings had in the name of the county commissioners, under the law providing for the appropriation of private property by [municipal] corporations; and the commissioners may authorize the viewers or commissioners by them appointed to locate the road upon the whole or any part of any state or county road heretofore laid out and established within the county, and to widen, alter, change, or vacate the same, or any part thereof, subject to the rules as to compensation for property appropriated as aforesaid. [L. '90, p. 613, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2035.]

§ 5691. Donation, etc., may be Required by Commissioners—Separate Fund.—Before determining upon the location or establishment of any such turnpike road, the county commissioners may require donations of money and written agreements on the part of taxpayers of the county, subjecting their taxable property to taxation annually, to aid in the location and construction of the same during the term of years named, therein specified, which agreements shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk, and from the time of such filing and recording shall operate as a lien upon the real estate of the several parties joining therein as donors for the purpose therein provided. All revenues derived from donations in money and taxation shall be kept and held as a separate fund in the county treasury, and shall be applicable only to the purposes of locating and constructing such turnpike roads; and if the commissioners determine not to establish and construct such road, then any money received as donations by taxation shall be returned. [L. '90, p. 613, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2036.]

§ 5692. Restrictions upon Commissioners as to Levy of General Tax, etc.—The county commissioners shall not levy any general tax nor appropriate any money, except so far as may be necessary to pay the expense of preliminary surveys already commenced, or any other liabilities already incurred, to be expended in the construction of such turnpikes, without first submitting to the qualified voters of the county the question as to the policy of constructing such roads by general tax, which submission shall be made at any general election; and the county commissioners shall cause public notice of such vote to be given by publication in the official paper of the county, and also by causing handbills to be posted up at the usual place of holding elections in the county, at least fifteen days prior to such election. [L. '90, p. 614, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2037.]

§ 5693. Election and Returns, Law Governing—Compensation.—The judges of such election in the several precincts and wards in any county in which such question is submitted and such notice is given, as aforesaid, shall open a poll for taking such vote, receive and count the ballots cast, and within three days thereafter return to the clerk of the board of county commissioners a full and correct abstract of the votes, and shall in all respects be governed by the laws regulating general elections, and be entitled to the same compensation for returning the poll-books, which shall be paid out of the county treasury on the order of the clerk of the board. And the poll-books so returned shall, within five days of the day of holding such election, be opened and the votes counted by the commissioners and the clerk of the board, and a correct statement of the result shall be kept by the clerk on file in his office for public inspection. [L. '90, p. 614, § 7; 1 H. C., § 2038.]

§ 5694. Commissioners may Resubmit Question, When.—If at such election two-fifths of the votes so cast be against the policy of constructing such turnpikes, the commissioners shall not assess any tax for that purpose, but they may, on petition of not less than one hundred taxpayers of the county, again submit the same question, at any regular annual election, to the qualified voters of the county, notice of which shall be given and the election conducted in all respects in the manner prescribed in the two preceding sections. [L. '90, p. 614, § 8; 1 H. C., § 2039.]

§ 5695. Taxes may be Levied and Bonds Issued for Construction, When.—If at any election three-fifths be found in favor of the construction of such turnpikes, the commissioners may proceed to levy taxes, issue bonds, and appropriate and expend money in the construction of such turnpike roads as, in their judgment, may be necessary to the public convenience and promotive of the public interest. [L. '90, p. 615, § 9; 1 H. C., § 2040.]

§ 5696. Amount of Donations, etc., may be Levied, When and How.—When the county commissioners receive or require donations of money, or written agreements on the part of taxpayers, subjecting their taxable property to taxation annually, to aid in the location and construction of such roads, and a majority of the taxpayers within the boundaries of the road sign such subscription or agreement, the commissioners shall thereupon be authorized to levy the amount thereof upon the taxable property within the boundaries of the road, according to the benefits to said property, taking into consideration any assessments that have heretofore been made; and the boundaries of the road shall not be taken to include any property that does not lie within two miles of such contemplated improvement. [L. '90, p. 615, § 10; 1 H. C., § 2041.]

§ 5697. Levy of Tax to Provide Permanent Fund for Road Purposes.—Upon the location and establishment of any such turnpike road by the county commissioners, and after an affirmative vote by the qualified voters, they may, for the purpose of aiding in the construction, and to provide a permanent fund for the maintenance and expense thereof, levy annually, in addition to other road taxes authorized by law, a tax for turnpike road purposes, of not more than four mills on the dollar of valuation on the taxable property in the county, and to continue such levy from year to year until the road or roads which have been commenced are completed. [L. '90, p. 615, § 11; 1 H. C., § 2042.]

§ 5698. Commissioners may Issue County Bonds for Building Roads.—No such taxes shall be levied on any lands which have heretofore been assessed for the construction of any free turnpikes or improved road or roads already constructed, or in course of construction at the time of the levy of the tax, unless the amount of such assessment, and in such case such excess only shall be levied and collected; and for the purpose of raising the money necessary to meet the expenses of such improvement, the county commissioners may, if in their opinion the same be advisable, submit to the qualified voters of the county, at any general election, the question whether the county commissioners shall be authorized to issue bonds of the county for the purpose of building roads in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and if three-fifths of the legal votes cast be in favor of the issue of such bonds, then the county commissioners may issue the bonds of the county, payable at such times as they deem advisable, not exceeding twenty years, with interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and which bonds shall not be sold for less than their par value. [L. '90, p. 615, § 12; 1 H. C., § 2043.]

§ 5699. Records of Road Matters to be Kept, and What to Contain.—The county commissioners shall cause to be kept by the clerk of the board a full record of all the proceedings in the location, establishment, and construction of the road, together with accurate accounts of receipts and expenditures of money, under the provisions of this chapter, and no money shall be drawn from the treasury except to pay liabilities already accrued, and then only in pursuance of orders caused by the commissioners whilst in session as a board, to be entered upon the record of their proceedings, and by orders drawn by their clerk upon the county treasury in favor of the persons to whom such money is due. [L. '90, p. 616, § 13; 1 H. C., § 2044.]

§ 5700. Road Construction Work, How to be Let—Notice, etc.—The work of the construction of such roads shall be let publicly by the county commissioners to the lowest responsible bidder, after due notice given of such letting by publication in one or more newspapers published or of general circulation in the county, or by handbills, or both; for that purpose the commissioners shall cause the same to be divided into convenient sections, and each section numbered from the county seat or other point named as the place of beginning, toward the termination, and shall let the same by sections, with proper specifications of the various kinds of labor required on each section; and bidders shall be required to separately state their bids for each class of work, in such manner as the commissioners shall provide, and each contractor shall be required to give bond, with sufficient sureties, for the performance of his contract, payable to the county commissioners, for the use and benefit of the county, and with the necessary specifications and stipulations on the part of the contractor inserted therein. [L. '90, p. 616, § 14; 1 H. C., § 2045.]

§ 5701. Payment for Work or Material, How to be Made.—In all cases the construction of such roads shall commence at the point of beginning, and no payment for work or material shall be made except upon estimates made by the surveyor or engineer employed by the commissioners, and by him duly certified, of work actually done or material actually furnished, or both, and after reserving such per cent as may be fixed by the parties to the contract, to guarantee performance of the same. [L. '90, p. 616, § 15; 1 H. C., § 2046.]

§ 5702. Compensation for Services of Viewers and Surveyor.—The viewers, surveyor, or engineer, and their assistants, shall be entitled to receive the same compensation for their services required under the provisions of this chapter as is now allowed by law in the construction of state or county roads. [L. '90, p. 617, § 16; 1 H. C., § 2047.]

§ 5703. County Commissioners may Lease Public Roads.—Whenever a public road in any county in this state is or may hereafter be so located that there is little or no local labor along the line of said road, the board of county commissioners of the county where such road or any portion of the same is or may hereafter be located is authorized to lease such road or any portion of the same, to any person or corporation, to open, improve, and keep the same in repair for a period not exceeding ten years, with the right in consideration thereof to collect and receive tolls for travel thereon, in the manner provided in this chapter. Notice of Intention to Lease Road to be Published.—Whenever it becomes expedient and lawful, under the provisions of this chapter, to lease a public road, or any specific section thereof, the board of county commissioners shall make an order to that effect, specifying therein the termini thereof, and directing the county auditor to cause the same to be published in some weekly newspaper of general circulation therein, for a period not less than four weeks, and in like manner to give notice therewith that sealed bids will be received at such auditor's office, for the leasing of such road until a particular hour of a certain day thereafter not more than ten days after the expiration of the publication of such order or notice. Before entering upon their duties, the appraisers shall severally take and subscribe to an oath to impartially and, to the best of their knowledge and ability, perform the duties required of them, and file said oath with the clerk of the board of county commissioners. Said clerk shall thereupon and forthwith deliver into the hands of the appraisers the engineer's report upon the proposed improvement, and all maps, charts and schedules pertaining thereto, taking a receipt from said appraisers therefor. The appraisers shall thereupon proceed to actually view in person all lands as shall appear from the engineer's report to lie within the improvement boundary, and obtain from the duplicate assessment-roll of the county the total assessed valuation at the time of all property within the limits of any road district or township through or into which the proposed improvement is located, and of all property within the limits of any incorporated city whose boundary lines shall be within ten miles of the proposed improvement, or of any part thereof. They shall then prepare a schedule, which shall set forth,—

1. The benefits assessed to the county for such improvement, which shall be one-third of the whole estimated cost thereof;

2. The benefits assessed to each road district or township through or into which the improvement is located, which assessment shall be equal upon all the assessed property in the road district or township according to the value thereof as shall appear upon the duplicate assessment-roll of the county at the time, and which benefits shall not be assessed at more than one-third of the whole estimated cost of the improvement within the boundary of the road district or township;

3. The benefits assessed to all property within each incorporated city within the county, which assessment shall be equal upon all the assessed property within the city according to the value thereof as shall appear upon the duplicate county assessment-roll at the time, and which benefits shall not be assessed at more than one-sixth of the whole estimated cost of the improvements, or of that portion thereof which is located within a limit of ten miles from the corporate limits of the city, and the property within any city shall not be considered as territory particularly benefited for any improvement lying more than ten miles distant from the corporate boundary of said city;

4. The benefits assessed to the lots and lands lying within the proposed improvement boundary, listing each tract of land assessed, giving the number of acres thereof, the owner as shall appear of record, the estimated valuation of each tract exclusive of improvements, and the benefit assessed thereto, and the total amount of benefits assessed to lots and lands shall in no case exceed one-third of the whole estimated cost of the proposed improvement: Provided, that lots or tracts of land within the improvement boundary whose natural outlet will not be in whole or in part over said road, when improved, shall not be separately assessed under the provisions of this clause;

5. A list of each tract or lot or portion thereof taken and damaged by the establishment or relocation of the road proposed to be improved and the lands contiguous or lying near thereto on which is located material necessary or available to be used in the construction of the proposed improvement, and of materials available for construction on contiguous or near lying lands, which list shall recite the number of acres of each of such lands so to be taken or damaged, and the amount of such contiguous or near lying materials estimated to be required, the owner thereof as shall appear of record, the estimated value thereof including improvements thereon, and the damages resulting therefrom, and the award made therefor. [L. '93, p. 305, § 13.]

§ 5740. Appraisers to File Report—Notice to Owners.—The appraisers shall, within sixty days after date of entering upon their duties, file a report of their findings, together with the engineer's report and all other papers to them delivered, with the clerk of the board of county commissioners; and the appraisers shall make and file with their report an itemized bill of all costs made in the proper discharge of their duties under this chapter; and in such bill the appraisers shall not charge for services in excess of three dollars per day for each appraiser for time actually employed, and no extra compensation shall be allowed for mileage; the clerk shall then without delay fix a date for the hearing of the reports of the engineer and appraisers; he shall prepare and deliver to the petitioners, or any one of them, a notice in writing, directed to the resident lot or land owners, officer or agent [of] any private corporation, and to the mayor or clerk of each city, and to the road overseer of each road district or board of overseers or clerk of each township affected by the improvement, setting forth the pendency, substance and prayer of the petition, together with a tabular statement of the assessments and award[s] of damages as made by the appraisers in their report; a copy of each notice shall be served upon each lot or land owner, officer or agent of private corporations, mayor or clerk of each city, each road district overseer, and the board of overseers or clerk of each township at least ten days before the day set for the hearing; and the person who serves the same shall make return on the notice under oath, of the time and manner of service, and file the same with the clerk of the board of county commissioners on or before the day set for hearing; and the clerk shall at the same time give like notice to each nonresident lot or land owner, or by publication in the official newspaper of the county for at least two consecutive weeks before the day set for the hearing, which notice shall be verified by the affidavit of the printer or other person knowing the fact and filed with the clerk on or before that day. [L. '93, p. 307, § 14.]

§ 5741. Commissioners to Examine Assessment.—The county commissioners shall meet at the clerk's office on the day so fixed by the clerk, and shall first determine whether the required notice has been given. If they find that due notice has not been given, they shall continue the hearing to a day to be fixed by them, and order the notices to be served as hereinbefore provided, and when they find that due notice has been given, they shall examine the reports of the appraisers and the assessment made and the damages awarded, and if such apportionments are in all respects fair and just according to the benefits and damages, they shall approve and confirm the same. [L, '93, p. 308, § 15.]

§ 5742. May Amend Appraisers' Report—Proceedings. — If the commissioners find that the apportionment of assessments and awards of damages made by the appraisers is unfair and unjust, and ought not to be confirmed, they shall so order and amend the appraisers' report as to make it fair and just; and if necessary, in their opinion, they may adjourn the further hearing not exceeding twenty days, to a day to be fixed by them, and go upon the premises, and by actual view apportion the entire cost of location and construction, or any part thereof, as may seem just and proper and award damages as may seem just and proper, and on the day so fixed by them they shall again meet at the clerk's office and determine the assessment of benefits and awards of damages. [L. '93, p. 308, § 16.]

§ 5743. Who may File Exceptions to Apportionment.—Any person, company or corporation party to the proceedings may file exceptions to the apportionment of benefits or compensation for damages at any time before the time set for the final hearing of the report and apportionment; the commissioners may hear testimony and examine witnesses upon all questions made by the exceptions, and for that purpose may compel the attendance of witness by subpoena, which the clerk of the superior court shall issue on demand; and their decisions on the exceptions shall be entered on the journal, and if they sustain the exceptions, the cost of hearing thereon shall be paid out of the county treasury, and if they overrule the same, such costs shall be taxed against the person, company or corporation filing the exceptions. [L. '93, p. 309, § 17.]

§ 5744. Appeal. — Any person or corporation aggrieved thereby may appeal from any final order or judgment of the commissioners, made in the proceedings and entered upon their journal for determining either of the following matters:—

First: Whether said improved road will be conducive to the public needs, convenience and welfare;

Second: Whether the route thereof is practicable;

Third: The compensation for land or construction materials appropriated;

Fourth: The damages awarded to the owners of property affected by the improvement.

And the appellant shall file with the commissioners, at the final hearing before them, a notice in writing of his intention so to do, and specifying therein the matter appealed from. The commissioners shall fix the amount of the bond to be given by the appellant, and cause an entry thereof and of the notice to be made upon their journal. The party appealing shall, within ten days thereafter, file with the clerk a bond in the amount so fixed, with at least two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk, conditioned to pay all the costs made on the appeal in case the appellant fails to sustain the same, or the appeal to be dismissed for any cause; and the clerk shall make a complete transcript of the proceedings had before the commissioners, and certify the same, together with all original papers, except bonds filed by appellant, filed in his office, and transmit them to the superior judge of the county within twenty days from the day of the final hearing. [L. '93, p. 309, § 18.]

§ 5745. Superior Judge to Fix a Day, etc., for Hearing.—The superior judge shall file the transcript and original papers, and docket the case, styling the appellant plaintiff, and the county commissioners and petitioners defendants, and thereupon he shall fix a day, not exceeding five days thereafter, for the hearing of all preliminary motions and the examination of the papers so filed; on the day so fixed all preliminary motions shall be heard and determined, as well as all questions arising upon the record, and if he find that the proceedings are irregular in substance, or that the appeal has not been perfected according to law, he shall dismiss the appeal at the cost of the appellant, and certify such dismissal, with his findings thereon, back to the commissioners; but the judge may, in his discretion, order and allow the correction of any technical defect, error, or omission in such proceedings. [L. '93, p. 310, § 19.]

§ 5746. Appeals.—Appeals may be tried as in cases of appeals from justices of the peace to the superior court. [L. '93, p. 310, § 20.]

§ 5747. Jurors' Oath.—The superior court shall administer to the jurors an oath, faithfully, impartially, and to the best of their ability, and from actual view of the premises along the whole route of the improvements, to examine and determine the particular matters appealed from, and to render a true verdict according to the facts appearing to them from actual view of the premises, and the evidence under the charge of the court. [L. '93, p. 310, § 21.]

§ 5748. Who may or may not Accompany the Jury.—The sheriff or his deputy, together with the engineer who surveyed, leveled, apportioned and platted the improvement, may accompany the jury and point out its route; no other person shall be permitted to interfere in any way with the jurors in the discharge of their duties, and after the jury has fully examined the premises and returned to court, either party may be heard in person or by counsel, and may offer evidence to the jury, under the directions of the court, upon any matter given it especially in charge. [L. '93, p. 310, § 22.]

§ 5749. Verdict.—The jury shall find and return a verdict determining the matter or matters appealed from, being one or more of the following propositions, viz.:—

First: Whether said improved road will be conducive to the public needs, convenience or welfare;

Second: Whether the route thereof is practicable;

Third: The compensation due each appellant for land or construction materials appropriated;

Fourth: The damage due each appellant for property affected by the improvement.

The jury shall return their verdict in writing, signed by the jurors. As to said proposition, it shall be necessary for only nine jurors to agree. [L. '93, p. 311, § 23.]

§ 5750. Return of Verdict—Records to be Forwarded.—Upon the return of the verdict the same shall be recorded, and together with all papers and records, duly certified, forwarded to the office of the clerk of the board of county commissioners. [L. '93, p. 311, § 24.]

§ 5751. Costs.—If the verdict of the jury be in favor of the appellant the commissioners shall cause to be made on their journal an entry carrying out the findings of the jury; and if the jury find that the improvement is not necessary, or will not be conducive to the public need, convenience or welfare, or is not practicable, the commissioners shall cause an entry to be made upon the journal dismissing the proceedings at the cost of the county, which shall be paid out of the general county fund on the order of the county commissioners. [L. '93, p. 311, § 25.]

§ 5752. Improvement.—If the jury find that the improvement is necessary and that the same will be conducive to the public needs, convenience and welfare, and is practicable, the commissioners shall assess the costs to the appellant. [L. '93, p. 311, § 26.]

§ 5753. Damages.—If the jury find that the allowance of compensation and damages, as made by the commissioners, fully compensate for all land and construction materials appropriated and damages sustained, the commissioners shall assess the cost made by the appeal to the appellant. [L. '93, p. 311, § 27.]

§ 5754. Cases Consolidated, When.—If more than one party appeal, the superior judge may order the cases to be consolidated and tried together, and the rights of each party as to compensation and damages shall be separately determined by the jury in its verdict. [L. '93, p. 311, § 28.]

§ 5755. Bids for Construction — Notice for Awards, etc.—After the transcript of the proceedings before the superior judge, and all other papers in the case, are returned to the clerk of the board of county commissioners, the commissioners shall cause such entry to be made on their journal as may be necessary to give effect to the verdict and findings of the jury, and shall fix a time for the receiving and opening of sealed bids for the construction of the proposed improvement, and if in the opinion of the board of county commissioners the interest[s] of the public will be advanced thereby, they shall divide the improvement into sections of a more or less number of lineal feet, and call for bids on each of said sections, or they may call for bids for each kind of work to be done or material to be furnished, or any one or more of such kinds of labor and material as they may believe to be advisable, but in every case all of the construction shall be performed by contract, duly awarded, as provided in this section. They shall cause notice to be given, as hereinafter provided, of the time and place of awarding contracts, and direct the board of construction and the engineer who made the survey and estimates, or other competent engineer, to attend at the time and place of opening bids. The board of construction shall superintend and conduct the same, receive all bids for the construction of the improvement, and enter into agreements in the name of the county. The notice for bids shall state the location and general nature of the improvements to be done, and where the plans and specifications are filed for examination, and shall be signed by the clerk of the board of county commissioners by order of the board. The commissioners may provide in such notice, if convinced that the interests of their county will be protected or advanced thereby, that no foreign, alien or pauper labor shall be employed in the construction to be let. The notice shall be published for at least two consecutive weeks previous to the date of letting, in one or more daily or weekly papers published and of general circulation in the county, and in such other manner as the board may see fit to direct. [L. '93, p. 312, § 29.]

§ 5756. Bids to be Accompanied With Certified Check or Bond—Action on.—Every bid shall be accompanied by a certified check or bond in the sum of five hundred dollars, or not less than one-tenth of the amount of the bid, with security satisfactory to the board of construction, conditioned that if the contract be awarded to him he will, when required by the board of construction, execute an agreement in writing to perform the work according to the plans and specifications. No bid shall be received by the board of construction or any member thereof except at such meeting, and all bids then received shall be immediately, when opened, publicly read. The board of construction shall reject any or all bids if in their opinion good cause exists therefor, or if the total amount of such lettings shall exceed the estimated cost of construction, but otherwise they shall award the contract or contracts to the lowest responsible bidder, who shall give satisfactory evidence of his ability to perform the contract. The bidder to whom contracts shall be awarded shall execute to the board of construction, for the benefit of the county, a bond to accompany each separate agreement, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, in a sum equal to one-half the amount of the contract, and with sureties satisfactory to the board of construction. [L. '93, p. 313, § 30.]

§ 5757. Payments, How Made.—When the amount of any contract is less than one thousand dollars, no payment shall be made thereon until the contract is fully completed to the satisfaction of the board. When partial payments are provided for in the agreement, as each payment becomes due and before payment shall be made, the board of construction shall file with the clerk of the board of county commissioners their certificate, stating as near as may be the total amount of work done or material furnished, and that such work appears to have been done in all respects as required by the contract. The clerk of the board of county commissioners shall thereupon draw a warrant on the county treasurer in favor of the contractor for the amount due: Provided, that no partial payment made during the progress of the work shall exceed eighty per centum of the estimated value of the work done: And provided further, that before final payment is made on any contract, the work shall first be examined by the engineer who prepared the estimate, or other competent engineer, and his certificate be filed with the clerk of the board of county commissioners that the work has been fully performed and completed in accordance with the contract. [L. '93, p. 313, § 31.]

§ 5758. Readvertising for Bids.—If, at the time of letting, satisfactory bids are not received for the whole or any part of the improvement, a future time and place shall be fixed for again receiving bids, notice of which shall be given and the same conducted in every manner as hereinbefore provided; or, if any contractor shall fail to perform his work or complete the same, the contract shall be relet in manner as hereinbefore provided. [L. '93, p. 314, § 32.]

§ 5759. County Engineer to Inspect Work.—It shall be the duty of the county engineer in charge of said work, if the county commissioners so direct, to inspect all work of construction from time to time and see that the same is being done according to contract. [L. '99, p. 171, § 3; L. '93, p. 314, § 33.]

Cited in 20 Wash. 44.

§ 5760. Cost of Improvement.—When not otherwise provided for in the petition the cost of the improvement shall be entered by the clerk of the board of county commissioners upon the duplicate assessment-roll against the persons and property as shown on the schedule of appraisement, first deducting from any assessment against a person, company or corporation to whom awards of damages have been made the amount of the same, and in case of any excess of damages over the assessment, a warrant shall be drawn on the county treasurer in favor of the person, company or corporation to whom such damage has been awarded for the balance due after deducting the assessment. And the assessment so made shall be a tax upon the persons and property, and the same shall be collected as other taxes are collected. [L. '93, p. 314, § 34.]

§ 5761. Payment in Annual Installments.—When the petition shall so request, the improvements provided for under this chapter shall be paid for in annual installments by an annual tax levied upon the property assessed for benefits. The petition shall set forth "that the improvement be paid for on the —— years installment plan," and the number of years shall not be more than ten. When the improvement is done under the provisions of this section the clerk of the board of county commissioners shall divide the total estimated cost of the improvement, including interest on deferred payments, into as many equal parts as there are installments, and shall each year when an installment is payable, enter the amount of the same upon the duplicate assessment-roll against the persons and property assessed for benefits, and it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to collect the same the same as other taxes are collected. [L. '93, p. 315, § 35.]

§ 5762. Construction Contracts.—Construction done under the yearly installment plan shall commence at the place of beginning and be completed without intermission toward the place of ending, and the payment of improvements under such installment plan shall not in any year exceed the benefit assessments for that year. The engineer shall divide the road into as many annual construction sections of equal cost as there are years of construction, and let contracts from time to time during the progress of construction in like manner as hereinbefore provided, and any excess funds appropriated to one section shall be applicable to the succeeding section. [L. '93, p. 315, § 36; L. '99, p. 171, § 4.]

§ 5763. Petition — When Payment Out of General Fund.—The petition may set forth that public welfare requires that the construction of the whole line of improvement petitioned for be begun without delay. If upon the hearing of the petition the board of county commissioners determine that public welfare calls for the construction of the whole line of improvement as soon as possible, they shall provide for paying the cost thereof out of the general road fund of the county, and if the county has not sufficient funds on hand or in process of collection they may, by resolution passed at any regular or special session, direct that an election be called and held for the purpose of submitting to the legal voters of such county the question whether the bonds of the county shall be issued to provide funds for such construction. Notice of such election shall be given by publication in some newspaper published in this state, and having a general circulation in such county, and to be designated by the board of county commissioners, at least once in each week for four successive weeks, but the first publication shall be at least thirty days prior to the day of election, and if such notice be not published in a newspaper printed in the county where such election is to be held, the notice shall be posted in twenty of the most public places in said county at least thirty days prior to the date of said election. The election notice shall state the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, and shall be signed by the county auditor. The ballots used at such election must contain the words, "Bonds, yes," and "Bonds, no," and the elector receiving the same shall cross out therefrom part of the ballot in such manner that the remaining part shall express his vote upon the question of issuing bonds. In all other respects the general election laws of the state shall control. If three-fifths of the legal voters of such county voting at such election shall deposit a ballot bearing the words "Bonds, yes," it shall thereupon be lawful for the board of county commissioners to issue the bonds of such county, not exceeding the amount so authorized, to be styled, "Road bonds of —— county." Such bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and shall be numbered from one up consecutively; shall bear the date of their issue; shall be made payable to the bearer at a time to be specified therein not more than twenty years from their date; and shall bear interest at the rate of not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and such interest shall be evidenced by coupons attached to such bonds, and the principal and interest shall be payable at the office of the treasurer of such county, and cause the same to be specified in such bonds; subject, however, to any general law of this state regulating the place of payment of county bonds. Such bonds shall be printed, engraved or lithographed on good bond paper, and shall be signed by the chairman of the board of county commissioners, and countersigned by the county auditor, and shall have the seal of the board of county commissioners thereof affixed; and the coupons shall be executed by the autograph signatures or by engraved or lithographed facsimiles of the autograph signatures of the chairman of the board of county commissioners and the county auditor, and need not be sealed. Nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to authorize the issue of any bonds which would make the aggregate indebtedness of such county exceed one and one-half per cent of the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes. [L. '93, p. 315, § 37.]

§ 5764. Annual Tax Levy to Meet Bonds.—When bonds are issued to defray the whole or any part of any improvement provided for under this chapter the entire estimated cost of the improvement shall be divided into as many equal parts as the bonds have years to run, and each part thereof placed annually upon the duplicate assessment-roll for collection as other taxes, as hereinbefore provided, and such taxes when collected shall be credited to the general road fund of the county. [L. '93, p. 317, § 38.]

§ 5765. Sale of Bonds.—The board of county commissioners of any county issuing bonds under this chapter are authorized to sell any such bonds to the highest bidder at a price not less than the par or face value of the same, after inviting proposals by advertising the sale thereof in such paper or papers for such period of time as such board shall direct. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be paid over to the county treasurer, and remaining proceeds shall be applied only to the construction of such roads and bridges in such county as are mentioned in section 5738 of this chapter, and the construction and repair of such roads and bridges shall be deemed to be and are hereby declared to be strictly county purposes for which indebtedness of such county may lawfully be incurred as in this chapter provided. [L. '93, p. 317, § 39.]

§ 5766. Sinking Fund, etc.—The board of county commissioners of any county issuing bonds under this chapter are authorized and required annually to levy and collect a tax sufficient in amount to pay when due the interest on such bonds, and in case such bonds are issued to run longer than ten years they are further authorized and required annually to levy and collect, beginning with the annual tax levy next succeeding the expiration of ten years from the date of such bonds, an additional tax to provide a sinking fund for the payment of the principal of such bonds. Such annual sinking fund levy shall be at least equal to ten per cent of the amount of bonds issued. Such sinking fund may be invested in any bonds of the state of Washington or of any county, city, town or school district therein, or may be used to pay off the bonds issued under this chapter as hereinafter provided. [L. '93, p. 318, § 40.]

§ 5767. County Treasurer to Call in Bonds.—Whenever the sinking fund provided for by the last preceding section shall amount to the sum of two thousand dollars or more, not previously applied as in this section provided, it shall be lawful for the county treasurer to designate sufficient bonds, bearing the lowest numbers among those outstanding, to absorb the amount of said fund on hand, as near as may be, and he shall call such bonds by publishing a notice, giving the numbers of the bonds so called for payment, and fixing a day, not less than thirty days after the first publication of the notice, when the bonds will be paid with accrued interest at the place of payment of said bonds, which notice shall be published in a daily newspaper published in the county seat once in each week for four consecutive weeks. And in case the bonds so called for payment are not presented on the day fixed therefor in such notice, interest thereon shall thereupon cease: Provided, the money for the payment thereof shall at all times thereafter be retained at the place of payment of the bonds, in readiness for payment of the same on presentation, until such bonds are presented for payment. All bonds and coupons received by the county treasurer under the provisions of this section shall be at once canceled by him and filed as vouchers with the county auditor as ex-officio clerk of the board of county commissioners. [L. '93, p. 318, § 41.]

§ 5768. Penalty.—If an engineer, clerk of the board of county commissioners, member of the board of construction, or appraiser, neglect or refuse to perform any duty imposed upon him by the provisions of this chapter, he shall forfeit and pay a fine of twenty-five dollars for every such neglect or refusal, to be recovered before any officer having competent jurisdiction, in the name of the state, for the benefit of the common schools of the county, at the suit of any person aggrieved thereby. [L. '93, p. 319, § 42.]

§ 5769. Court may Correct Error, etc.—The court in which any proceeding is brought to recover any tax or assessment paid, or declare void the proceedings to locate or establish any road, or to enjoin any tax or assessment levied or ordered to be levied to pay for the labor and expense as aforesaid shall, if there is manifest error in the proceedings, allow the plaintiff in the action to show that he has been injured thereby, and may on application of either party, appoint such person or persons to examine the premises or to survey the same, or both as may be deemed necessary, the court in which any such proceedings are begun shall allow parol proof that said improvement is necessary and will be conducive to the public needs, convenience and welfare, and that any steps required by law for any improvement have [been] substantially complied with, notwithstanding any defects or omissions in the record required to be kept by any board or officer; and with or without finding error, the court may correct any gross injustice in the apportionment made by the commissioners; the court shall, on final hearing, make such order in the premises as shall be just and equitable, and may order that such tax and assessment remain on the duplicate assessment-roll for collection, or the same to be levied, or may perpetually enjoin the same or any part thereof; or if the same has been paid under protest may order the whole or any part thereof as is just and equitable to be refunded, and the costs of such proceedings shall be apportioned among the parties or paid out of the county treasury as justice requires. [L. '93, p. 319, § 43.]

§ 5770. Commissioners to Hear Petition for Locating Improvements.—The county commissioners may hear and determine at the same time and under the same petition the necessity of locating any new improved road, or of a road already partly improved, or of widening, straightening, relocating or altering any road previously improved, or in process of improvement under this chapter, as the necessity of the case requires, and shall cause such entry to be made on their journal as in their judgment is required. All estimates shall be made in the manner provided in this chapter. No assessment shall be made to any land, person, or property upon any principle other than that of benefits derived and in proportion thereto. [L. '93, p. 320, § 44.]

§ 5771. Bond of Engineer and Appraiser.—The board of county commissioners shall require each engineer and appraiser appointed by them under the provisions of this chapter to enter into a good and sufficient bond, with surety to be approved by them, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, in a sum to be fixed by the county commissioners, and an action may be brought on such bond by any person aggrieved by a failure of any such person so appointed to do his duty, in the name of such party, and recovery may be had for his benefit. [L. '93, p. 320, § 45.]

§ 5772. Officers to Take Charge of Roads.—Upon the completion of any improved road or any section thereof, for which final payment has been made, the charges and care thereof shall be assumed by the district road overseer or township road officers in each district or township in which the improvement is located, and it shall be the duty of such road officers to keep the improved roads in their respective districts or townships in constant and good repair, and any failure so to do shall justify the county commissioner in the commissioner's district in which the neglect occurs, to cause such repairs to be made at the expense of the road district or township in which repairs are done. [L. '93, p. 320, § 46.]

§ 5773. Places of Beginning, How Construed.—In case the road proposed to be improved be located so as to connect with two or more trading points located upon a railroad or body of navigable water, or with a road already improved under this chapter, or with a road over which heavy freighting and rapid travel can be done at any time in the year, then each of said points shall be construed as "places of beginning" under this chapter, and construction may be commenced at one or more of them as the board of construction shall direct. [L. '93, p. 420, § 47.]

§ 5774. Commissioners may Vacate.—The county commissioners may, on the proper petition and bond being filed, and the same notice being given as required in cases of the location of an improved road, declare any such road vacated and abandoned and its location and establishment to be held for naught, if in their judgment the same has ceased to be of public utility, and the public need, convenience and welfare no longer demand the maintenance thereof; but private rights of persons acquired by reason of the location and establishment of such road shall not be interfered with nor in any way impaired thereby unless due compensation be made therefor. [L. '93, p. 421, § 48.]

Cited in 71 Wash. 317.

§ 5775. Public Lands Subject to Assessment.—All state, county, school, school district or other lands shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter, and the proper authorities having charge of said lands may institute proceedings to enjoin assessment of benefits hereunder or for damages herefrom as in the case of private persons: Provided, that such public authorities shall not be required to give any bond in such proceedings. [L. '93, p. 421, § 49.]

§ 5776. Record of Roads to be Made.—The clerk of the board of county commissioners shall make, in a suitable book to be provided for that purpose, at the expense of the county, a complete record of each road in his county improved under the provisions of this chapter, which record shall include the petition and all bonds, reports of the engineer, appraisers and board of construction and all journal entries made, together with all plats and other papers necessary to show a complete history of all that is done in each case up to and including the final order made by the board. [L. '93, p. 421, § 50.]

§ 5777. Road Accounts, How Kept.—The commissioners of any county wherein a road improvement is ordered shall provide a suitable book in which to keep the improved road accounts of the county. The clerks shall open therein an account with each improvement in the name by which the same is known, and charge all assessments and credit all payments made in the case. The money collected on each improvement shall constitute a special fund unless the cost of the improvement shall have been advanced out of the general road fund, in which case the money collected shall be credited to the general road fund. [L. '93, p. 321, § 51.]

§ 5778. Fees for Services of Officers.—Fees for services of officers under this chapter shall be the same as for like services in civil cases, or as is or may be provided by law. [L. '93, p. 322, § 52.]

highways, walks, cycle paths and parks extend from and beyond the limits of any such city of the first class into such county, and prescribe and limit the use thereof to specified kinds of traffic; the authority and power hereby conferred shall be exercised in the manner pointed out by this chapter, but any failure of power herein or informality may be supplied from the general power possessed by cities and counties to lay out, grade, improve, and protect and repair roads, bridges and highways; said boulevards or composite highways shall, with the walks, cycle paths and parks connected therewith, be in no case less than one hundred feet wide, nor more than two hundred feet in general width. [L. '97, p. 266, § 1.]

Cycle paths in cities: See infra, §§ 7760–7765.

§ 5784. Petition for Improvement.—Whenever the owners of property to be benefited along the line of any proposed boulevard or composite highway, shall desire to improve the same under the provisions of this chapter, at the expense of such property benefited, and by the issuance of serial bonds to be payable in ten annual installments, with interest, they must present to the city council of such city of the first class a petition setting forth a general description of the route of the said improvement within said city, giving its terminal points, and a general description of the character of improvements desired, together with the general plan of the various roadways, walks, cycle paths and contemplated parks; if any portion of such proposed boulevard or composite highway shall extend beyond the limits of such city, a similar petition shall be filed with the board of county commissioners of the county into which it so extends covering the portion of same outside of the city; before any such petition shall be allowed and favorably acted upon, it must appear therefrom that the owners of a majority in area of the lands to be benefited along said proposed boulevard or composite highway have signed the same and requested the work to be done under the provisions of this chapter; and any administrator, executor or guardian may, upon consent of the court appointing him, sign the same, and his signature shall bind the property of the estate or ward. [L. '97, p. 267, § 2.]

§ 5785. Survey and Estimate to be Made—Notice and Hearing.—Whenever any such petition shall be filed, signed by a majority of the property owners as aforesaid, a council or board, as the case may be, shall cause a survey, plan and estimate of the entire cost within the said district to be made, which shall be filed with the city clerk or county auditor, as the case may be: Provided, that no such survey, estimate and plan shall be made without the said petitioners shall advance the cost thereof, which shall be afterward included as a part of the expense of the improvement, and refunded

if it be made; immediately after the said survey, plan and estimate is made and filed, the city clerk or county auditor, as the case may be, shall cause a notice of such filing to be published daily for ten days in the newspaper doing the city or county printing, which notice shall state that such petition has been filed, and shall give a brief and general description of the improvements proposed, the terminal points of the same and the proposed width of the same, together with the estimated cost and expense thereof, and also a description of the property included within the proposed district. Said notice shall fix a time and place at which all persons interested in the said property may appear before the said council or board and show cause, if any there be, why the said improvement ought not to be made as petitioned for. Said time shall not be less than eight days nor more than twenty days from the date of said notice. All owners who shall not make and file objections to the granting of such petition, within the time mentioned shall be deemed to have assented thereto, in the same manner as if they had signed the said petition. If any remonstrance shall be made thereto, the council or board shall hear the same, and if it shall appear that the law has not been complied with in the securing [of] a sufficient number of signers to the said petition, or that the requisite notice has not been given, or that the proposed improvement will not be a benefit to the property in the said district, or that for any other similar reason the work ought not to be done at the expense of the property owners, the said council or board shall so find, and decline and refuse to proceed further with the matter; but if it appears that the law has been in the aforesaid particulars complied with, and that the proposed improvement will be a benefit to the property in the said district, and will be a public convenience and benefit, the said council or board shall so find and shall authorize the improvements. [L. '97, p. 268, § 3.]

§ 5786. Improvements, How Ordered.—Whenever any such petition shall have been presented to the city council, and upon notice as aforesaid shall have been examined and the proposed improvement found to be a proper one to be made by local assessment, the council shall by ordinance order such improvement to be made within any city district, and shall by such ordinance create a local improvement district, which shall embrace the lands and lots described in the said notices, and which will be benefited by such improvement; such ordinance shall provide in full for the levy and collection of such assessments, the issuance and sale of the bonds, and the general outline of the improvements and the proposed method of paying therefor; when a portion of said boulevard or composite highway shall lie outside of the city limits, the board of county commissioners shall upon like petition, notice and finding, make similar provisions for the improvement within its jurisdiction, by an order entered upon its records; the district lying within the city limits shall be known as District A, and that outside of the city, if any, as District B, and a different series of bonds shall issue in each, and the property in District A shall not be responsible for the payment of the bonds issued on District B, nor shall the property in District B be responsible for the payment of the bonds issued on District A. [L. '97, p. 269, § 4.]

§ 5787. What Constitutes a Frontage.—Each local improvement district shall include all property between the terminal points of said improvement; in case the line thereof extends beyond the city limits, the line of the city limits shall be one of the end of termini of the inner and outer districts; the inner or local improvement District A shall include all property between its termini parallel to and within three hundred feet on each side of the average central line of the said boulevard or composite highway; and all property included within said limits shall be considered and held to have a frontage upon such improvement, and shall be the property benefited by said local improvement, and shall be the property to be assessed to pay the cost thereof, which cost shall be assessed by the said city council upon all the property so benefited in proportion to the benefits obtained thereby; the outer or local improvement District B shall include all property between its terminal points, one of which shall be the line of the city limits, and all property parallel thereto and within six hundred and sixty feet on each side of the average central line of the said composite highway; and all property included within said limits shall be considered and held to have a frontage upon such improvement, and shall be the property benefited by the said local improvement, and shall be the property to be assessed to pay the cost thereof, which cost shall be assessed by the said board of county commissioners upon all the property so benefited in proportion to the benefits obtained thereby; and no lot or parcel of land in any district shall be assessed or charged for but one proportionate part thereof, regardless of any angle or change of direction in the line of improvement. [L. '97, p. 269, § 5.]

§ 5788. Relating to Street-car Tracks and Right of Way.—In arranging and laying out any such boulevard or composite highway it shall be proper and lawful to arrange for the location and right of way of a street-car track or tracks therein, but the lands upon which the same are built, or to be built, shall not be improved by such special assessment, but only at the expense of the parties owning the lands or the franchise thereon, and said land shall also be assessed in proportion to other property in the district to pay for the local improvement. [L. '97, p. 270, § 6.]

§ 5789. Assessment-rolls and Exhibits.—The city council or board of county commissioners, as the case may be, shall make out and certify to an assessment-roll, which shall show and exhibit in separate columns,—

Second: A brief description by lot, block, or by metes and bounds, of each subdivision of land therein;

Third: The assessment number of each subdivision of land separately assessed;

Fourth: The amount assessed separately against each subdivision within said district, which shall be the sum, also, that the said lot, piece or parcel of land is benefited by the said improvement;

Fifth: A plat or map showing the line or lines of said proposed improvement, and the lots, blocks, pieces and parcels of land lying in said district to be assessed for such improvement, each of which subdivisions of land shall be marked with its assessment number on its face. [L. '97, p. 270, § 7.]

§ 5790. Filing of Assessment-roll—Notice of.—Upon the completion of such assessment-roll it shall be filed with the city clerk or county auditor, as the case may be, whereupon such clerk or auditor shall forthwith give notice by publication for five days in a daily paper doing the city or county printing, that said assessment-roll is on file in his office, where it may be seen and examined by all parties interested, and the said notice shall state a time at which the council or the board, as the case may be, will hear any objections to the said assessment-roll, which time shall not be less than one nor more than ten days after the last publication of the said notice. [L. '97, p. 271, § 8.]

§ 5791. Objections to be Heard—Confirmation of Assessment-rolls. At the time appointed for hearing objections to the said assessment-roll and the assessments therein, the council or board, as the case may be, shall hear and decide upon all objections which shall have been filed by any party interested, to the regularity of the proceedings in making said improvements or in levying said assessments, or to the correctness of the amount of said assessment, or of the amount levied upon any particular lot or parcel of land; and if the proceedings are found by them to have been regular, they shall correct any errors which may be found in the assessment, and shall pass an order approving and confirming said proceedings, and said assessment so corrected by them, and their decision and order shall be a final determination of the regularity, validity and correctness of said assessment, and of the amount thereof levied upon each lot or parcel of land, and shall bar all persons appearing and objecting or failing to appear from any further recourse in law. [L. '97, p. 271, § 9.]

§ 5792. Lien of Assessments.—All such assessments shall be liens upon the property assessed, and all such liens shall relate back to and take effect as of the date when the council or board, as the case may be, found the work a proper one to be undertaken under the law and the petitions presented, and sustained the petitions against the objections made, or proceeded with the work without such objection, when none was made. [L. '97, p. 272, § 10.]

§ 5793. County Treasurer to Collect—Date of Delinquency.—The city or county clerk, as the case may be, shall, within five days after the confirmation of said assessment-roll as aforesaid, certify and annex to the said roll a true copy of the order of confirmation, and issue and annex to the said roll a warrant directing the county treasurer to receive and collect the amount or amounts due thereon, in the manner and at the times hereinafter pointed out, and shall thereupon deliver said roll, order of confirmation and warrant to the said county treasurer, who shall thereupon be authorized to receive and collect the same, as by this law provided; the clerk shall, if the district lies within the city, also notify the city controller of the amount of the said roll, and if a district lies outside of the city the county auditor shall be so notified of the amount thereof, and the treasurer shall be charged therewith; the treasurer, within ten days after receiving the said roll, shall give notice by three weekly publications in the official newspaper of the city or county that such assessment-roll is in his hands for collection, that the assessments are payable, and the date at which the same will become delinquent for the nonpayment of the first installment of principal and interest; no demand shall be necessary for any such assessment, but it shall be the duty of every person whose property is assessed for improvements as herein provided, to pay all such assessments levied upon such property before the same become[s] delinquent. [L. '97, p. 272, § 11.]

§ 5794. When Assessments are Due and Payable.—The said assessments shall be due and payable on the date of the order confirming the said assessment-roll, and may be paid at any time thereafter as herein provided. Any person may at any time within thirty days after said order of confirmation redeem his said property by paying the full amount of such assessment without interest; if the said property is redeemed after said thirty days the owner shall pay the full amount of such assessment and the interest up to the succeeding first Monday in July or January, as the case may be. If the order confirming the said assessment-roll shall be made more than thirty days next before the first Monday in July or January, or if not then, on the first Monday in July or January first thereafter, the first installment of one-tenth of the principal, and interest for one year on the whole sum due, shall be and become due and delinquent; and thereafter, annually, on the said first Monday in July or January, corresponding to the first date of delinquency, one-tenth of the principal sum, and one full year's interest on the whole sum due, shall be and become due and delinquent; upon the failure of any such owner to make payment of any installment and interest before delinquency, and upon such delinquency, the whole sum due on the said lot, piece or parcel delinquent shall also be and become due, payable and delinquent, and any sale of the said property for delinquency shall be for the full amount of the said assessment not then paid and interest to the next succeeding first Monday in July or January, as the case may be, and the costs of sale. [L. '97, p. 272, § 12.]

§ 5795. Sale to Satisfy Assessments.—The said county treasurer shall be and he is hereby empowered and authorized, by virtue of the law and the warrant to collect, to sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, all the lots, pieces and parcels of land described in the said assessment-roll, and upon which assessments are levied, whether in the name of the owner or in the name of an unknown, to satisfy all delinquent and unpaid assessments, with interest and costs; on the day of the delinquency a penalty of five per cent on the principal sum due shall accrue to such assessment in addition to the interest thereon, and must then and thereafter be collected therewith; such treasurer's warrant shall, for the purpose of making sale of said real estate on which assessments are delinquent and unpaid, be deemed and taken as an execution against said real property for the amount of the said assessments with interest, penalty and costs, and the treasurer shall, within sixty days after said date of delinquency, commence the sale of the said real property, and continue such sale from day to day thereafter, until all the lots and parcels of land described in said assessment-roll on which any such assessment or installment is delinquent and unpaid are sold; such sales shall take place at the front door of the courthouse, and such sales may take place from year to year if other delinquencies on said roll occur; the treasurer shall give notice of such sales by publishing a notice thereof once a week for three consecutive weeks, in the official city or county newspaper, as the case may require; such notice shall contain a list of all lots and parcels of land upon which such assessments are delinquent with the amount of the assessment, interest, penalty and costs, to the date of sale, including the costs of advertising due upon each of such lots or parcels of land, together with the names of the owners thereof, or the words "unknown owner," as the same may appear on said assessment-roll, and shall specify the time and place of sale, and that the several lots or parcels of land therein described will be sold to satisfy the assessment, interest, penalty and costs due upon each. [L. '97, p. 273, § 13.]

§ 5796. When Sale Shall Take Place.—All such sales shall be made between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 3 o'clock P. M., each lot or parcel of land shall be sold separately and in the order in which the same appears on the assessment-roll, commencing at the head thereof; all lots and parcels of land sold for delinquent assessments shall be sold to the highest bidder, and whenever any such lot is sold for more than the sum sufficient to satisfy the delinquent assessment, with interest, penalty and costs, the surplus shall be kept by the treasurer in a separate fund, and thereafter the owner or his legal representatives shall, on application, be entitled, upon proving their right thereto, to receive the same; if there be no bidder for any lot or parcel of land of a sum sufficient to pay the delinquent assessment, interest, penalty and costs, the said treasurer shall declare the said property sold to the city, if the district is within the city, or to the county, if without the city, and the city or county in such case shall be a trustee of the title for the benefit of the bondholders; the said lands so stricken off to the said city or county may be disposed of as hereinafter provided, by a sale of the certificates of sale, or held, if not sold, to await the action of the bondholders, who shall be held to be the equitable owners thereof in proportion as their interests may appear. [L. '97, p. 274, § 14.]

§ 5797. Improvement Ordered—Limit of Liability.—Immediately after and upon the passage of the order confirming the assessment-roll, the city council or the board of county commissioners, as the case may be, shall be and they are hereby authorized to cause the said improvement to be made at the expense of the said district: Provided, that the said contractor, laborers, materialmen or subcontractors shall in all cases look only to the fund to be raised by such special assessment for their compensation: And provided, that neither the city nor county shall be responsible therefor in any degree except as trustee for the said district and bondholders. [L. '97, p. 275, § 15.]

§ 5798. Sale of Certificates.—The city controller shall be the custodian of all certificates of purchase for lots or parcels of land so sold to the city, and the county treasurer shall continue in the custody of all such certificates so sold to the county, and either shall, at any time prior to the issuance of a deed for such property and prior to the redemption of the lot or parcel of land therein described, sell and transfer any such certificate to any person who will pay to the county treasurer the amount for which the lot or parcel of land therein described was stricken off to the city or county with the interest subsequently accrued thereon; within ten days after the completion of the sale of all the lots and parcels of land described in such assessment-roll and sold as aforesaid, the treasurer must make a return to the city council, or the board of county commissioners, of his doings thereon, showing all lots and parcels of land sold by him, to whom sold, and the sum paid therefor. [L. '97, p. 275, § 16.]

§ 5799. Purchaser's Lien.—The purchaser at improvement assessment sales acquires a lien on the lot or parcel of land sold for the amount paid by him at such sale, as well as for all delinquent taxes and improvement assessments, and all costs and charges thereon, whether levied previously or subsequently to such sale, subsequently paid by him on the lot or parcel of land, and shall be entitled to interest thereon at the rate of twelve per cent per annum from the date of such payment. [L. '97, p. 275, § 17.]

§ 5800. Redemption Notice—Deed.—Every lot and parcel of land sold for any delinquent assessment as aforesaid, shall be subject to redemption by the former owner, or his grantee, mortgagee or heir, within one year within the date of the certificate of purchase, on payment to the county treasurer, for the purchaser, of the amount the same was sold for, with twelve per cent interest per annum, together with all taxes and improvement assessments and costs and charges thereon paid by the purchaser on such lot or parcel of land since such sale, with like interest thereon, and on such redemption being made, the treasurer shall give to the redemptioner a certificate of redemption therefor and pay over the amount received from such redemptioner to the purchaser or his assigns; should no redemption be made within the period of one year, the treasurer shall, on demand by the purchaser, or his assigns, and the surrender of the certificate, execute to him a deed for the lot or parcel of land therein described: Provided, that no such deed shall be executed until the holder of said certificate shall have notified the owner of the said lot or parcel of land that he holds said certificate and that he will demand a deed thereof; and if, notwithstanding said notice, no redemption be made within ninety days from the service of said notice, said holder shall be entitled to said deed. Said notice may be given by personal service upon said person, or by publication in a weekly newspaper published in said city or county for three weeks; such notice and return thereto, with the affidavit of the person claiming said deed, stating that said service was made, shall be filed with the treasurer; such deed shall be executed only for the lot or parcel of land named in the certificate, and after the payment of all subsequent taxes and assessments thereon; the deed shall be executed in the name of the city or county, as the case may be, and shall recite in substance the matters contained in the certificate, the notice to the owner, and that no redemption has been made of the property within the time allowed by law; such deed shall be signed and acknowledged before a notary public by the treasurer as such; the deed shall be prima facie evidence that the property was assessed as required by law, that the improvement assessment was not paid, that the property was sold as required by law, that it was not redeemed, that notice had been given, and that the person executing the deed was the proper officer, and the deed shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all other proceedings from the assessment inclusive up to the execution of the deed. [L. '97, p. 276, § 18.]

§ 5801. Sale to City or County.—If any property within such assessment district shall be offered for sale, and no person shall bid a sum sufficient to pay the assessment, the interest, penalty and costs, the said property shall be stricken off to the city, if the district is within the city, or to the county, if the assessment district is within the county, and in either case the city or county, as the case may be, shall hold the said property as a trustee for the use and benefit of the holders of the bonds against the said district; but neither the said city nor county shall be required to pay any money out of its treasury upon the said bonds or interest thereon otherwise than as the same shall have been received from the said assessments: Provided, that if there shall not be a sufficient fund to pay the bonds and interest the said lots or lands so stricken off to the trustee may be utilized by the bondholders, as a common fund for further payments. [L. '97, p. 277, § 19.]

§ 5802. Improvements, How Made.—All work authorized by this chapter in laying out, grading and finishing the said composite highway or boulevard, or walks, cycle paths or parks in connection therewith, shall be done under the same supervision as other improvements in said city or county, and shall be done by days' work or by contract, at the discretion of the council or board: Provided, that if the petition for doing the work in the first place shall designate the manner of making the improvement, whether by days' work or contract, then the improvement must be done as requested in said petition: And provided further, that in no case shall the cost of any such improvement exceed the estimate made by the engineer; and before awarding any contract authorized by this act the same proceedings shall be had and the contract shall be let in like manner as other contracts in said city or county. [L. '97, p. 277, § 20.]

§ 5803. Contracts for Improvements. — All contracts shall be drawn under the supervision of the city or county attorney and shall have attached thereto detailed specifications of the work to be done, which shall be referred to and made a part of the contract, and the maps, estimates and all of the proceedings in the matter of creating the said assessment district shall be considered a part of the said contract; each contract shall be signed in duplicate, the contractor taking one and the proper city or county official keeping the other; at the same time with the execution of said contract the said contractor shall execute a bond to the city or county, as the case may be, and deliver the same to the clerk of the council or board; said bond shall be jointly and severally in the sum named in the notice for proposals, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the council or board; or the contractor may deposit with the county treasurer a certified check, upon some solvent bank, for said amount, for the faithful performance of said contract, which check shall be drawn payable to the said county treasurer; such sureties shall justify in a sum equal to the amount of the bond, and such bond shall be conditioned that such contractors shall pay all laborers, mechanics and materialmen and persons who shall supply such contractor with provisions or goods of any kind, all just debts due to such persons, or to any person to whom any part of such work is subcontracted or given; which bond shall be filed with the clerk of the city or county, as the case may be. The contract for work shall specify the time within which the work shall be commenced and when to be completed, as was specified in the notice inviting proposals therefor; in case of failure on the part of the contractor to complete his contract within the time fixed, his contract may be by the council or board declared void, and the council or board may relet any unfurnished portion of said work: Provided, that no contractor shall be paid any sum to exceed eighty per cent until the whole of the said contract shall have been completed and accepted by the board or council; the work shall be done to the satisfaction of the city engineer, if within the city, or to the county surveyor, if without, and shall be done according to the plans and specifications. [L. '97, p. 278, § 21.]

§ 5804. Payment for Improvements—Issuance of Bonds.—Whenever any improvement aforesaid shall be made under this chapter, provision for its payment shall be made by the issuance, by the council or board, of improvement district bonds, payable in ten annual equal installments, none of which bonds shall draw interest at a higher rate than ten per cent per annum; such bonds may be issued to the contractor at par, if he agrees to accept the same, or the council or board may sell the same at not less than par value, net, and pay the proceeds to the contractor. Such bonds shall not be issued in amount in excess of the contract price of the work or improvement together with the cost of all lands for right of way therefor, whether acquired by purchase or condemnation, and also all incidental expenses incurred by the city or county for said improvement: Provided, that when the annual tenth is paid the interest upon the whole sum shall also be paid; the bonds shall be of such denominations as the council or board shall determine, and shall be numbered from one to the highest number; the county treasurer, whenever he shall have received a sum sufficient from the redemption of any piece or pieces of property by the owner's paying his assessment together with the interest to the next semi-annual date of interest payment, to pay one of the bonds in full, shall call the said bond, beginning at the first in number: Provided, that no such call shall be made and no such payments received after the eighth annual payment; the installments of principal and interest shall be paid on the third Monday in July and January; the principal annually and the interest semi-annually, and the bonds may provide for paying the same at the fiscal agency of the state of Washington in New York city. [L. '97, p. 279, § 22.]

§ 5805. Lien of Assessment Transferred to Bondholders. — Such bonds, when issued to the contractor constructing the improvement in payment therefor, or when sold as above provided, shall transfer to the contractor or other owner or holder all the right and interest of such city or county in and with respect to every such assessment, and the lien thereby created against the property of such owners assessed as shall not have availed themselves of the provisions of this chapter in regard to the redemption of their property as aforesaid, shall authorize said contractor and his assigns and the owners and holders of said bonds to receive, sue for and collect or have collected every such assessment embraced in any such bond by or through any of the methods provided by law for the collection of assessments for local improvements. And if the city or county shall fail, neglect or refuse to pay said bonds, or to promptly collect any of such assessments when due, the owner of any such bonds may proceed in his own name to collect such assessment and foreclose the lien thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall recover, in addition to the amount of such bonds and interest thereon, five per centum, together with the costs of such suit. Any number of holders of such bonds for any single improvement may join as plaintiffs, and any number of owners of the property on which the same are a lien may be joined as defendants in such suit. And such bonds shall be equal liens upon the property for the assessments represented by such bonds without priority of one over another to the extent of the several assessments against the several lots and parcels of land. [L. '97, p. 280, § 23.]

§ 5806. Reassessment, When.—In all cases of special assessment for local improvements of any kind against any property, persons or corporations whatsoever, wherein said assessments have failed to be valid in whole or in part for want of form or insufficiency, informality or irregularity, or nonconformance with the laws govering such assessments, the city council or other authorized board or body shall be and they are hereby authorized to reassess such special taxes or assessments and to enforce their collection in accordance with the provisions of law existing at the time the reassessment is made: And it is further provided, that whenever, for any cause, mistake or inadvertence, the amount assessed shall not be sufficient to pay the cost of the improvement made and enjoyed by owners of property in the local assessment district where the same is made, that it shall be lawful, and the city council or other authorized board or body is hereby directed and authorized, to make reassessments on all the property in said local assessment district sufficient to pay for such improvement, such reassessment to be made and collected in accordance with the provisions of the law or ordinance existing at the time of its levy. [L. '97, p. 280, § 24.]

§ 5807. Construction.—Nothing herein shall be construed as repealing or modifying any existing manner and method for cities of the first class or counties to make improvements as herein provided for, but shall be construed as an additional and concurrent power and authority. The holder of any bond issued under the authority of this chapter shall have no claim therefor against the city or county by which the same is issued, in any event, except from the collections of the special assessment made for the improvement for which such bond was issued; but his remedy, in case of no payment, shall be confined to the enforcement of such assessments. A copy of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on the face of each bond so issued. [L. '97, p. 281, § 25.]

CHAPTER XIX.

Changing and Improving Roads at Expense of Land Benefited.

See last two preceding chapters.

§ 5808. Improvements Authorized—Assessment of Property Benefited.—The board of county commissioners of any county in this state shall have power, as hereinafter provided, to cause to be constructed or improved any county road, or any part of such road, within the limits of their respective counties, by deviating from existing lines whenever it shall be deemed of advantage to obtain a shorter or more direct road without lessening its usefulness or whenever such deviation is of advantage by reason of lessened gradients, or by draining in any direction to reach the most convenient and sufficient outlet, or by grading or by constructing thereon a roadway of telford, macadam, gravel, or any other suitable material; and to levy and cause to be collected an assessment upon all lots, tracts and parcels of land specially benefited by such improvement for paying the cost and expenses thereof, which assessment shall become a first lien upon all property liable therefor, prior and superior to all other liens and encumbrances; and to provide for the payment of such assessment either on the immediate payment plan or by installments, and to issue local improvement district warrants for such installments. [L. '09, p. 768, § 1.]

§ 5809. Resolution to Improve by County Commissioners.—Upon the presentation of a petition as provided in section 5810 hereof the board of county commissioners shall pass a resolution that the public interest demands the improvement of any such county road, or part thereof, situated within such county, and described in such resolution, but such description shall not include any portion of a highway within the boundaries of any city or incorporated town. [L. '09, p. 769, § 2.]

§ 5810. Petition by Owners of Abutting Property. — The owners of two-thirds of the lineal feet of lands fronting on such county road, or part thereof sought to be improved, in any county in this state may present to the board of county commissioners of such county a petition setting forth that the petitioners are such owners and that they desire such road, or part thereof, to be improved under the provisions of this chapter, the particular road or portion thereof sought to be improved, the kind and nature of the improvement desired, and the mode of payment of the assessments to be levied for defraying the cost and expenses of such improvement. If any such property stands in the name of a deceased person or any person for whom a guardian has been appointed, the signature of the executor, administrator or guardian, as the case may be, shall be deemed equivalent to the signature of the owner of the property on such petition. [L. '09, p. 769, § 3.]

§ 5811. Notice of Hearing—Election of Supervisors.—Such board of county commissioners shall make an order appointing a place in the vicinity of said road in said county where, and a time when said petitioners and all owners of land fronting upon said road, or portion thereof sought to be improved, and to be specially benefited by such improvement, and upon whose lands special assessments will be levied to pay for such improvement, may meet with the county engineer, or his duly appointed deputy; and the county auditor shall immediately give notice to said county engineer of such meeting, and shall cause a notice thereof to be given by publication in a newspaper printed and published in the vicinity of said road, or nearest thereto, in said county, and of general circulation therein, for three consecutive weeks next prior to the time of such meeting, which notice shall state the time and place of said meeting, the kind of improvement asked for, the place of beginning, intermediate points, if any, and place of termination of said road, or the portion thereof sought to be improved. At said meeting said county engineer, or his said deputy, or in the absence of both, some one of the said owners present, shall preside, and said petitioners and said owners of such lands shall then proceed to elect three of such owners as a committee of supervisors, at least one of whom shall be chosen from among the said petitioners. A majority of such owners present and voting at such meeting shall be sufficient for such election, and said presiding officer shall declare and certify to said board of county commissioners the names of such owners so elected as such committee of supervisors. The persons so elected shall, as soon as may be thereafter, qualify by taking an oath that they are owners of lands fronting upon or specially benefited by said improvement and to be included within the local assessment district therefor, as hereinafter provided, and that they will fully, impartially and faithfully perform the duties of such supervisors to the best of their ability, which said oath may be administered by anyone authorized by the laws of the state of Washington to administer oaths, or by said county engineer or his deputy, who are thereunto hereby fully authorized. [L. '09, p. 770, § 4.]

§ 5812. Assessment of Damages and Benefits—Plans—Width of Road.—It shall be the duty of such committee of supervisors and the county engineer or his said deputy to forthwith, or as soon as they can assemble at said place, meet and proceed to view, examine and survey said road, or the portion thereof sought to be improved, so that such county engineer can from such examination and survey make plans and specifications and an estimate of the cost of such construction and improvement; to examine and determine the lands that will be specially benefited by such improvement and should be included within the local district to be assessed to defray the cost and expense of such improvement; to ascertain what, if any, damage or injury to the property of any person or persons will be sustained by or in consequence of the making of such improvement for the payment of which such local district would be liable and, in so far as may be, obtain without cost to the local district the release in writing from such person or persons of their claim for such damage or injury, or, in case of failure so to do, arrange, in so far as may be, for such release to be given, upon the approval and ordering of such improvement, on such terms as to amount as may be deemed fair and reasonable to be paid from the funds collected upon the assessment of said district; and such county engineer shall without unnecessary delay prepare such plans and specifications and an estimate of the cost of such improvement, including therein all expenses incident thereto except for services of any county officer receiving a salary, and prepare a plat and description of such local improvement district and a description of the several tracts or parcels of land included therein and the valuation of said lands as appears upon the last annual assessment-roll of the county made for the purpose of levying general taxes; and for the purpose of making such surveys said county engineer shall take to his aid such assistants as are necessary and usually employed by him in making county surveys and at such compensation as is usually paid for like services employed in making other county surveys, the same to be charged as an expense against said local improvement district. The improved or permanent roadway of all such roads so improved shall not be less than eight nor more than sixteen feet in width with shoulders of not less than two feet nor more than four feet in width, unless for special reasons to be stated by said county engineer and committee of supervisors it is required that it shall be of greater width. [L. '09, p. 771, § 5.]

§ 5813. Boundaries of Improvement District — Divisions for Assessment.—Such local improvement district shall be constituted, and the boundaries thereof fixed, as follows: The road, or portion thereof to be improved, coterminous with the improvement, shall be the central line through the district, and the bordering lands on each side, and within a distance of half a mile from the margin of said road and coterminous with the construction work or improvement shall be included in and constitute the body of the improvement district, and shall be subject to assessment to the extent above provided. For the purpose of making an equitable apportionment of the assessment, such improvement district shall be divided longitudinally into three parts as follows: All land on both sides of said road, or portion thereof, to be improved, and within a distance of eight hundred and eighty feet from the margins thereof shall constitute the first subdivision; all the land outside of the first subdivision, and within eight hundred and eighty feet from the exterior margins thereof, shall constitute the second subdivision; and all the land outside of said second subdivision and within eight hundred and eighty feet from the exterior margins thereof shall constitute the third subdivision. Each separate tract or parcel of land in said first subdivision shall be assessed and be subject to a charge for a proportional part of forty-five per cent of the whole cost of the construction work or improvement of said road, including said incidental expenses, and it shall be subject to a lien therefor until it shall be paid; each separate tract or parcel of land in said second subdivision shall be assessed and subject to a charge for a proportional part of thirty-five per cent of said whole cost and expense of said construction work or improvement, and be subject to a lien therefor until it shall be paid; each tract or parcel of land in said third subdivision shall be assessed and subject to a charge for a proportional part of twenty per cent of said whole cost and expense of said construction work or improvement, and be subject to a lien therefor until it shall be paid. The charge upon the several separate tracts or parcels of land in each subdivision shall be assessed ratably according to the front foot plan; that is to say, one foot of longitude measured along the road constituting the center of such improvement district, and extending latitudinally across the subdivision shall be taken as the unit by which to determine the proportion of the assessment, so that a unit in each subdivision will be eight hundred and eighty square feet of superficial area. If the areas of said subdivision are not equal to each other the rates fixed for each subdivision shall be fixed on the basis that the benefit conferred on eight hundred and eighty square feet of land in subdivisions first, second and third, are related to each other as are the numbers 45, 35 and 20, respectively. [L. '09, p. 772, § 6.]

§ 5814. Engineer's Report of Cost, etc.—As soon as the county engineer shall have completed said work, and at the next ensuing meeting of the board of county commissioners the said county engineer in conjunction with said committee of supervisors shall render a detailed report to said board of county commissioners, with all maps, descriptions, plans, specifications, details and estimates of damages, costs and expenses, and if it shall appear from the said report that the whole amount of the damages, cost and expense of said construction or improvement, chargeable as a lien against the property specially benefited within such improvement district, does not exceed fifty per cent of the total assessed valuation of the lots, tracts and parcels of land contained in such improvement district as the same appears upon the last annual assessment-roll of the county made for levying general taxes, the said board of county commissioners shall make and enter upon their records an order that the said improvement be made, and creating such local improvement district for the payment of said damages, costs and expenses of making said improvement, by special assessment of the property in said district specially benefited, according to said report, to be known and designated Local Improvement District No. —— in —— County, Washington, and such report shall be kept on file in the office of the auditor of said county with the files pertaining to the proceedings of said board of county commissioners. [L. '09, p. 773, § 7.]

any lands upon the amount of damages, if any, sustained by the taking or injuring of his property by reason or in consequence of making of such improvement, they shall in said report to the county commissioners set forth such fact with a statement of their reasons therefor, and said county commissioners shall cause the amount thereof to be ascertained and determined by condemnation and paid in the same manner as damages are so ascertained, determined and paid where new roads are laid out and opened and the county commissioners and land owners are unable to agree upon the amount thereof; and such damages, and the expenses incident to ascertaining and determining the same, shall be advanced on the order of the county commissioners from the funds of the county, so that the progress of such work shall not be delayed, and said funds shall be reimbursed the amount so advanced from the first money collected of the local improvement district funds, and the same shall constitute a part of the cost and expense of making such improvement. [L. '09, p. 774, § 8.]

§ 5816. Advertisement for Bids — Contract — Bond—Payments—Liability.—After the making of such order directing the making of such improvement and establishing such local improvement district, said county engineer and committee of supervisors shall let a contract for furnishing of the necessary materials and the performance of the work and labor necessary for the construction and completion of said improvement, according to said plans and specifications, and under the supervision of said county engineer. They shall advertise for bids for three successive weeks in a newspaper published at the county seat of such county, and in such other newspaper as said committee of supervisors shall deem of advantage, for the construction of said improvements, according to such plans and specifications, fixing the time for opening such bids at the office of the county commissioners and award such contract to the lowest responsible bidder, except that no contract shall be awarded at a greater sum than the estimate of cost of such work hereinbefore provided for. But if no bid otherwise acceptable be made within such estimate, such county engineer may amend his estimate, and in conjunction with said committee of supervisors certify such amended estimate to the county commissioners, and, if said amended estimate does not exceed said fifty per cent limit of valuation, said board of county commissioners shall make and enter a new order, in like manner as provided in section 5815 hereof, based upon such amended estimate, and said county engineer and committee of supervisors may proceed anew to obtain bids and award the contract as herein provided. The county engineer and committee of supervisors may reject any and all bids, and before the execution of a contract for such construction, they shall require a bond executed by a corporate surety or two or more individuals, good and sufficient sureties, satisfactory to them, conditioned that the contractor will furnish the required material and perform the required work upon the terms specified and within the time prescribed and in accordance with the plans and specifications, and will pay for all labor and materials employed upon or in said work; and as a bond of indemnity against any direct or indirect damages that shall be suffered or claimed for injuries to persons or property during the construction of said improvement and until the same is accepted. Partial payments may be provided for in the contract, and paid in the manner herein provided when certified by the county engineer and committee of supervisors to an amount not to exceed eighty per cent of the value of the work done. In letting said contract said surveyor [engineer] and supervisors shall provide therein that at least twenty per centum of the amount due the contractor on estimates shall be retained to secure the payment of laborers who have performed work on said improvement and materialmen who have furnished materials therefor, and such laborers and materialmen shall for thirty days after their work has been completed or their materials furnished have a lien on such twenty per centum so reserved for labor done and materials furnished: Provided, notice thereof in writing shall have been filed with the county engineer within said thirty days, which lien shall be senior to all other liens, whether by judgment, attachment or contract, and no improvement shall be deemed completed until the county engineer and committee of supervisors shall have filed with the clerk of the board of county commissioners a statement signed by a majority of them declaring the same to have been completed, and all such liens shall have been discharged. Such contract shall be executed in the name and on behalf of the county by the chairman of the board of county commissioners and attested with the seal of said board, for the use and benefit of said local improvement district; but such county shall not thereby be rendered subject to any claim or liability except from the special assessment made upon the property of such local district for such improvement or from the proceeds of the sale of any local improvement warrants issued to pay for such improvement as herein provided. Such contractor's bond shall be executed to the county, and in its name enforced by and for the use and benefit of any and all whom it may concern, and shall be kept in the custody of the county auditor. [L. '09, p. 774, § 9.]

§ 5817. Bids, Notice for — Deposit — Opening, etc. — Such notice for bids shall state generally the work to be done, and refer to the plans and specifications [filed] with the board of county commissioners, and shall call for proposals for doing the same and furnishing the necessary materials therefor, sealed and filed with the county auditor, as clerk of the board of county commissioners, on or before the day and hour named in said notice. All bids shall be accompanied by cash or a certified check payable to the order of the county auditor for a sum not less than five per cent of the amount of the bid, as a guaranty of the good faith of the bidder, and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such cash or check. At the time and place named such bids shall be publicly opened and read; no bid shall be rejected for informality, but shall be received if it can be understood what is meant thereby. The county engineer and committee of supervisors shall determine the lowest bidder, and may let such contract to such bidder if within said estimate, or if in their opinion all bids are too high, they may reject all of them and readvertise for bids, and in such case all checks and cash shall be returned to the bidders; but if such contract be let, then and in such case all checks and cash shall be returned to the bidders except that of the successful bidder, which shall be retained until a contract be entered into for making such improvement between the bidder and the county in accordance with such bid. If the said bidder fails to enter into such contract in accordance with his bid within ten days from the date on which he is notified that he is the successful bidder, and to execute and file a bond as hereinbefore provided, the said cash and check and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the county, for the use and benefit of the particular local improvement district, and the county auditor shall cash said check and pay said amount into the county treasury to the credit of the said local improvement district, and the said county engineer and committee of supervisors shall readvertise for bids for the doing of such work. Neither said supervisors nor any county officer shall have power to remit such forfeiture. [L. '09, p. 776, § 10.]

§ 5818. Roads Closed When Necessary.—Whenever a contract has been let for the construction or improvement of any such county road in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the contractors may and are hereby authorized to, whenever the county engineer supervising the work shall certify to the necessity therefor in writing, close any such road or part thereof to the public by putting up a sufficient obstruction and notice to the effect that such road is closed for improvement. When so closed any person disregarding such obstruction and driving, riding or walking over any portion of such road so closed shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be subject to a fine of five dollars. Nothing herein contained, however, shall relieve the contractor of the burden of keeping county roads under construction or improvement at all times open to the public until the county engineer supervising the work shall have certified to the necessity for closing such road and shall have filed such in the office of the county auditor. [L. '09, p. 777, § 11.]

§ 5819. Inspector—Duties and Salary—Pay of Supervisors.—The committee of supervisors and county engineer together shall appoint some suitable and competent person, other than one of said committee, as an inspector of such work as it progresses, whose duty it shall be to be upon the work at all times during its progress and to inspect and observe the performance thereof and to report to and be under the supervision of the county engineer, and to inform said county engineer and said committee of supervisors of any inferior materials used or any departure from the plans and specifications not authorized by said county engineer and committee of supervisors; and he shall be paid for his services as such inspector at the rate of three dollars per day for the time he is actually engaged upon said works. Each member of the committee of supervisors shall be paid for his services the sum of three dollars per day for the time said committee of supervisors is actually engaged in meeting and acting with said county engineer, and in transacting as a committee the business of said local improvement district, until the work of said improvement shall have been fully completed and accepted by them and said county engineer. [L. '09, p. 778, § 12.]

§ 5820. Assessment-roll — Notice — Hearing — Objections—Confirmation.—When the final order for said improvement shall have been made, such county engineer and committee of supervisors shall proceed to apportion the estimated cost and expenses of said improvement upon the land embraced in said improvement district, according to the benefits to be derived therefrom, and, not more than thirty days after said contract shall have been let as hereinbefore provided, report to and file with the board of county commissioners an assessment-roll, in duplicate, prepared by such surveyor [engineer], which shall contain the description of each lot or parcel of land or part thereof to be assessed, the amount to be charged, levied or assessed against each lot or parcel of land or part thereof in proportion to the special benefits to be derived by each such lot or parcel or part thereof from such improvement, and the name of the owner of each such lot or parcel of land or part thereof, if known, but in no case shall a mistake in the name of the owner be fatal when the description of the property is correct. As soon as said assessment-roll shall have been so reported and filed, the county commissioners shall cause notice to be published for three consecutive weeks, which notice shall be published in the newspapers in which notice of invitation for bids for the letting of said contract was published, notifying all persons interested that said assessment-roll has been filed, and requiring them to appear at the office of the county commissioners, at the county seat, at a time not less than fifteen days from the date of the last issue of said publication of said notice, and make objections thereto if any they have. At the time fixed the county commissioners shall meet, and, if no objections have been filed to said assessment-roll, they shall make and enter an order confirming the same; but if objections, in writing, have been filed by any of the land owners affected thereby, the county commissioners shall proceed to hear such objections and for that purpose shall hear any testimony that shall be offered by any party interested; and either one of the county commissioners shall be authorized to administer oaths to witnesses. After such hearing they shall make such corrections and changes, if any, as to them shall appear just and requisite to apportion the assessment to the benefits to be received from such improvement, and shall then make and enter an order approving and certifying such assessment-roll, and levying and assessing the amounts thereof against each and all of the lots and parcels of land, or parts thereof, respectively, included in said roll as approved, and the same shall become a first lien thereon. The costs and expenses of surveys and of all preliminary proceedings to and including the letting of the contract and giving notice that the assessment-roll has been certified for collection and the preparation, issuance and disposal of the warrants for the payment of the cost and expenses of such improvement shall be paid out of the county treasury, and shall be refunded, as well as all other amounts advanced by the county for expenses of such improvement, or for damages as hereinbefore provided, from the local improvement funds as soon as sufficient thereof shall come into the hands of the county treasurer. [L. '09, p. 778, § 13.]

§ 5821. Modes of Payment.—There shall be two modes of making payment of such special assessments chargeable against the several tracts and parcels of land included in such local improvement district, namely, that of "immediate payment" and that of "payment by warrants." The mode adopted and the period, not exceeding ten years, over which such warrants shall be made payable, shall be that petitioned for. [L. '09, p. 780, § 14.]

§ 5822. "Immediate Payment"—Notice—Collection.—In case of the payment of such assessments by the mode of immediate payment, the county commissioners, as soon as such assessment-roll has been approved and certified, shall deliver the same to the county auditor, who shall file one of such duplicates thereof in his office with the files of the proceedings of said county commissioners in relation to such improvement district, and shall immediately deliver the other of said duplicates to the county treasurer for the collection of such assessments. The county treasurer shall give notice by publication for two consecutive weeks in the newspapers in which notice of proposals for bids was advertised, and shall mail a copy of such notice to the owner of the property assessed when the name of such owner and his postoffice address is known, but the failure to mail such notice shall not be fatal when publication thereof is made, which said notice shall state that such assessment-roll has been certified to him for collection, and that unless payment is made within thirty days from the date of such notice such assessment will become delinquent and shall bear interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum, and if not paid before such assessment shall have become delinquent, a penalty of five per cent shall be added, and the sums delinquent shall be added on the annual tax-roll for the current year against each lot, tract and parcel so delinquent, and, with the interest and penalty, collected as other taxes, separate account being kept thereof, and if not paid within the time fixed for the payment of general county taxes, shall be collected as such taxes are collected, together with such additional charges and penalties as are authorized to be charged and collected on other delinquent taxes, and each lot, tract or parcel so delinquent shall be sold for the amount of such assessment, with interest, penalty and costs, at the time and in the manner and by the same authority and process as lands and lots are sold for general county taxes. [L. '09, p. 780, § 15.]

§ 5823. "Payment by Warrants"—Collection of Installments.—In case of the mode of "payment by warrants" being adopted, the county commissioners, and the county engineer and committee of supervisors, shall proceed the same in all respects as in case of the mode of "immediate payment," to the approval and certifying of the assessment-roll; but the county commissioners at the time of levying said assessment, and in their order making such levy, shall provide and declare that the sum charged thereby against each of such tracts or parcels of land may be paid in equal annual installments, with interest upon the whole sum so charged at the rate fixed in said order, specifying the number of such installments, which shall be equal to the number of years which the warrants issued to pay for the improvement may run before payment of the same may be demanded by the holder thereof; and each year thereafter the county treasurer shall collect one of said installments, together with the interest due thereon and on all installments thereafter to become due, in the same manner and with the same added penalty and interest in case of delinquency, and by means of the same proceedings to enforce such payment by the sale of the land as hereinbefore provided for the collection of said assessment by the method of immediate payment. [L. '09, p. 781, § 16.]

§ 5824. Special Warrants to Contractor.—The county commissioners may, and in all cases where the improvement is ordered upon a petition specifying the method of payment by warrants, must provide for the payment of the cost and expenses of such improvement, to be made under the provisions of this chapter, by special warrants as a charge against the property of the local improvement district, issued to the contractor in payment of the contract price, or by the proceeds of such warrants to be issued and sold as hereinafter provided. [L. '09, p. 781, § 17.]

§ 5825. Issuance of Special Warrants—Interest—Form, etc.—The county commissioners shall make and enter an order authorizing and directing the issuance of such warrants, which by their terms shall be made payable on or before a date not to exceed ten years from and after the date of their issue, which latter date may be fixed by the order, and payment of which shall not be demanded by the holder thereof until the end of said period, and they shall bear such interest as shall insure their being disposed of at par and as may be provided for in said order, not exceeding ten per cent per annum, which interest shall be payable annually, and each warrant shall have attached thereto interest coupons for each interest payment. Such warrants shall bear the date of issue and be made payable to bearer. The warrants and each coupon shall be signed by the chairman of the board of county commissioners and shall be attested by the clerk of said board, and the seal of such board shall be affixed to each warrant but not to the coupon. Such warrant shall be printed, engraved or lithographed on good bond paper, and state on its face that it is issued in accordance and compliance with this act, designating the same by title and date of approval. Such warrants shall be in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and they shall refer to the improvement to pay for which the same shall be issued, and to the order and record thereof authorizing the same; each warrant shall provide that the principal sum therein named, and the interest thereon, shall be payable out of the local improvement fund created by special assessment for the payment of the cost and expenses of such improvement, and not otherwise, and shall bear upon its face the designation of the local improvement district, thus, Local Improvement District Number —— in —— County, Washington. Such warrants shall not be issued in excess of the cost and expenses of the improvement. [L. '09, p. 782, § 18.]

§ 5826. Payment of Assessments—Redemption of Warrants.—In case of payment by such special warrants, the county treasurer shall give notice by publication for two consecutive weeks, and shall mail a copy of such notice to the owner of the property assessed in the manner and with the same qualifications as to the giving of such notice provided in section 5823 of this chapter with regard to immediate payment, which notice shall state that such assessment-roll has been certified to him for collection, and that unless payment of the whole amount of such assessment is made within thirty days from the date of such notice, special warrants will be issued against said property for the payment of said assessment, and thereafter the same will be payable in annual installments with interest thereon at the rate provided for in said warrants. At any time within such thirty days any owner of lands within such local improvement district may pay the said assessment chargeable against his said lands, and release and discharge the same therefrom and from the operation and effect of such warrants; and no warrants shall be issued until twenty days after the expiration of such thirty days, nor for any amounts of such assessment so paid in full within such thirty days. The owner of any such lands may redeem the same from all liability for such assessment at any time after said thirty days by paying the entire installments of said assessment remaining unpaid and charged against such lands at the time of such payment with interest and all charges thereon to the date of the maturity of the installment next falling due. In all cases where any assessment or any installment thereof is paid as herein provided, the same shall be paid to the county treasurer, and all sums so paid shall be applied solely to the payment of the cost and expenses of such improvement, or to the redemption of such warrants issued therefor if paid after such warrants are issued. [L. '09, p. 783, § 19.]

§ 5827. Warrants—Sale of—Contractor may Take Proceeds Applied.—The special warrants issued under the provisions of this act, or such portion thereof as may remain unsold, if the same are ordered sold by the county commissioners, may be issued to the contractor constructing the improvement in payment therefor, or the order of the board of county commissioners directing the issuance of such warrants may provide that the same may be sold by the county treasurer, in the manner prescribed in such order, at not less than their par value and accrued interest; and the proceeds of such warrants shall be applied in payment of the cost and expenses of such improvement. [L. '09, p. 783, § 20.]

§ 5828. Warrants—Payment of Interest, Call for.—The county treasurer shall pay the interest on the warrants authorized to be issued by this act out of the funds of the local improvement district collected on assessments on account of which said warrants are issued. Whenever there shall be sufficient money in such local improvement fund against which such warrants have been issued under the provisions of this act, over and above sufficient for the payment of interest on all unpaid warrants, to pay the principal of one or more of such warrants, he shall call in and pay such warrants in their numerical order. Such call shall be made by publication in the county official newspaper on the day following the maturity date of the installment of assessment or as soon thereafter as practicable, and shall state that special warrants No. —— (giving the serial number or numbers of said warrants called) of such local improvement district will be paid on the day the next interest coupons of said warrants shall become due, and interest upon said warrants thus called shall cease upon said date. [L. '09, p. 784, § 21.]

§ 5829. Collection by Holder.—If the county treasurer shall fail, neglect or refuse to pay said warrants issued under the provisions of this act, or to collect promptly any such assessments when due, the owner of any such warrants may proceed in his own name to collect such assessments and to foreclose the lien thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall recover in addition to the amount of such warrants and interest thereon, five per centum, together with the costs of such suit. Any number of holders of such warrants for any single improvement may join as plaintiffs and any number of owners of the property on which the same are a lien may be joined as defendants in such suit. Neither the holder nor any owner of any such warrant issued under the authority of this act shall have any claim therefor against the county through the instrumentality of which the same is issued, except from the special assessment made for the improvement for which such warrant was issued, but his remedy in case of nonpayment shall be confined to the enforcement of such assessments. A copy of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on each warrant so issued. [L. '09, p. 784, § 22.]

§ 5830. Claims Audited—Order for Payment—Disbursement.—It shall be the duty of the county auditor to audit all claims and accounts for services and every kind of expense payable from the funds of the local improvement district, when the same shall have been first approved and certified by the committee of supervisors; and when so approved and audited, the county auditor shall issue to the county treasurer an order, in favor of the person to whom such claim or account is payable, to pay the same, and upon the presentation of such order by the person to whom it was issued, or his assignee, the county treasurer shall pay the same from the funds of such local improvement district provided for the payment of the cost and expenses of such improvement, and not otherwise. Estimates for work done under the contract for the construction and completion of such improvement shall be made by the county engineer with the approval of the committee of supervisors, and the same shall be likewise audited by the county auditor, and, when so made, approved and audited, the same shall be likewise paid by the county treasurer upon the order of the county auditor, to an amount, however, not exceeding eighty per centum of such estimate during the progress of the work. In case of said assessment being made payable by installments, the county treasurer shall pay such order only from such assessments as shall have been collected prior to the issue of such special local improvement warrants and from the proceeds of the sales of such warrants after the issue thereof; but in case it has been arranged with the contractor for the work, and ordered by the board of county commissioners, that such contractor shall receive such warrants to pay the contract price of the work, such order of the county auditor upon such approved estimates shall call for such warrants instead of money, and shall be paid in such warrants by the county treasurer, with whom the same shall be deposited for that purpose, and in that case such warrants shall not be given a date prior to the time of their delivery to such contractor upon such order, which date shall be then written in such warrants by the county treasurer and be deemed to be the date of their issue, from which interest shall begin to run and the time at or after which their payment may be demanded by the holder shall be computed. The amounts collected upon the installment payments of such assessments shall be reserved and disbursed by said county treasurer for the payment of the principal and interest on and for the redemption of such warrants. The proceeds from the sale of such warrants shall be disbursed by such county treasurer in payment of the cost and expenses of such construction and improvement of such county road, upon the orders of such county auditor, as hereinabove provided. [L. '09, p. 785, § 23.]

§ 5831. Refund of Excess for Improvement District.—Any money remaining in the county treasury belonging to the funds of such local improvement district, after the payment of the whole cost and expense of such construction or improvement, in excess of the total sum required to defray all expenditures on account thereof, including the reimbursement of the county for any advancements, shall be refunded, on demand, to the amount of such overpayment; and if there shall be such an excess in the assessment of any person who shall not have paid his assessment in full a rebate shall, on demand, be allowed to such person to the amount of such over-assessment: Provided, such demand hereinabove provided for be made within two years from the date upon which the assessment for such local improvement district became due. Any such funds remaining in the county treasury after the expiration of two years for which no demand has been made as herein provided, belonging to any local improvement district, after the payment of the whole cost and expense of such improvement shall go into a special fund and be disbursed by the county treasurer under the directions of the county commissioners for keeping in repair the county road or part thereof so improved in said local improvement district. [L. '09, p. 786, § 24.]

§ 5832. Actions Arising Out of Improvements and Assessments.—No person shall be permitted to take advantage of any error committed in any proceeding to lay out, construct or improve any county road, or part thereof, under and by virtue of this chapter nor of any error committed by the county commissioners or by the county auditor, or county treasurer or county engineer or any other person or persons in the proceedings to lay out, construct or improve such road; nor of any informality, error, or defect appearing in the record of such proceedings, unless the party complaining is affected thereby. But the court in which any action may be brought to enjoin, reverse, or declare void the proceedings by which any such road has been laid out, constructed or improved, or ordered to be laid out, constructed or improved, or to enjoin the collection of any tax or assessment levied or ordered to be levied for the purpose aforesaid, may, if there be manifest error in such proceedings affecting the rights of the plaintiff in such action, set the same aside, as to him, without affecting the rights or liabilities of other parties in interest; and the court shall, in the final hearing, make such order in the premises as may be equitable and just, and may order the assessment levied against the plaintiff's property to remain on the assessment-roll for collection, or to be again levied in whole or in part, or may perpetually enjoin the same, or any part thereof. The cost of such action, and the proceedings had therein, shall be apportioned among the parties, or paid out of the county treasury, in whole or in part, as justice may require and the court direct: Provided, that all the land liable to assessment, under the provisions of this act, for the construction of such road, shall be held responsible to the county, to protect the county against all loss or liability arising from any judicial proceedings affecting the assessment for benefits, and also all costs and expenses that may arise in any litigation; and reassessments by the county engineer and committee of supervisors shall be made to discharge the same. [L. '09, p. 787, § 25.]

§ 5833. Roads Kept Up by County.—All roads laid out, constructed or improved under the provisions of this chapter shall thereafter be maintained in repair by the county, as other roads are kept and maintained in repair. [L. '09, p. 788, § 26.]

§ 5834. Act Concurrent With Existing Laws.—Nothing herein shall be construed as repealing or modifying any existing law for the creation, laying out, opening, construction or improvement of any public highway or county road, but shall be construed as an additional power and method for the improvement of county roads, and as extending to owners of rural lands a similar right to that enjoyed by cities of the first class of making good roads of the public highways which are appurtenant to such lands at their own expense by charging the cost thereof upon such lands specially benefited, without impairing the county general funds or road and bridge funds, and shall be construed as co-operating and concurrent with the laws providing for the improvement of public highways under the supervision of the state highway commissioner. [L. '09, p. 788, § 27.]

CHAPTER XX.

Metropolitan Park Districts.

§ 5835. Organization Authorized.—The cities of the first class in the state of Washington, and such contiguous property the residents of which may decide in favor thereof in the manner hereinafter set out, are hereby authorized and empowered to create a metropolitan park district for the management, control, improvement maintenance, and acquisition of parks, park ways, and boulevards, now or hereafter located within such park district. [L. '07, p. 182, § 1.]

§ 5836. Petition for Election for Formation of District.—At any general election, or at any special election which may be called for that purpose, or at any city election held in such city in each of the various voting precincts of such city, the city council may, or on petition of fifteen per cent of the qualified electors of such city based upon the registration for the last preceding general city election shall, by ordinance, submit to the voters of such city the proposition of creating a metropolitan park district, the limits of which park district shall be coextensive with the limits of such city as now or hereafter established, inclusive of territory annexed to and forming a part of such incorporated city of the first class, which said territory by virtue of such annexation to any city having theretofore created a park district under this chapter shall be deemed to be the limits of such metropolitan park district, and the city council shall submit such proposition at the special election to be called therefor when such petition so requests. In submitting the said question to the voters for their approval or rejection, such city council shall pass an ordinance declaring its intention to submit the proposition of creating a metropolitan park district to the qualified voters of such city, which said ordinance shall be published for at least five days in a daily newspaper published in said city, and said city council shall cause to be placed upon the ballot for such election, at the proper place, the proposition which shall be expressed on said ballot in the following terms:

○ "For the formation of a metropolitan park district."

○ "Against the formation of a metropolitan park district."

§ 5837. Park Districts — Elections—Commissioners.—If at such election a majority of the voters voting upon such proposition shall vote in favor of the formation of such park district, the city council shall so declare in its canvass of the returns of such election, and such park district shall then be and become a municipal corporation of the state of Washington, and the name of such metropolitan park district shall be "Metropolitan Park District of —— (inserting the name of the city constituting the park district)." At the same election at which the proposition is submitted to the voters as to whether a metropolitan park district shall be formed, five (5) park commissioners shall be elected to hold office respectively for the terms of one, two, three, four and five years, and until their respective successors are elected, the term of each nominee for park commissioners to be expressed on the ballot. And thereafter, and at least thirty (30) days prior to the first Tuesday of June in each year, such board of park commissioners shall give notice by publication in at least five issues of a daily newspaper published within said metropolitan park district that an election will be held on the first Tuesday of June thereafter for a park commissioner to hold office for five years and until his successor is elected. Nominations for park commissioners shall be by petition of one hundred (100) qualified electors of such park district, to be filed in the office of the city clerk of such city for the first election, and with the clerk of such metropolitan park district for all succeeding elections, such nominations to be so filed at least five (5) days prior to such election: Provided, however, that there shall be no election held on the first Tuesday of June immediately following the creation of such park district: And provided further, that in the event of a vacancy caused by death, resignation or otherwise, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by a majority vote of the remaining commissioners until the next regular election for park commissioner. Said board of metropolitan park commissioners shall designate in their notice of election whether such election be a general or special election, the time of opening and closing the polls and the places for voting, but in no event shall there be less than one voting place in each of the various wards of such city, and at least one voting place in any outlying district annexed to such park district and not within the city. The polls shall be kept open at every election held by said park district at least from 1 o'clock P. M. to 7 o'clock P. M., but said park commissioners may keep the polls open for a longer period of time if they shall so order, but the time of opening and closing the polls must be stated in the notice of election, and the polls shall be opened and closed in accordance with such notice. Any person residing in said park district who is, at the time of holding of any such election, a qualified voter under the laws of the state of Washington, shall be entitled to vote at any election held in such metropolitan park district. The officers of the city or county having charge of the registration books shall deliver the same to the park commissioners for the use of the election officers at any election held in a metropolitan park district formed under and in accordance with the provisions of this act. And the registration of voters for elections to be held in such metropolitan park district shall be conducted by the city clerk and officers of registration of the city and territory embraced within said metropolitan park district; and the notice prescribed to be given by section 4765, supra, shall constitute sufficient notice to citizens residing within said metropolitan park district for registration for any general or special election therein, without the necessity for such notice specially stating that it is for registration for an election to be held by a metropolitan park district. And any elector who shall have registered in accordance with the laws of this state entitling him to vote at a general or special election in the city or territory comprised within such metropolitan park district within time to constitute same a good registration for any general or special election of said metropolitan park district shall be entitled to vote thereat without further or other registration. The clerk of such metropolitan park district shall give notice of the closing of the poll-books for registration for any general or special election of such park district, by a notice published at least ten (10) days preceding such closing, such published notice to have at least two (2) insertions in a newspaper of general circulation in such park district. And such poll-books shall be closed for the purpose of registration of voters for any general or special park district election five (5) days preceding such election, and such published notice shall so declare: Provided, however, that said poll-books shall not thereby be deemed closed for general, county or city municipal elections, but closed only for general or special metropolitan park district elections. The city clerk or registration officer required to perform the duties enumerated under this act shall receive no additional compensation therefor. The general laws of the state of Washington governing the registration of voters for general or special city municipal elections, when not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions, shall govern the registration of voters for elections held under this chapter, and the registration books of the city and territory comprising said park district shall be the books used by said park district, and no separate registration books shall be kept or maintained by it. The manner of holding any general or special election for said metropolitan park district shall be in accordance with the laws of this state, and the charter provisions of the city within which said park district lies, in so far as the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act. [L. '07, p. 183, § 3; L. '09, p. 428, § 2.]

§ 5838. Board of Park Commissioners—Officers—Powers and Duties.—When the said metropolitan park district shall be created as hereinbefore provided for, it shall at once be and become a separate and distinct corporation, the officers of which shall be a board of park commissioners consisting of five members, and said board of park commissioners shall annually elect one of their number as president and another of their number as clerk of said board. Such corporation is hereby given the right of eminent domain, and may purchase, acquire, and condemn lands for public parks, parkways, and boulevards, and may condemn lands to widen, alter, and extend streets, avenues, boulevards, and parkways, to enlarge and extend existing parks, and to acquire lands for the establishment of new parks, boulevards, and parkways. Said board of park commissioners, as such civil service commission, shall adopt rules for the employment of necessary employees, shall provide for examinations at such times, and upon such subjects, as they may deem necessary, and the employment of such park employees shall be wholly upon the merit system. No park employee shall be discharged except for incompetency, inability to perform their duties, offensive partisanship, or such other reasons as may be deemed sufficient by such board, and then only after a full and fair hearing upon written charges filed with such board: Provided, however, that when the necessity for further continuing any park employee shall cease, such park commissioners shall have power to discharge such employee; it being the true intent and meaning of this act to place the sole acquisition, management, improvement and control of all parks, boulevards, and parkways, in such board of park commissioners; and the control, management, and improvement of any such park, parkways, and boulevards as shall be within or without the limits of any city and under its control, creating a metropolitan park district pursuant to this act, shall immediately vest in such board of park commissioners: Provided, however, that all such parks, boulevards and parkways shall be subject to the police regulations of any city within which they may lie. [L. '07, p. 184, § 4.]

§ 5839. Tax Levy—Limit of—Collection.—Said board of park commissioners are hereby authorized to levy, or cause to be levied, a general tax on all the property located in said park district each year, not to exceed one and one-half mills on the assessed valuation of the property in such park district. Said taxes when so levied shall be certified to the proper county officials for collection the same as other general taxes. When such money is collected it shall be placed in a separate fund, to be known as the "Metropolitan Park District Fund," and paid out on warrants issued on the board of park commissioners for the purposes specified in this act. [L. '07, p. 185, § 5.]

§ 5840. Limit of Indebtedness.—Each and every metropolitan park district that may hereafter be organized pursuant to this chapter is hereby authorized and empowered, by and through its board of commissioners, to contract indebtedness for park, boulevard and parkway purposes, and the extension and maintenance thereof, not exceeding one quarter of one (¼) per cent of the taxable property in such metropolitan park district, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness. [L. '07, p. 186, § 6.]

§ 5841. Additional Indebtedness—Election to Authorize.—Each and every metropolitan park district hereafter to be organized, pursuant to this chapter, may contract indebtedness in excess of the amount named in the preceding section, but not exceeding in amount, together with existing indebtedness, five (5) per centum of the taxable property in said district, to be ascertained as provided in the preceding section, whenever three-fifths (⅗) of the voters voting at said election in such metropolitan park district assent thereto, at an election to be held in said metropolitan park district, in the manner provided by this act, which election may be either a special or a general election, and the park commissioners of such metropolitan park district are hereby authorized and empowered to submit the question of incurring such indebtedness, and issuing negotiable bonds of such metropolitan park district, to the qualified voters of such park district at any time they may so order. [L. '07, p. 186, § 7.]

§ 5842. Bonds—Issuance and Disposal of.—In case the question of incurring indebtedness and issuing bonds as set forth and described in section 5841 shall be submitted to the voters of such metropolitan park district and carried as hereinabove provided for,

§ 5843. Same—Denomination, Interest, Form, etc.—Said bonds shall be in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars. They shall bear the date of issue, shall be made payable to the bearer, in not more than twenty (20) years from date of issue, and bear interest at a rate not exceeding five (5) per cent per annum, payable annually, with coupons attached, for each interest payment. The bonds and each coupon shall be signed by the presiding officer of the board of park commissioners and shall be attested by the clerk of said board, who shall be a member thereof. Said bonds shall be printed, engraved, or lithographed on good bond paper, and the bond shall state on its face that it is issued in accordance, and in strict compliance with an act of the legislature of the state of Washington, entitled: "An act authorizing the formation of metropolitan park districts, providing for park officials, fixing their powers and duties, and declaring an emergency," approved March 11, 1907, and the act amendatory thereof approved on the —— day of ——, 1909 (inserting the date of the approval of this act). Said bonds shall be payable as therein designated in any city of the United States having a national bank. [L. '07, p. 187, § 9; L. '09, p. 431, § 3.]

§ 5844. Tax Levy for Interest and Redemption.—Said commissioners shall include in their general tax levy for each year a sufficient sum to pay the interest on all outstanding bonds, and may include a sufficient amount to create a sinking fund for the redemption of such bonds. Said bonds shall be numbered from one (1) up consecutively, and shall be payable in the order of their number beginning with bond numbered one (1). [L. '07, p. 187, § 10; L. '09, p. 431, § 4.]

§ 5845. Payment of Bonds—Notice of Call.—Whenever there is money in the funds of such metropolitan park district and the commissioners shall deem it advisable to apply the same or any part thereof upon the payment of bonded indebtedness, they shall advertise in a daily newspaper published within said park district for the presentation to them for payment of as many bonds issued under the provisions of this act as they may desire to pay with the funds on hand, said bonds to be paid in numerical order, beginning with bond numbered one, until all of said bonds are paid: Provided, that thirty (30) days after the first publication of said

notice by the board of such park district, calling in any of said bonds by their number, said bonds shall cease to bear interest, which shall be stated in the notice calling for such bonds. [L. '07, p. 187, § 11.]

§ 5846. Interest Coupons—Payment of.—The coupons hereinbefore mentioned for the payment of interest on said bonds shall be considered in all purposes as warrants drawn upon the general fund of the said metropolitan park district issuing such bonds, and when presented to the treasurer of the county having custody of the funds of such park district at maturity, or thereafter, and when so presented, if there are no funds in the treasury to pay the said coupons, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to indorse said coupons as presented for payment, in the same manner as county warrants are indorsed, and thereafter said coupons shall bear interest at the same rate as the bond to which it was attached. [L. '07, p. 188, § 12.]

§ 5847. Registration of Bonds, by County Treasurer and Park Board.—Before the bonds are delivered to the purchaser, they shall be presented to the county treasurer who shall register them in a book kept for that purpose and known as the "Metropolitan Park Bond Register," in which register shall be entered the number of each bond, date of issue and maturity, amount, rate of interest, to whom and when payable. Such county treasurer shall receive no compensation other than his regular salary for receiving and disbursing the funds of such metropolitan park district. § 5848. Powers of Commissioners.—Said park commissioners shall have power to improve, acquire, extend, and maintain, open and lay out parks, parkways, boulevards, and avenues within said park district, and may pay out moneys for the purchase of lands, improvements, maintenance, and all expenses incidental to their office and duties. [L. '07, p. 188, § 14.]

§ 5849. Improvement on Local Assessment Plan.—If at any time any proposed improvement of any parkway, avenue, street, or boulevard shall be deemed by said park commissioners to be a special benefit to the lands adjoining, contiguous, approximate to or in the neighborhood of such proposed improvement, if such lands be within the corporate limits of any city of the first class, such board of park commissioners may so declare and order, designating the property to be benefited thereby, and thereupon they may petition the city council of such city to cause such improvement as said commissioners may direct to be done and made on the local assessment plan, and the portion of the cost of such improvement as fixed by such assessment-roll assessed against the said property so benefited in the same manner and under the same procedure as is now, or may hereafter be, enacted for local improvements by cities of the first class, in so far as such procedure is not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and the remainder of the cost of such improvement to be paid out of any funds of such metropolitan park district in its possession or under its control. Said board of park commissioners shall designate the kind, manner and style of the improvement so to be made, and may designate the time within which same shall be made. [L. '07, p. 188, § 15; L. '09, p. 432, § 5.]

§ 5850. City may Give Lands.—Any city of the first class within or comprising any such metropolitan park district is hereby given authority to turn over to said park commissioners any lands which it may own, or any street, avenue, or public place within said city for park or parkway purposes, and thereafter the control and management of the same shall vest exclusively in the said board of park commissioners: Provided, however, that the police regulations of such city shall apply to all such premises. [L. '07, p. 189, § 16.]

§ 5851. Objections to Assessments—Appeals.—Any person, firm or corporation, feeling aggrieved by the assessment against his or its property, may file objections with the city council, and may appeal from the order confirming said assessment-roll, in the same manner as objections and appeals are made in regard to local improvements in cities of the first class in the state of Washington. [L. '07, p. 189, § 17.]

§ 5852. Lien and Collection of Assessment.—The assessment for local improvements authorized by this chapter shall become a lien in the same manner, and be governed by the same law, as is provided for local assessments in cities of the first class, and such assessment shall be collected as local improvements in said cities of the first class. [L. '07, p. 189, § 18.]

§ 5853. Donations.—Said park commissioners shall have power to accept public streets of the city and grounds for public purposes when the same shall be donated for park, boulevard, and parkway purposes. [L. '07, p. 189, § 19.]

§ 5854. Annexation of Territory—Petition for Election for.—The territory adjoining and in the same county with any park district organized under this chapter may be annexed to and become a part of such metropolitan park district, in the manner following: Any twenty-five (25) legal voters, residents within the territory proposed to be annexed, may petition the board of park commissioners of such district to cause the question to be submitted to the legal voters of the territory proposed to be annexed, whether they will be annexed and become a part of such adjoining park district: Provided, however, that where such territory proposed to be annexed shall be within the limits of an incorporated city or town other than the first class, such petition shall be signed by at least twenty (20) per cent of the qualified electors residing within such territory. The petition shall define the limits of the territory proposed to be annexed to such park district. Upon the filing of such petition with the board of park commissioners, if said commissioners shall concur in said petition, they shall provide for a hearing to be held for the discussion of such proposed annexation at the office of said board of park commissioners, and shall give due notice of such hearing by publication in a daily newspaper published in said park district for at least five (5) days prior to said hearing. If said park commissioners shall concur in said petition, it shall be their duty to submit the proposal to the electors of such territory proposed to be annexed, at an election to be held in such territory. The said commissioners shall, by order of such board duly adopted, fix a time and place or places within the limits of the territory proposed to be annexed, for the holding of such election to determine the question of annexation, and said commissioners shall name the persons to act as judges at such election, and shall give notice thereof by causing notice to be published for five (5) days in five (5) consecutive issues of a daily newspaper published in said park district, and by posting notices in five (5) public places within the territory proposed to be annexed to said district. The ballot to be used at such election shall be in the following form:

☐ "For annexation to metropolitan park district."

☐ "Against annexation to metropolitan park district."

The judge or judges at such election shall make return thereof to the board of park commissioners, who shall canvass such return and cause a statement of the result of such election to be entered on the record of such commissioners. If the majority of the votes cast upon that question at such election shall be for annexation, then such territory shall immediately be and become annexed to such park district, and the same shall thenceforth be a part of said park district, the same as though originally included in such district. [L. '07, p. 189, § 20.]

§ 5855. Election—Officers—Expense.—All election officers for any election held pursuant to this chapter shall be named by the board of park commissioners, and the expense of all such elections shall be paid out of the funds of such metropolitan park district. [L. '07, p. 191, § 21.]

§ 5856. Indebtedness Against Park Property Assumed by District. When any metropolitan park district shall be formed pursuant to this chapter, and shall assume control of the parks, parkways, boulevards, and park property of the city in which said park district is created, such park district shall assume all existing indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, against such park property, and shall arrange by taxation or issuing bonds, as herein provided, for the payment of such indebtedness, and shall relieve such city from such payment. Said park district is hereby given authority to issue refunding bonds when necessary in order to enable it to comply with this section. [L. '07, p. 191, § 22.]

CHAPTER XX-A.

Arterial Streets.

§ 5856-1. "Arterial" Streets Defined.—Whenever any street, avenue or highway within any city or town shall connect at or near the corporate limits of such city or town with any public road or highway not less than two miles in length, and constructed along a main line of travel being uniformly graded to a width of not less than sixteen feet, and having proper bridges, drains and culverts, and surfaced with macadam, stone, compacted gravel, or other material equally as permanent and durable, not less than twelve feet in width, such street, avenue or highway may be improved by grading or regrading, planking or replanking, paving or repaving, macadamizing or remacadamizing, graveling or regraveling, bridging or rebridging, surfacing or resurfacing, from the point of connection with such road or highway to the business center of such city or town, or to a connection with a permanently surfaced street leading thereto, under the provisions of this act. Streets improved under the provisions of this act shall be known as "arterial streets." [L. '13, p. 142, § 1.]

Cited in 87 Wash. 192, 194.

§ 5856-2. Resolution to Improve Arterial Street.—Whenever the city council or other governing body of any city or town shall desire to improve any arterial street under the provisions of this act it shall adopt a resolution designating the street or streets to be improved, the general character of the improvement to be made, the estimated cost thereof and the amount of such cost which will be of special benefit to the property, a certified copy of which resolution shall be forthwith transmitted to the board of county commissioners. If the board of county commissioners shall approve such resolution the city council or other governing body of such city or town shall thereupon be empowered to and shall improve such arterial street as above provided and to enter into contracts therefor. [L. '13, p. 143, § 2.]

Cited in 87 Wash. 194.

§ 5856–3. Local Improvement District — Limit of Assessments.— So much of the cost of such improvement as shall be of special benefit to property within such city or town shall be a charge upon such property, and the city council or other governing body shall cause to be created in the manner provided by law a local improvement district for the purpose of defraying so much of the cost as shall benefit property therein. The provisions of law with reference to the creation of local improvement districts for the improvement of streets shall, so far as the same are applicable, apply to arterial streets improved under the provisions of this act: Provided, however, that nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any property included in such improvement district from being charged under this act with any amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the valuation thereof, as last placed upon it for the purpose of general taxation, exclusive of improvements thereon. So much of the cost of such improvement as shall not be charged to property within the improvement district above provided for shall be paid equally by the county and the city or town. The board of county commissioners of any county is authorized and empowered to pay the portion of the cost chargeable to such county for the improvement of any arterial street under the provisions of this act from the general road and bridge fund of the county, or from the district road and bridge fund of the district with which such arterial street connects. The city council or other governing body of any city or town is authorized to pay the part of the cost of improving any arterial street under the provisions of this act, which shall be a charge against such city or town from the general fund of such city or town or from any special fund which shall be available for that purpose. [L. '13, p. 143, § 3.]

§ 5856–4. Limitation of Act.—This act shall not be construed as providing for the maintenance of said arterial highways within the limits of any municipality. [L. '13, p. 143, § 4.]

CHAPTER XXI.

For former laws on this subject see L. '54, p. 346, §§ 18, 19; Cd. '81, §§ 2984-2986; L. '88, p. 196.

§ 5857-1. Eminent Domain—What Included.—An owner, or one entitled to the beneficial use, of land which is so situate with respect to the land of another that it is necessary for its proper use and enjoyment to have and maintain a private way of necessity or to construct and maintain any drain, flume or ditch, on, across, over or through the land of such other, for agricultural, domestic or sanitary purposes, may condemn and take lands of such other sufficient in area for the construction and maintenance of such private way of necessity, or for the construction and maintenance of such drain, flume or ditch, as the case may be. The term "private way of necessity," as used in this act, shall mean and include a right of way on, across, over or through the land of another for means of ingress and egress, and the construction and maintenance thereon of roads, logging roads, flumes, canals, ditches, tunnels, tramways and other structures upon, over and through which timber, stone, minerals or other valuable materials and products may be transported and carried. [L. '13, p. 412, § 1.]

Cited in 77 Wash. 586; 82 Wash. 508.

§ 5857-2. Procedure for Condemnation.—The procedure for the condemnation of land for a private way of necessity or for drains, flumes or ditches under the provisions of this act shall be the same as that provided for the condemnation of private property by railroad companies, but no private property shall be taken or damaged until the compensation to be made therefor shall have been ascertained and paid as provided in the case of condemnation by railroad companies. [L. '13, p. 412, § 2.]

§ 5857-3. Logging Road to Carry Products.—Any person or corporation availing themselves of the provisions of this act for the purpose of acquiring a right of way for a logging road, as a condition precedent, [shall] contract and agree to carry and convey over such roads to either termini thereof any of the timber or other produce of the lands through which such right is acquired at any and all times, so long as said road is maintained and operated, and at reasonable prices; and a failure so to do shall terminate such right of way. The reasonableness of the rate shall be subject to determination by the public service commission. [L. '13, p. 412, § 3.]

§ 5858. Petition must Show What.—The person or persons desiring the location and establishment of such road shall set out in his or their petition a description of his or their lands, the situation of the highway with reference to such land, and such other facts as will show the necessity of the establishment of the road, and shall set out the estimated value of the lands to be appropriated for such road. [L. '95, p. 180, § 2.]

§ 5859. Bonds for Costs.—Before the hearing of such petition, the petitioner or someone in his behalf shall enter into a bond with two or more sureties to be approved by the county clerk, which bond shall be in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, payable to the state of Washington for the use of such persons as may be interested, conditioned that the obligors shall pay all costs and expenses incurred in the proceedings. [L. '95, p. 181, § 3.]

§ 5860. Commissioners to View Proposed Road.—Upon the hearing of said petition after notice thereof as prescribed by law, the court shall appoint three commissioners, who shall, on a day to be fixed by the court, in the order appointing them, view the lands of the petitioner, and the lands over which it is proposed to locate and establish such road, for the purpose of determining,—

First: Whether there is necessity for the establishment of a road: and,

Second: The most practicable route for such road, if the same be necessary, and the clerk of said court shall furnish to said commissioners a certified copy of the order so appointing them. [L. '95, p. 181, § 4.]

§ 5861. Report of Commissioners.—When said commissioners shall have made such examination they shall, within ten days after the day appointed by the court for such examination, report to the court in writing (filing the same with the clerk of said court), their decision as to the necessity for the road, and if they deem such road necessary, then they shall set out in such report an accurate description of the road and the route thereof, as recommended by such commissioners, and the estimated value of the land which would be taken for such road, and the amount to be allowed in damages to each separate owner of the lands sought to be appropriated, which in their estimation is just and equitable. [L. '95, p. 181, § 5.]

§ 5862. Exceptions to.—Any person interested may file exceptions in writing to such report at any time within thirty days after the time fixed by the court for the examination of such commissioners, and such report shall be heard and considered by the court as to the necessity for such road, and as to the location thereof. On the next day after the expiration of the time limited for the filing of exceptions, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, which hearing shall be by the court without a jury, and the court shall decide as to the necessity of such road, and if the same be found necessary, then the court shall fix the location of the road and establish such road, to be opened when compensation shall be made therefor as provided by law: Provided, that if the court do not approve the report of the commissioners as to the necessity of the road, or as to the route thereof, then the court may appoint other commissioners whose duties shall be the same as the duties of the commissioners first appointed. [L. '95, p. 181, § 6.]

§ 5863. Costs.—Such commissioners shall be allowed two dollars per day for their services, which shall be taxed as a part of the costs of the proceedings. All other costs shall be the same as in other civil actions and proceedings in such court, and all costs shall be taxed to and paid by the petitioner or petitioners. [L. '95, p. 182, § 7.]

§ 5864. Damages, When and How Awarded.—If, on the hearing of the report of the commissioners, the court shall find that there is necessity for the road, and shall by order determine the route thereof, then the cause shall be tried before a jury as to the amount of compensation to be made by way of damages for the establishment of the road: Provided, that such trial shall be had at a regular term [session] of such court when a jury shall be present. The trial shall be conducted and verdict rendered in the manner provided by law in the case of appropriation of private property by corporations: Provided further, that a jury may be waived as in other civil cases in courts of record in the manner prescribed by law. [L. '95, p. 182, § 8.]

§ 5865. Appeal.—No appeal shall be taken from any order of the court as to the necessity of the road or as to the route thereof until after judgment as to the amount of compensation: Provided, that exception shall be taken and entered to such orders at the time the same are made, and the appeal from such orders and from the judgment awarding such compensation shall be taken at one time: Provided further, that all the provisions of law relating to appeals from judgments in proceedings for the appropriation of private property by corporations shall apply to the proceedings provided for it in this chapter so far as the same are not inconsistent herewith. [L. '95, p. 182, § 9.]

§ 5866. Damages, Payment of.—Within twenty days after the judgment awarding damages the petitioner or petitioners shall pay into court the amount of the award of damages, together with the costs as aforesaid, and upon such payment judgment of appropriation shall be made establishing the road. [L. '95, p. 183, § 10.]

§ 5879–4. Highway Commission's Duty.—Such highway commissioner, upon receipt of such resolution, shall investigate and determine whether the highway or section thereof sought to be improved is of sufficient public importance to merit improvement under the provisions of this act, taking into consideration the use, location and value of such highway or section thereof for the purpose of common traffic and travel, and after such investigation shall certify his approval or disapproval of such resolution, and if he shall disapprove such resolution he shall state his reasons therefor.

All expenses incurred by the state highway commissioner under the provisions of this act shall be paid from the public highway fund. [L. '11, p. 119, § 4.]

§ 5879–5. County Engineer.—The board of county commissioners may require the county engineer to perform all engineering in connection with and to supervise any improvement work contemplated or prosecuted under the provisions of this act, or may in its discretion employ a construction engineer for that purpose and fix his compensation, such compensation to be paid by the county. [L. '11, p. 119, § 5.]

§ 5879–6. [L. '11, p. 119, § 6.]

§ 5879–7. Recommendation — Record. — Upon the completion of such profiles, maps, plans, specifications and estimate, a copy thereof shall be transmitted to the state highway commissioner, who shall thereupon examine the same and return them to the board of county commissioners, making such changes therein or recommendations with reference thereto as he may deem advisable, and certifying his approval thereof.

Upon receipt of such profiles, maps, plans, specifications and estimate, the board of county commissioners may pass a resolution adopting the same, and that such highway or section thereof shall be improved under the provisions of this act. No resolution thereafter adopted by said board shall have the effect of rescinding or annulling the resolution so adopting such profiles, maps, plans, specifications and estimate, unless the same shall be approved by the state highway commissioner. The profiles, maps, plans, specifications and estimate as finally adopted by the board of county commissioners shall be filed in its office and become a permanent record of the board, and certified copies thereof shall be transmitted to the state highway commissioner and to the county engineer. All contracts shall be let on the lump sum basis. Before entering into any contract for such construction or improvement, it shall require a corporate surety bond in the full amount of the contracts, conditioned that the party thereto will perform the work upon the terms, within the time, and in accordance with the contract, profiles, maps, plans and specifications, and that such party will indemnify the county against any direct or indirect damages that shall be suffered or claimed for injuries to persons or property during the construction and improvement of such highway and until the same is accepted. Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check in a sum equal to one-tenth of the amount of such bid, payable to the county, which shall be forfeited to the county upon the failure of the party, for a period of twenty days after any contract is awarded to any such party, to enter into a proper contract and furnish satisfactory bonds as required by this act. Monthly partial payments shall be provided for in the contract and paid in the manner therein provided, when certified by the county engineer or construction engineer employed, as the case may be, to an amount equal to eighty per centum of the value of the work done during the preceding month. Twenty per centum of the contract price shall be retained until the entire work has been accepted and no final payment shall be made until the state highway commissioner shall have examined the work or caused the same to be examined and certify to the state auditor that such work has been fully completed in accordance with the contract and the profiles, maps, plans and specifications governing such work. All payments to be made by the state upon contracts entered into in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be made by the state treasurer from the permanent highway fund hereinafter created, upon the warrant of the state auditor issued upon the presentation of proper vouchers by the person entitled thereto, said vouchers to be approved by the board of county commissioners, and the state highway commissioner, and, in case of final payment, to be accompanied by the certificate of the state highway commissioner as aforesaid. The state auditor shall issue no warrant for any purpose against the permanent highway fund hereinafter provided for unless there be sufficient money to pay such warrant in such fund to the credit of the county affected. No payment shall be made for any incidental changes during the progress of the work, unless the same shall have been approved by the board of county commissioners by resolution, and a copy of said resolution shall have been transmitted to the state highway commissioner. The board of county commissioners shall let no contract for the improvement of any permanent highway or section thereof less than one mile in length. Whenever any permanent highway shall be improved or constructed pursuant to a petition as provided for in section 5879–2, the proportion of the cost of such improvement chargeable to the property within the improvement district shall be paid out of the general road and bridge fund of the county, and all taxes assessed against abutting property under the provisions of the following section, and all moneys payable by any township, shall, when collected, be paid into said general road and bridge fund. All payments made from the general road and bridge fund upon contracts entered into in accordance with the provisions of this act, shall be made by the county treasurer upon warrants of the county auditor, issued upon the presentation of proper vouchers, approved by the board of county commissioners and the state highway commissioner. [L. '11, p. 121, § 9; L. '13, p. 485, § 3.]

§ 5879–10. Fifteen Per Cent Tax—Divisions—List—Roll—Assessment.—The county engineer of any county in which any highway or section thereof has been improved or constructed pursuant to a petition as provided in section 5879–2, shall have the power and it shall be his duty upon receiving notice from the board of county commissioners of the county in which said highway is located, of the cost of construction or improvement of such highway or section thereof, to prepare, verify and file with the county auditor an assessment-roll of the assessments and shall assess upon the lands benefited thereby, and situated within the boundaries of an improvement district, to be established, fifteen per cent or such greater per cent as may be stated in such petition, of said total cost. Such improvement district shall be constituted, and the boundaries thereof fixed, as follows: The highway coterminous with the improvement shall be the central line through the district, and the bordering lands on each side and within a distance of not less than six hundred and sixty feet, and not more than three miles, such width to be fixed by the board of county commissioners, from the center line of said highway and coterminous with the construction work or improvement shall be included in and constitute the body of the improvement district and shall be subject to assessment to the extent above provided. For the purpose of making an equitable apportionment of the assessment, such improvement district shall be divided longitudinally on each side of the center line of such highway, into three parts of equal width, which, beginning with the part abutting upon the highway, shall be known as the first, second and third subdivisions, respectively, of such improvement district. In case the petition shall call for the payment of fifteen per cent each separate tract or parcel of land in said first subdivision shall be assessed and be subject to a charge for a proportional part of seven per cent of the whole cost of the construction work or improvement of said highway, and it shall be subject to a lien therefor until it shall be paid; each separate tract or parcel of land within said second subdivision shall be assessed and subject to a charge for a proportional part of five per cent of the whole cost of such construction work or improvement and be subject to a lien therefor until it shall be paid; each separate tract or parcel of land in said third subdivision shall be assessed and subject to a charge for a proportional part of three per cent of the whole cost of such construction work or improvement and be subject to a lien therefor until it shall be paid. If the per cent of cost to be paid by such owners shall be greater than fifteen per cent the excess shall be assessed to the property in each subdivision upon the same ratio as such fifteen per cent. The charge upon the several separate tracts or parcels of lands in each subdivision shall be assessed ratably on the basis of the special benefits according to the actual area within such subdivision; that is to say, the area within the first subdivision shall be assessed seven-fifteenths, the area within the second subdivision shall be assessed five-fifteenths, and the area within the third subdivision shall be assessed three-fifteenths of the proportionate part of the cost assessed to the property in the assessment district. Each tract or parcel of land shall be assessed according to the relation of the area thereof to the total area within the subdivision wherein it is situated. The county engineer shall file such assessment-roll, as aforesaid, with the auditor of the county at least thirty days prior to the date prescribed by law for the first annual meeting of the county board of equalization after such list shall have been completed, and at said meeting, or an adjourned meeting, said board shall hear all objections to the assessments and determine the same, and correct all errors which may be found in such list; and after the same shall have been examined, compared and corrected by the county board of equalization, the assessment-roll shall be filed with the county treasurer, and the amount charged against the several lots, tracts or parcels of land within such improvement district shall be a lien upon such land, and shall be collected in the same manner as the general taxes of such county are collected, and shall become delinquent at the same time as general taxes, and after becoming delinquent shall be increased by the same percentage of penalty, and shall bear interest at the same rate as other delinquent state and county taxes: Provided, that the county commissioners may in their discretion by resolution duly certified to the county treasurer permit the payment of such taxes in ten equal annual installments, in which event each installment shall become delinquent as general taxes, and after becoming delinquent shall bear the same rate of interest as other delinquent state and county taxes: Provided, further, that the owner may pay all or any number of such installments at any time, and all deferred payments shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the thirty-first day of May of the year following the filing of the assessment-roll with the county treasurer: And provided further, that whenever the county commissioners shall have provided for the payment of said taxes in installments as aforesaid it may, if it shall deem necessary or proper, issue bonds of the county payable from the general road and bridge fund ten years after the date of the issuance thereof with such option to redeem as shall be considered advisable, in an amount not exceeding the proportion of the cost of such highway which shall be a charge against the abutting property, and that such bonds shall bear interest at a rate not greater than six per cent per annum and shall be sold at not less than par by the board of county commissioners in such manner as they shall deem advisable. A notice directed to all owners of property affected by such assessment, whether known or unknown, to appear before said county board of equalization on a day to be therein specified to make their objections, if they have any, to such assessments, shall be published by the county auditor in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in at least three issues on different days of said newspaper, the first of which shall be at least twenty days prior to the specified date for appearances, and said notice shall contain a description of the highway, for the construction or improvement of which the assessment is made, and enumerate the several sections of land, according to the United States surveys, which shall be wholly or partially included within the special improvement district. If any such assessment shall be deemed invalid by the county board of equalization or adjudged to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, a reassessment of the land within an improvement district with proper boundaries shall be made and collected in the manner herein prescribed. The county boards of equalization may hold adjourned or special sessions whenever it may be necessary to do so for the purpose of hearing objections to, and completing assessment lists required by this act.

All persons owning property abutting on such highway so improved, or residing thereon shall thereafter pay all highway taxes assessed against them in money, and in the manner now provided by law.

Where the petition for the improvement or construction of any permanent highway shall be signed by the board of supervisors of any township, or a majority of them, under the provisions of section 5879–2, the proportion of the assessment of abutting property shall, as to property within such township, be a charge upon such township and shall be paid by such township from the moneys raised for the purpose of constructing and improving roads therein into the general road and bridge fund of the county on or before the date of the approval of such construction or improvement work by the state highway commissioner. [L. '11, p. 122, § 10; L. '13, p. 487, § 4.]

§ 5879–11. Construction and Closing of Highway.—Whenever a contract has been let for the improvement or construction of any such highway in accordance with the provisions of this act, the contractors may and are hereby authorized to, whenever the engineer in charge of the work shall certify to the necessity therefor in writing, close any such highway or section thereof to the public by putting up a sufficient obstruction and notice to the effect that such highway is so closed. When such highway shall have been so closed to the public any person disregarding such obstruction and driving, riding or walking over any portion of such highways so inclosed, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. Nothing herein contained, however, shall relieve the contractors of the burden of keeping highways under construction at all times open to the public until the engineer in charge of the work shall have certified to the necessity for closing such highway and shall have filed such certificate in the office of the county auditor of the county within which such highway or section thereof is located. [L. '11, p. 125, § 11.]

§ 5879-12. Maintenance.—Whenever the improvement of any permanent highway shall have been completed and accepted under the provisions of this act, the same shall be maintained in the same manner as is provided by law for the maintenance of other public highways and roads. [L. '11, p. 126, § 12.]

§ 5879-13. Draining.—Whenever during the construction of any such highway, or after its completion, it may be necessary for the proper construction or maintenance thereof to open or maintain ditches or drains for the purpose of properly draining such highway, the county commissioners of the county within which such highway or section thereof is situated, shall have the right to enter upon the lands adjacent thereto and to open any existing ditch or drain or dig a new ditch or drain for the free passage of water for the purpose of draining such highway. Said county commissioners shall also be empowered to agree with the owner of any such lands upon the amount of damages, if any, sustained by him in consequence of such entry upon his lands and performance of the work hereby authorized, and the amount of damages so agreed upon shall be the road district charge and shall be audited and paid the same as other road district charges. If the county commissioners are unable to agree with such owner upon the amount of damages thus sustained, the amount thereof shall be ascertained and determined and paid in the same manner as damages are so ascertained, determined and paid where new highways are laid out and opened and the county commissioners and land owners are unable to agree upon the amount thereof. [L. '11, p. 126, § 13.]

§ 5879-14. Providing Revenue.—For the purpose of raising revenues for the improvement and maintenance of permanent highways under the provisions of this act, the proper state officers shall levy and collect a tax of one and one-half mills upon all property in the state subject to taxation for the year 1913, and for each year thereafter. All moneys derived from such tax shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to a fund to be known as the "Permanent Highway Fund." The amounts received from each county shall be credited to the county paying the same, until such time as the same shall be expended on contracts for permanent highways within such county or for the maintenance of the same under the provisions of this act. Five per cent of all moneys credited to each county under this act and which shall be derived from taxes levied for the year 1912 and subsequent years shall be set aside and expended by the board of county commissioners, upon vouchers approved by such board, for maintaining and repairing roads constructed under the provisions of this act and other roads of like character, and no part of such five per cent shall be expended for any other purpose. [L. '11, p. 126, § 14; L. '13, p. 491, § 5.]

§ 5879–15. Transfer Fund.—Upon the taking effect of this act, the state treasurer shall transfer from the public highway fund to the permanent highway fund hereby created, and placed to the credit of each county, a sum equal to one-half of all taxes levied in such county for said public highway fund for the years 1907, 1908, 1909 and 1910, first deducting therefrom all sums expended from the public highway fund for state aid road purposes in such county under the provisions of chapter 150 of the Session Laws of 1907 prior to such transfer. All payments on contracts executed prior to the passage of this act for state aid roads shall, from and after the date of its passage, be paid out of the permanent highway fund and charged to the county in which such state aid road is situated: Provided, that if any county shall not have sufficient money to its credit in the permanent highway fund to carry out any such contract or contracts, then and in that event the state treasurer shall transfer to the credit of such county from the public highway fund to the permanent highway fund sufficient money to complete the existing contracts for state aid roads. For the purpose of making the transfers from the public highway fund to the permanent highway fund, as provided in this section, there is hereby appropriated out of the public highway fund the sum of five hundred and eighty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary. [L. '11, p. 127, § 15.]

§ 5879–16. No Railroads on Highway.—No railroad or street railroad, by whatsoever power operated, shall be constructed upon any permanent highway or section thereof which may be improved under the provisions of this act, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, nor shall any such railroad or street railroad be constructed upon any public highway or section thereof of which such permanent highway is a continuation. [L. '11, p. 127, § 16.]

§ 5879-17. Bonds for Improvements Heretofore Made.—Where any assessment for the improvement of any permanent highway pursuant to petition has heretofore been made and extended upon the tax-rolls of any county and said assessment has not been paid, the county commissioners may provide for the payment of the same in installments, and may issue bonds of the county to an amount not exceeding such unpaid assessment in the manner provided in section 5879-10. [L. '13, p. 491, § 6.]

§ 5879-18. County Roads Through Fourth Class Cities.—Each and every county of this state is hereby authorized to build, construct and improve any permanent highway as same is defined by this chapter, through the corporate limits of any city of the third or fourth class, upon such streets or other rights of way connecting with such permanent highway in the corporate limits of such municipality as may be provided for such purpose by the municipal authorities, of sufficient width and appropriate for said purpose. § 5879-19. Eminent Domain—County may Pay Damages.—Where such city or town is unable to pay for the condemnation of such rights of way, the county may pay or aid such municipality to pay for the same. All expenses herein authorized shall be disbursed and all such construction, improvement and repair herein contemplated shall be disbursed under, and be controlled wholly by, the provisions of this chapter, or law amending or superseding the same. For this purpose said board of control is hereby authorized to accept on behalf of the state, any deed of gift or grant of any such site, or to purchase the same and accept deed of purchase thereof. In all cases where said board of control is unable to agree with the owners as to the reasonable and fair value of the premises sought, said board shall report such failure to the governor, who shall forthwith, by order, direct proceedings to acquire the same by condemnation, to be instituted by the attorney general in the superior court of the county wherein such premises are located, while proceedings shall be instituted therein by the attorney general in the manner provided by law for the taking of private property for public use, and to that end it is hereby declared necessary for the public uses of the state to acquire or appropriate the premises described in the order of the governor, and said attorney general is hereby authorized to institute and maintain, in the name of the state, the proceedings so far as applicable provided for in section 891 to section 900 inclusive, to the same extent and in like manner as if the legislature had by specific act declared it necessary for the public uses of the state to acquire or appropriate the same. Building for Convicts — Rock-crushers and Machinery.— Whenever under the provisions of this chapter any site and quarry is procured, the state highway commissioner shall take possession thereof, and may forthwith erect and construct at and upon the same such stockades, buildings and structures as may be necessary, suitable and adequate for the safe confinement and comfortable housing of such convicts as may from time to time be confined or worked therein, and may likewise purchase and install therein such suitable and proper rock-crushing plants, machinery, appliances and tools, and with such capacity as in the judgment of the highway commissioner may be necessary and adequate to keep continuously employed and occupied such force of convicts as may from time to time be worked therein. [L. '11, p. 517, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 812, § 4.]

§ 5911. number of able-bodied convicts when available to keep and maintain said plant therein installed in continuous operation to its full capacity, for which purpose said convicts may be transferred from the penitentiary at Walla Walla. [L. '11, p. 517, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 812, § 5.]

All rocks so crushed shall be, upon the request of the state highway commissioner, loaded upon the car or vessel and there delivered to said state highway commissioner, who shall use the same in the construction or maintenance of state roads or state aid roads: Provided, however, that so much of said materials as the state highway commissioner may not at any time require for use on state roads or state aid roads shall be by said highway commissioner disposed of at not less than ten per cent above estimated cost f. o. b. the car, scow or boat at the place of production, to counties, cities or towns within the state in the order of application therefor, excepting in cases where the demands of such counties, cities and towns may be in excess of the supply, in which case the state highway commissioner shall apportion, deliver and distribute such material among the several counties, cities and towns applying, in such proportion as in his judgment may seem fair and equitable: Provided, further, that all materials used by the state highway commissioner on any state road shall be paid for out of the appropriation, apportionment or fund for the construction or improvement of the particular road upon which it is used, and all material sold to the state highway commissioner or to any county, city, town or other municipality, shall be at not less than ten per cent above the estimated cost of production at the place of delivery: Provided further, that when the quantity of material on hand is in excess of the amount demanded by the state highway commissioner for use upon state roads, or state aid roads, or for disposition to the counties, cities and towns as herein provided, then the same may be disposed of by the state highway commissioner, at such prices, not less than the cost of production, as said commissioner may deem most advantageous for the state, giving prior right of purchase to citizens of the state of Washington before applicants from another state: And provided further, that nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prohibit the state highway commissioner from employing within said stockades, or at said quarry sites, in the production of said material and in the operation of said quarry, such free labor as the commissioner may deem necessary or proper. [L. '11, p. 517, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 813, § 6; L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 39, § 2.]

§ 5934. Procedure on Failure to Comply With Order. — If the court be satisfied by information or complaint and due proof, under oath, that at any time the defendant has violated the terms of such order, it may forthwith proceed with the trial of the defendant under the original indictment or information, or sentence him under the original conviction, or enforce the original sentence, as the case may be. In case of forfeiture of a recognizance and enforcement thereof by execution, the sum recovered may, in the discretion of the court, be paid in whole or in part to the wife or to the guardian or custodian of the minor child or children. [L. '07, p. 200, § 2.]

As to repeal of this section, see § 2304, and note. See note to § 5933.

§ 5935. Evidence.—No other evidence shall be required to prove marriage of such husband and wife, or that such person is the lawful father or mother of such child or children, than is or shall be required to prove such facts in a civil action. In all prosecutions under this act any existing provisions of law prohibiting the disclosure of confidential communications between husband and wife shall not apply, and both husband and wife shall be competent witnesses to testify for or against each other to any and all relevant matters, including the fact of such marriage and the parentage of such child or children. Proof of the desertion of such wife, child or children in destitute or necessitous circumstances or of neglect to furnish such wife, child or children necessary and proper food, clothing or shelter is prima facie evidence that such desertion or neglect is willful. [L. '07, p. 201, § 3.]
